We copy the above item from tha Franklin News, and would suggest that the citizens of Tionesta take a similar step. The Odd Fellows having provided a beautiful cametery lot, there should now be a good walk built to it, and as most of the ground is unimproved, and in a large body, it is hardly reasonable to compel the cwners to build entirely at their own expense. Oil News.

The Balltown well was shot last week, but it is not reported to be a gusher, although it is thought it will make a good pumper. They got 30 feet of sand which is pronounced, by men who know their business, to be first-class, and the regular Bradford sand. One of the owners tells us that the well on Berry run, one-half mile northeast of the one just finished, and which was put down last fall, will be drilled 250 feet deeper, or to the depth of the last venture. This looks as though the operators were satisfied with their strike, and think they have got the right sand at last. Operations will be pushed rapidly, and in ten days or two weeks we shall know more about that territory than ever before.

The Derrick has the following concerning the "Mystery" on lot 646: "The latest rumor concerning 646 is that the Union pipe line has purchased the pipe for the purpose of runping a line to the well. It is understood the purchase was made through R. E. Townsend & Co., of Bradford. The production of the well for five days, says an operator who has the inside track, was five hundred barrels or an average of one hundred barrels a day. Several rigs have been located and others building."

In connection with this we can add that a well-posted gentleman, fresh from that section was in town yesterday, and informed us that speculation was going on at a great rate. According to his maps, which we had the privilege of consulting, the "Mystery" is on a direct 45 degree line from the Kinzua and Clarendon districts to the Balltown property, thence running almost parallel with Tionesta creek through Kingsley and Green townships of this county. The gentleman also informed us that several large sales of lands had lately taken place in the vicinity of the "Mystery," the prices ranging from $100 to $175 per acre and one-eigth royalty. One man sold 100 meres for $17,500; another party received a check for $100,000 for a tract of land "on the bolt." The excitement in that vicinity is increas-

JENKS TOWNSHIP.

Its Industries, Saw Mills, Stores, and Rapid Improvements --A Regular Boom, &c., &c., &c.

The many persons, who for years past have visited the little village of Marienville, and its environs, would lethargic slumber; and some like Dickens' McCauber, "waiting something to turn up." Well, the "twenty years" are ended, and something has really "turned up."

The change—the bustle and activity -is caused by various industries, the work of outside capitalists. Within six miles of Masien there are seven steam mills. One mile north is the mill of Henry, Bayard & Co., of Philadelphia,-with whom Dr. Towler is associated-cutting hard wood at the rate of 10,000 feet per day. This company has on hand a stock of 500,000 feet, and ship from three to six cars daily. The mill has a switch, or branch railread, running to main line of the P. B. & B. Railroad.

About the same distance northwest is the mill of Shipe, Mensch & Co., sawing for A. B. Howland, or the Enterprise Transit Co., of which he is the manager in this county. This company's lumber is brought to the Centre by a tram-road, known as Punky Hill R. R. It is there piled for shipment, on a short switch from main line of R. R. The stock on hand is about 1,000,000 feet, and has passed into the hands of Henry, Bayard & Co. These two companies alone have put in circulation here not less than $40,000 in the last year, and are not yet through.

Three miles southwest Curl, Campbell & Co., of Clarion, are putting up a fine mill and storehouse, &c., to cut the timber on their 3,000-acre purchase. We are very glad to have such firms as these come into the woods. The station at the mill is called "Gilfoyl," which might be changed to "Curl" or "Campbell" without dam-

West of this is the mill of Williams & Co., cutting hard wood, of which they have a large stumpage. this party is connected Jack McCray, whose bald head is a shining light in the wilderness, and whose genial face, and hearty good nature, makes him a general favorite.

Away six miles north is Byrom's. This mill you have noticed, recently, in your columns. We would only add to what was said, that Mr. Byrom is a man of intelligence and has a large fund of general information always on hand, that renders him very companionable, as well as a very worthy citi zen. Of course he is a Republican.

Near Byrom's is Frost's Mill, cutting for Taylor & Crate, of Buffalo, and south and east of Frost's is Wood's mill, owned by L. D. Wood & Co., of Grand Valley. This mill, like Byrom's, cuts pine. Between Wood's and Frost's Mill, near the railroad, is the mill of Frank Reck, with whom all Forest County is acquainted. Frank's mill is one of the best in the The "little railroad" adds much to the life of Marien. As yet we have only one train per day and that is probably all we will have until the road is finished to Kane. The Depot is large and commodious, and a credit to the railroad and the place. Mr. Pritner, the express and ticket agent, telegraph operator, &c., &c., is a firstrate official, both accommodating and courteous, which is more than can be said of some R. R. officials, in larger Pittsburgh, Pa.

Kahle & Son have a general store in the Old Court House, and do a nice Pittsburgh, Pa. business. Mr. Kable, Scuier, is the Ex-Assemblyman from Clarion, whom his party played "gag" on, and who in disgust went over to the Greenbackers. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word. Kable Jr., or "Jim," is known all over oildom, and is as white a man as ever voted the Democratic ticket. Success to Kahle & Son.

Hines, of Shippenville, has opened up a meat market and provision store. Saturday before Easter he sold ninety dozen eggs, which shows the profoundly religious character of our people-at least at this time of year.

The old Centre House contains one French family, the head of whom is Chief Engineer on the Punky Hellow R. R., before mentioned; one Swede family, whose "governor" presides over the section men of the R. R.; and one batchelor German who runs the boot Farch St., Philada.

and shoe business. So you see "all nations" contribute to our growth, With the many visitors we have recently had the following may be mentioned: A. R. McHeary, Mark D. Sprout, Chas. W. Henry, Albert Collom and Miss Thurman of Philadel phia; J. Minor and F. Green, of Pittsburgh ; M. Mandeville, Corry ; be quite surprised now, to note the John Whitney, Olean, N. Y., and great change. Some of the inhabit- Patrick McGuire, of the "auld sod," ants were, like Rip Van Winkle, in a who says the "haythen Chinea is rainin' the countbry."

The last oil venture of Dr. Towler deserves notice, as it resulted in a large gas well, which illuminates at night all the immediate vicinity, and the reflection is seen seven and eight miles away.

Like all growing places we have our accidents. "Josh" Heath broke his leg, while cutting logs. Two of Williams' men got badly scalded from a bursting steam pipe. McCloskey, on the H. B. & Co. mill, fell from a runway and fractured two ribs, and one railroad employee had his hand badly smashed while coupling cars. Death, also, came into our midst, and removed from all earthly care William Robinson, at the ripe age of 76. His neighbors laid the worthy and excellentold man in the little graveyard beside the grave of his wife, who only three months before preceeded him to that land where parting is unknown.

Prof. Brockway is a frequent visitor, though of late has been kept close at home on account of the sickness of his mother.

Some time since a reporter of the Oil City Derrick undertook to show up the need of this section for "soap and spelling books." We have gentlemen who are willing to "put up" more than that acribe ever honestly earned by telling the truth, that we have more intelligence and more cleanliness, in proportion to the inhabitants, than has Oil City, or even the Derrick office. Our school houses are a credit and our teachers are excellent. Three of our citizens are Ex-County Superintendents, while fully half of the families in the township have one or more members who have passed examination as teachers. As for the "poverty" he speaks of, let the fact be known that Jenks township never has had any necessity for a board of Overseers of the Poor testify to the untruthfulness of his report. In the few cases where the Commissioners have acted as Overseers, it has been for persons from other counties not natives. As usual with such would-be smart reporters, he overshot the mark, for after stating the poverty, the filthiness, stupidity, and ignorance of this section he adds, "The Weekly Derrick was very favorably received by the people." It's not often a description of ignorance is so finely illustrated as by that finishing touch. It is fortunate for the Derrick that it has not many such reports and reporters. When a reporter goes out to pick up news and subscribers at the same time, his report should have more of truth, and less of abuse than this "soap and spelling-book" smarty worked up. He says "subscribers will roll in." Well, when old man Cunningham sees that article, he will "raise a club" for that young man that will be of gigantic proportions, and it wont by subscribers that will do the "rollin'." XXXX.
