REPUBLICAN STATE CON-· VENTION.

The ticket nominated by the Republican State Convention at Harris burgh last Wednesday, is as follows: For Governor, James A. Beaver, of Centre county.

For Lieutenant Governor, William T. Davies, of Bradford county.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, William Henry Rawle, of Philadel

For Secretary of Internal Affairs John M. Greer, of Butler county. For Congressman-at-Large, Thomas

M. Marshall, of Pittsburgh.

For months past the country has been ringing with the cry that the convention, which acquitted itself so nobly, would be the creature of the "hosses," und was only called to register their pre-determined will. How emphatically and nobly these false assertions were contradicted by the action of the convention! But these slanders will not be stopped. On the contrary, the very absence of a just cause of disappointment or complaint will what the appetites of the malcontents to go on with their abuse. Jn dependentism is independent of justice, fair party dealing and the principle of the Republican party. Whoever cannot give a hearty, unqualified pronounced by the convention, and the ticket placed in nomination, is simply not a Republican. There is Every honorable concession was made to conciliate and harmonize, and with all true Republicans the effort was crowned with complete success.

The ticket neminated is without exception or qualification the very best that has been presented for the approval of the party at the polis for In all its parts the manhood, honor of education than they afforded, when to make it complete. tory of all :

JAMES A. BEAVER.

On General Beaver's nomination the Meadville Republican truthfully remarks:

"General James A. Beaver, of Contre county, was nominated for Governor by acclamation amid the wildest enthusiasm. His nomination was a conceded fact before the convention met. By his straight-forward and manly course throughout the canvass he has wen the confidence of every member of the party. He has indentified himself with no clique or faction. He has made no bargains with any ring; nor has he made any promises to hamper his official actions as Governor. He is, therefore, the candidate of the united Republican party, and he will have its undivided support in the coming contest. General Beaver has a national reputation as an orator; as a soldier his record is among the bravest in the land; he is eminent in his profession as a lawyer, and as a christian gentleman his character stands without a blemish, challenging the closest scrutiny of his fellow-citizens. The fact of his having been chosen, without opposition, to head the ticket by such a convention proves him to be one of the most popular men in the State, and ensures a rousing Republicgu majority for Pennsylvania at the November election."

WILLIAM T. DAVIES.

Senator William T. Davies, who was also nominated by acclamation, was born in Glamorganshire, Wales, December 20, 1831. In early life he emigrated to this country, and after obtaining a rudimentary schooling entered the Owego Academy, New York, where he was educated. After graduating he read law and was admitted to pratice in Bradford county. In 1875 he was elected district attorney for the term of three years, but in 1877 he was chosen Senator for the short term. In 1880 he was re-elected and entered upon his present four years' term with the beginning of the last session of the Legislature.

WILLIAM HENRY RAWLE.

William Henry Rawle was born in Philadelphia, August 31, 1823, and is nearly sixty years of age. He is a son of Wm. Rawle, jr., whose reports of the decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania gave him enduring reputation in his profession. Mr. Rawle is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania of the class of '41, and was admitted to the bar in 1844, and has distinguished himself both as a practitioner and as an author on support to the declaration of principals legal subjects, his published works being numerous and valuable. Mr. Rawle has never held any political or judicial office, though he has exerted no further use in mineing matters. his personal influence in behalf of reform in political methods, and has been especially outspoken against corruption in municipal affairs in Philadelphia.

JOHN M. GREER.

Senator John M. Greer was born in Jefferson township, Butler county, on the 3d of August, 1844. He attended years, and it will be elected beyond the public schools of the neighborhood all question of doubt. The Republican party of the State of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, lo reaffirm the principles of justice, equal rights, honesty and economy in the Na-tional and State administration upon which the party was founded, and upon which it has so long and continuously triumphed, and does hereby resolve that t has always been the aim and purpose of the Republican party to carefully guard the interests of the laboring classes by all suitable legislation, and to that end the protection of American industry by the advocacy of the continuance of a proper and judicious tariff is enjoined upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress, Resolved, That as the sense of the great body of the Republican party of the State of Pennsylvania we declare: First, That we unequivocally condemn the use of paironage to promote personal political ends, and require that all offices bestowed within the party shall be upon the sole basis of fitness.

Second. That competent and faithful officers should not be removed except for Third, That the non-elective minor ffices should be tilled in accordance with rules established by law.

Fourth. That the ascertained popular will shall be faithfully carried out in State and National Convention and by those holding office by the favor of the party. Fifth. That we condemn compulsory assessments for political purposes, any proscription for failure to respond either to such assessments or to requests for voluntary contributions, and that any policy of political proscription is unjust and cal-culated to disturb party harmony. Sixth. That public office constitutes a high trust to be administered solely for the people, whose interests must be para-mount to those of persons and parties and mount to those of persons and parties, and that it should be invariably conducted with the same efficiency, economy and in-tegrity as are expected in the execution of private trusts.

Seventh. That the State ticket should be such as by the impartiality of its constitu-tion and the high character and acknowl-edged fitness of its nominees will justly commend itself to the support of the uni-tions, all going to show how our industed Republican party.

Resolved, That we also recommend the doption of the following permanent rules for holding State Conventions and the conduct of the party:

First, That delegates to State Conventions shall be chosen in the manner in which the candidates for the General Assembly are nominated except for Separate.

sembly are nominated, except for Senatorial districts composed of more than one county, in which conferees for the selection of Senatorial delegates shall be chosen in the manner aforesaid.

Second. Hereafter the State Convention of the Republican party shall be held on the second Wednesday of July, except in the year of the Presidential election, when it shall be held not more than thirty days previous to the day fixed for the National Convention, and at least sixty days' notice shall be given at the date of the notice shall be given at the date or the State Convention.

Third. That we recommend to county organizations that in their rules they allow the largest freedom in the general participation in primaries consistent with the preservation of party organization.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Federal Government to adopt a policy which will result in observing good faith towards aborigines by keeping intruders out of the Indian Territory, by enacting laws proteeting life and property on reservations, by prohibiting tribe removals, by educa-ting all Indian children in manual labor chools, and by giving lands in severalty, and eventually citizenship to all self-supporting Indians who desire the same. Resolved, That we most deeply deplore Resolved. That we most deeply deplore the loss sustained by us, in common with other portions of our nation, in the death of President James A. Garfield, who ex-emplified by his whole life and public career the principal, which constitute the highest type of American manhood, and who, when stricken down by a cowardly assassin, showed by his fortitude and heroic patience that his profession that he was ready to give his life for his country was not an empty boast.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the widow and mother of our late President and his bereaved children, and we say to them that his life and memory are the richest legacy which could have been bequeathed to them.

Resolved, That the administration of President Chester A. Arthur, commenced under such and trying circumstances, has proved to be wise, conciliatory and efficient, and is entitled to the cordial support of every Republican.

Resolved, That under the administration of our worthy tion of our worthy and able Governor, Henry M. Hoyt, the affairs of our State have been wisely, honestly and economically administered, the interests of the tax-payers of the State been carefully guarded, and the administration of the confidence of every citizen.

Resolved, That the ticket nominated this day combines purity of personal character with eminent ability, is worthy of the hearty and undivided support of every true Republican, and for its election we hereby pledge our earnest efforts.

Resolved, That the State Committee b constituted according to the usages of the party, the delegation from each district present to the Secretary of this conven-tion the name of the person desired to be placed thereon.
