LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with 4 columns: Train, Time, Direction, and Remarks. Includes Train 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 with various times for North and South directions.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—The town is quite dull since the rafts pulled out.

—Judge Cook, candidate for Congress, shook hands with Tionesta friends this week.

—Norton & Dubal continue to sell a great many of their superior Howe sewing machines.

—Apple blossoms are beginning to show up, and vegetation is making some stir in the ground. Its time.

—Fresh oranges, oatmeal, codfish, &c., this week at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co. 1t.

—Mr. John Barton, who was drafted into our service a few minutes while in town.

—Pretty heavy frost on Sunday night last but we have heard no complaints yet, and so presume no damage was done.

—Robinson & Bonner have a new and active clerk. The gentleman's name is Mr. Clinton Baker, of Spring Creek, Warren county.

—Miss Belle Robinson of Reynoldsville, Pa., is paying her Tionesta friends a visit, being the guest of her brother's family, Mr. G. W. Robinson.

—Mr. Jas. H. Fones left for Harrisburg on Monday last to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. of O. F., as representative of Tionesta Lodge.

—Smearbaugh & Co. have attached a very handsome awning to their store front, which is a wonderful improvement and makes their store look quite "cityfied."

—For the benefit of our friend Bill, of Brookston, who so strenuously objected to the vegetable "ad." we have expunged it, but we won't agree to keep it out.

—Messrs. Syc Neill and R. D. Fisk of Harmony twp., dropped into our sanctum a few moments yesterday. They are pleasant gentlemen, but awfully Democratic.

—Mr. A. B. Kelly will represent Forest county on the Republican State Central Committee the ensuing year, he having been elected by the convention held last Wednesday.

—A special meeting of the A. O. U. W., will take place this (Wednesday) evening. As many of the members as can be requested to be present. Important business. Per order of G. W. Sawyer, M. W.

—Quite a change in the time of trains will take place to-morrow. The new schedule will be as follows at this station: Up river—7:24 a. m., express; 8:50 a. m., local; 4:04 p. m., mail. Down river—1:05 p. m., express; 8:08 p. m., mail.

—Baldwin's Official Railway Guide for May is on hand with its usual supply of good things for the traveling public. No journal of its kind has ever made more rapid strides to success than Baldwin's, and it is justly celebrated and popular.

—M. M. Seybolt and Squire Cole represented Brookston on the jury this week. Mr. A. P. Anderson of the same place, secured his voting papers at this court and thus is another sound Republican added to the already large list in Forest county.

—Mr. Henry Heber, Jr., formerly of this place, is now engaged in the hardware trade at Tionesta, Pa., and from the papers published at that place we learn that he has his store already opened and is meeting with much success. Henry has great faith in printer's ink, and we know that he will succeed.—Brookville Republican.

—Dr. Morrow reports a fine young lady arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, of Green township, on Tuesday morning; weight nine pounds. Mr. Clark is a brother of our townsman Jas. K. Clark, and son-in-law of our old friend Geo. Bluerock.

—Freddie, a bright and interesting child of Anthony and Amanda Deet, of Brookston, this county, died on Friday last, 12th inst. His age was 4 years, 7 months and 12 days. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors.

—While on his way to town one day last week John Heath lost out of his vest pocket a five-dollar bill, somewhere along the Dutch Hill road. John don't much expect to see it again, but all the same would feel very grateful to the finder if he would return it to him.

—Drilling on the Beaver Valley well was resumed on Monday last. The result of this venture will probably be known in ten days or two weeks. The owners promise not to make a mystery of it, but will let the public know the best or worst as soon as the hole is completed.

—Luther Vought of the Commonwealth, is attending the Greenback State Convention this week, at Harrisburg, being the representative delegate from this county. Luther, don't let the "bosses" get hold of you; they are worse than hienas, and might tear you to pieces.

—The north ward population is on the increase. A boy at Pat Joyce's domicile on Sunday evening, and on Monday Mrs. Muenzenberger made Johnny the happiest man in town by presenting him with a bouncing girl baby. There is no limit to John's good feelings, and nearly every smoker in town has puffed at his expense.

—Although the attendance is quite large this is a very quiet court week. Up to this writing but one (the Mealy) case has been called, and that is still on trial. The railroad suit has been continued to September term. P. S.—The verdict of the jury in the Mealy case was "not guilty." The case of Freeman vs. Cornwell is on trial as we go to press.

—Last week's rains produced a glorious flood in the creek and river, in consequence of which a large amount of lumber—all that was left, in fact—was brought out, and on Monday started for its destination to market. It was by odds the finest flood we have had this season, and a happier crew of men than the lumbermen seemed to be would be difficult to find.

—"The Verdict March" is the latest piece of music, and is already very popular. It was composed by Eugene L. Blake, and published by F. W. Helmick, Cincinnati, O., at 40 cents per copy. The title page contains a perfect likeness of Judge Cox, Judge Porter, George B. Corkhill, and the twelve jurymen, who convicted Giteau. Send for it.

—Capt. W. W. Barr, of Clarion, was in town this week to see what his chances were for securing the endorsement of the Democracy of Forest for State Senator in this district. The Captain is a fine looking gentleman, and would doubtless make a good Senator, but the Democratic "bosses" have promised the county to Senator Hall, and Capt. Barr will probably have to stand back.

—Mrs. Jessie James sends us a circular denying that she is identified with any publication purporting to be a history of her late husband's life. She does not know that he was a bad man, and will not be a party to the dragging of his character before the gaze of the world. The circular is well gotten up, most likely by her attorney.—Warren Ledger. We received a similar circular, and are also of the opinion that Mrs. James did not write it.

—A call at the studio of W. A. Greaves last week found this popular artist full of business. He has been "cleaning house" to the extent of making his rooms very handsome and pleasant, and now has many fine pictures on exhibition. He has some beautiful frames on sale; also a lot of plaques and sketching material, suitable for persons who want to ornament and decorate. Among his many orders he is now painting portraits of Berry Keeler and Nettie Silk. Both, we think, are very good portraits, and are works of art that well show the superior taste and skill of the artist.—Warren Mail.

—The friends of Mr. Partridge at Jamestown dispatched his friends here to the effect that if they would see him alive they must come at once. This would indicate that he is sinking very fast, and perhaps before twenty-four hours have elapsed he will have passed from earth. Mrs. J. G. Dale and the children of Mr. Partridge departed for Jamestown this morning. Our citizens have been hoping almost against hope for his recovery, and although to a certain extent prepared to receive the news of his death, it will be a sad message when it comes. P. S.—Just before putting our paper to press we received the news of Mr. Partridge's death, which occurred last evening at half past six o'clock. Further particulars next week.

—The Buffalo, Pittsburgh & Western Railroad Co. announce that the opening of the Kinzua Extension will take place to-day, and will celebrate the event with a complimentary excursion over "The Bradford Short Line," from Titusville to Bradford and return. The B. P. & W. R. is now in position to transport passengers and freight between the lower and upper oil countries quicker and at less rates than ever. The present efficient managers have put the road in splendid trim throughout, and it is pleasant to know that the company is prospering admirably. Our thanks are due Wm. S. Baldwin, Esq., the popular and efficient General Passenger Agent, for an invitation to attend the excursion, which cannot be otherwise than a pleasant success. Sorry we are too much rushed with work to attend this royal affair.

—Miss Minnie Freeman has so far recovered from her severe sickness as to be able to ride out. She expects to go to Franklin to-day to visit her brother L. R. Freeman. Miss Freeman and her mother desire through our columns to extend their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who bestowed such kind assistance and sympathy during her illness, and wishes to say they will ever be kindly remembered by them. They will leave for their Maryland home as soon as Miss Minnie is able to travel, bearing with them the good wishes of their many friends here.

—The Philadelphia Record of recent date has the following item: "A representative of German and English bankers seeking investment for a large amount of capital arrived in this city some weeks ago, and after spending several days in consultation with a leading banking house repaired to the oil centres of this State. He is quietly making purchases of oil. He states that the oil fields in Russia and Germany have not yielded what they promised, and the indications are that they will soon be exhausted. He proposes buying $5,000,000 barrels."

—The "Western Pennsylvania Historical Society" was organized in Pittsburgh last week. The following counties are included within the range of the Society: Allegheny, Erie, Venango, Jefferson, Forest, Westmoreland, Armstrong, Indiana, Somerset, Washington, Fayette, Greene, Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Crawford, Lawrence, Warren, Cameron, Elk, Clearfield, Cambria, Bedford, Blair and McKean. The first regular meeting of this Society will be held in Pittsburgh on Monday, June 5.

—Peterson's Magazine for June, the best of all magazines for the ladies, is on our table. It is fully up to if not ahead of former issues. The principal steel engraving "Her first Hand at an Oar," is charming as is also the colored fashion plate. The June number also contains a most beautiful pattern for a penwiper, which is called the "Oscar Wilde Penwiper," being a handsome sunflower. Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa. Only $2.00 a year.

—The June number of Ballou's Magazine is wholesome spring reading, containing as it does just such matter as is suited for this time of year. There are spirited engravings, a fashion-plate, a trout-stream, and a few comic pictures well calculated to make the most misanthropic laugh. The stories are all good and the poetry excellent. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum, postpaid.

—For nervous debility take Peruna.

WANTED.—for cash—Cherry, Ash, Poplar, Cucumber, and White Oak Lumber. G. M. KEPLER, April 26-4f.

Will of Sarah Ann Ford.

The Pittsburgh Leader of the 10th inst., says: The will of Sarah A. Ford was filed with Register Hoerr this morning. The will is dated May 5, 1882. Thomas Balph and Henry A. Ford are made executors. By the terms of this will H. P. Ford, the decedent's nephew, is made heir to six tracts of land, containing 6,000 acres in Forest and Clarion county, together with mills and other buildings belonging to the firm of Ford & Lacy; also six bonds, of $1,000 each, of the Seventh ward school. Sarah P. and Mary G. and Catherine Ford, daughters of H. P. Ford, are bequeathed her house on the corner of Wyle avenue and Green street, and to Mary Stranahan certain lots of ground in Tionesta and Twenty-second ward are left.

A Card.

The following letter copied from the Clarion Republican-Gazette, will explain itself:

EDITOR REPUBLICAN-GAZETTE:—My attention has been called to an article in the Brookville Democrat, of week before last, which goes on to state that my candidacy for Congress in Jefferson county is to assist in nominating for that position Gen. Harry White. The same article goes on to state that Republicans in Jefferson county voting for me, "are only bringing grist to Gen. White's mill," &c.

Justice to myself and the friends at whose solicitation I have consulted to allow my name to be used for the high position named, demands upon my part a most emphatic denial. I have no hesitation in pronouncing the statement a most unwarrantable falsehood. Those who know me will hardly deem such denial necessary. To those who do not, my word should be sufficient. I wish it distinctly understood that I shall use all honorable means to deserve the Republican nomination for Congress in this district, and should I be selected, will spare no effort to further deserve the confidence the people of the same may place in me. From boyhood I have been identified personally with the interests of the counties of Forest, Jefferson and Clarion, and indirectly with the others composing the district. Of my ability to represent these faithfully I leave to those who know me to judge. My friends certainly know me well enough to know that I will not be made a cat's-paw of or stoop to anything dishonorable for this or any other position in their gift.

Toward the other candidates for the position I have none but the kindest feelings. Their claims are entitled to as respectful consideration as my own. From boyhood I have "paddled my own canoe," I certainly think I can do so in a matter of this kind. In brief, I am a Republican candidate for the nomination for Congress in this the Twenty-Fifth Congressional District. I only allowed the use of my name with the express understanding that I would run in the best interests of the Republican party of the district. Hoping this assurance will be satisfactory to all.

I am Respectfully, ANDREW COOK.

Cooksburg, Forest Co., Pa., April 27, 1882.

To School Authorities.

Office of J. E. HILLARD, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT, FOREST COUNTY, TIONESTA, PA., May 13, '82.

Many of the counties around us have adopted the idea of graduating the students of the Common Schools and have adopted means to that end. Believing the idea to be a good one; a great incentive to school work; and that it would be well to do likewise in Forest county, I would, respectfully ask the Board of — to consider the matter with the view of taking action thereon. The plan we propose is as follows, viz: Have engraved and printed especially for the schools of the county, a Common School Diploma, suitable for framing, and worth preserving and keeping. Let an Examining Committee be appointed,—either on such committee in each school district or one committee for the whole county, or one committee for two or more school districts,—the Committee to meet for the purpose of holding examinations at least once during each school year at such time and place as may be most convenient and necessary. Let the aforesaid Committee have prepared for their use a list of Examination Questions, that the examinations may be uniform throughout the county, and grant the Diploma to such applicants as pass an examination in the Common Branches with a percentage to be determined by the Examining Committee.

The above circular will be presented to the Boards of School Directors at their Annual June meeting for consideration and action. It is to be hoped the plan proposed will meet favorably the views of all who are interested in the lifting up of our schools. It is proposed with only one motive,—the advancement of our educational interests.

—For good fresh Goods cheap go to HASLET & SONS, Feb. 1, '82.

—For weakness of any kind take Peruna.

—The nearest infallible remedy is Peruna.

—At the faintest pain Peruna should be thought of.
