-Since the "Mystery" was let loose our county has been flooded with parties wanting leases, and about twothirds of the available territory has demand. Some of the leases are curiosities-or perhaps "monstrosities" would be a more becoming name. One man leased some territory on Dutch Hill, agreeing to start a well 60 days after he had secured 2000 acres. Now if he should secure 1999 acres and stop leasing the question would be, when will be start the drill? "Verily, there's tricks in all trades but ours."

-A telegram was received here on Wednesday last conveying the sad intalligence of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Anna, wife of Halbert W. Roberts, which occurred at their home in Summerdale, Chautauqua county, N. Y. The deceased was a most pleasing lady, and evjoyed the friendship of a large circle of acquaintances in this place, who are pained to learn of her death. Mr. Roberts' many friends will sincerely sympathize with him in the irreparable loss of his estimable wife, and we hope these sympathies, may, in a measure at least, mitigate his great sorrew. Beside the husband the deceased leaves three small children.
