REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

In pursuance of a resolution of the members of the Republican County Committee at a meeting held on the 19th day of April, 1882, it is ordered that the Republican voters of Forest county meet on SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1882, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the following places of holding primary elections, to-wit:

- Barnett twp., Jacob Maze's carpenter shop. Jenks twp., at old Court House, Marienville. Howe twp., Upper precinct, Brookston; Lower precinct, Balltown. Harmony twp., Upper precinct, Setley School house; Lower precinct, Allender school house. Hickory twp., Upper precinct, Braceville; Lower precinct, at Plank Road school house. Kingsley twp., at Newtown. Green twp., Upper precinct and all south of Lamentation in Kingsley twp., at Gill school house. Lower precinct of Green, at Nebraska. Tionesta twp. and boro., at Court House, in said borough. At which time they will nominate: One person for Congress. One person for State Senator. One person for Assembly. One person for District Attorney. The polls will remain open until 7 o'clock p. m. Each election precinct will elect one person as a member of the County Committee for the ensuing year. The Return Judges will meet at the Court House, in Tionesta Borough, on the following Tuesday to-wit: The 27th day of June, at 2 o'clock p. m. H. S. BROCKWAY, Chairman Rep. Co. Com. Tionesta, June 6, 1882.

"Men may come and men may go," but the principles of right and justice remain. The history of the politics of this Nation has many lessons for the man who believes that his personal interests are superior to the welfare of a great political organization. Curtin, at one time the idol of the masses of this State, disappointed, played a scurvy trick upon the people, for which he has been retired to a subordinate position in the ranks of a party he denounced in the most vulgar and abusive manner; Greeley, in his old age and weakness, blinded by a hope never to be realized, permitted himself to become the candidate of a party which he thus apily described: All Democrats are not horse thieves, but all horse thieves are Democrats; Trumbull, the lion of the West, soured because his personal ambition was not satisfied, deserted to the ranks of the enemy, and to-day the Nation is in doubt whether he is living or dead; Fassenden, the leader of the Senate, not content with the party's policy, imagined himself great enough to destroy it and died of disappointment and bitterness; Johnson and Grimes and Henderson and Van Winkle and Ross and Fenton, to say nothing of the scores of lesser lights, drifted from their party mooring and were wrecked upon the shoals of disappointed ambition. But the end is not yet. As one ambitious would-be leader dies or sinks into obscurity because he can not rule, another takes his place, only to meet with a like fate. The fools in politics seem to be an ever increasing brood and never die and yet never learn.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

DEMOCRATS admit that the Republican State ticket is elected in Oregon, but "returns are insufficient to make an estimate of the Legislature," hence they claim to have won that, but they haven't, and the Republicans gain a U. S. Senator from that State.

THE nominee of the Greenbackers for Governor of Delaware announces that he doesn't want to be "the figure-head of a farce." He therefore refuses to run until he can be convinced of the existence of something like a Greenback party. If he doesn't change his mind it is probable he will never run.—Philadelphia Times.

HON. JAMES MOSGROVE was absent from his seat in Congress when the bill rechartering National banks was finally passed in the House, and the Greenback constituents have a right to know why he failed them on the only distinctively party measure before that body. The explanation of this conduct comes by the way of Kittanning, the local papers noticing the fact that his Honor was at home at the time the re-charter bill was acted upon engaged in the laudable business of organizing a National Bank. The National Bank of Kittanning began business at the time specified with Mr. Mosgrove as its President. If the Greenbackers are men of principle they will hold to a strict accountability the man guilty of such treachery, who will sacrifice a principle that his personal ends may be accomplished and already enormous wealth increased. The Greenbackers evidently have been used as mere tools to accomplish a purpose, and that gained they and their interests are scouted, other interests having a prior claim. And yet the would-be leaders of this so-called party are now bowing down to this "golden calf," and importuning him to misrepresent them for another term.—Brookville Republican.

IN 1872, as now, there were leaders and would-be leaders, whose vanity, egotism and self-esteem had been terribly wounded. One of them had received the highest honors in the gift of the party of the State, but with base ingratitude and under the inspiration of his evil genius, the same that is to-day directing the movements of the malcontents, remained quiet during the summer of that momentous year, only at last to throw the weight of his influence with the party whose leaders had denounced him as guilty of every crime known to the penal code short of murder. But he had been disappointed. The Senate had been the goal which he hoped to gain. Defeated in this, honor and profit and money and the applause of the crowd all palled upon him, and as a recompense he sought in the final throw to defeat the party he pharissically professed to love. But the effort was fruitless. The soldier candidate whom he ought to have aided, but had ungratefully deserted, was elected, and Andrew G. Curtin became a by-word of contempt, and to-day he is regarded as a reegade without principle, barely tolerated by his new found associates, and even they turned him out in the hall to make place for a Greenback guest. There is a lesson which the present reformers might learn from a study of his career.

THE Independents are now whining about a compromise, and Mitchell in Washington shakes his locks and stamps his Senatorial feet, and declares that he will, and he will, and he will, if the party in Pennsylvania does not come down and worship at his shrine. That distinguished member of the Republican party from other States should be willing to enter the canvass in this State to secure a victory he regards as an impertinent interference with his family affairs. Well, before this canvass closes Senator Mitchell will find that the "work of the convention, which, the morning after its meeting in this city, was all that any sincere Republican could desire," will be endorsed at the polls. He will find that the cry of the Democratic and deputy-Democratic press of the State is not founded in fact. The pretense that the party is divided into two hostile camps is as ridiculous as that any considerable body of Republicans should select him as a leader. There is but one Republican camp in this State, and that is, in full confidence of victory, preparing its lines to attack Democracy. That is the sum and substance of the "camp business" in Pennsylvania.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

AN ACT

To regulate the holding of, and to prevent frauds in, the primary elections of the several political parties in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful and it is hereby made the duties of the judges, inspectors and clerks or other officers, of the primary elections, meetings or caucuses held for the purpose of nominating candidates for state, city and county offices within the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, severally to take and subscribe to an oath or affirmation in the presence of each other in form as follows, namely: "I (A B) do that I will as judge, inspector or clerk (as the case may be) at the ensuing election, impartially and faithfully perform my duties, in accordance with the laws and constitution of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the party of the county of for the government of the said primary elections, meetings or caucuses, to the best of my judgment and abilities;" the oath or affirmation shall be first administered to the judge by one of the inspectors, then the judge so qualified shall administer the oath or affirmation to the inspectors and clerks, and may administer the oath to any elector offering to vote as to his qualifications to vote at such election.

Sec. 2. If any judge, inspector, clerk or other officer of a primary election as aforesaid shall presume to act in such capacity before the taking and subscribing to the oath or affirmation required by this act, he shall on conviction be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars; and if any judge, inspector, clerk or other officer, when in the discharge of his duties as such, shall willfully disregard or violate the provisions of any rule, duly made by the said party of the county for the government of the primary elections of the party, he shall on conviction be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars; and if any judge or inspector of a primary election as aforesaid shall knowingly reject the vote of any person entitled to vote under the rules of the said party, or shall knowingly receive the vote of any person or persons not qualified as aforesaid, shall on conviction be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars; and if any judge, inspector, clerk or other officer of a primary election as aforesaid shall be guilty of any willful fraud in the discharge of his duties, by destroying or defacing ballots, adding ballots to the poll, other than those lawfully voted, by stuffing the ballot box, by false counting, by making false returns or by any act or thing whatsoever, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

All acts or parts of acts of assembly inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed, except in counties or cities where special acts are in force for the same purpose: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall entail no expense to the counties or cities.

Approved—The 29th day of June, A. D. 1881. HENRY M. HOYT.

RULES GOVERNING THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY ELECTIONS OF FOREST COUNTY.

- 1. The candidates for the several offices shall have their names announced in one or more of the county papers at least three weeks previous to the Primary Meetings, stating the office, and subject to the action of the party at the said primary meetings. 2. The voters belonging to the Republican party in each township and borough, shall meet on a day to be designated by the County Committee, at the usual place of holding spring elections, at 2 o'clock p. m., and proceed to elect one person for Judge, and two persons for Clerks who shall form a Board of Elections to receive votes and determine who are the proper persons to vote, and who shall hold the polls open until 7 o'clock p. m. After the polls are opened, the candidates announced shall be balloted for: the name of each person voting shall be written on a list at the time of voting, no person being allowed to vote more than once for the same office. 3. After the polls are closed the board shall proceed to count the votes that each candidate has received, and make out the returns accordingly, to be certified by the Judge and attested by the clerks. 4. The Judge (or one of the Clerks appointed by the Judge) of the respective election districts, shall meet at the Court House in Tionesta, on the Tuesday following the Primary Meetings, at 2 o'clock p. m., having the returns and a list of the voters, and the person having the highest number of votes for any office, shall be declared the nominee for the Republican party. 5. Any two or more persons having an equal number of votes for the same office, the Judges shall proceed to ballot for a choice, the person having the highest number to be the nominee. 6. The Return Judges shall be competent to reject by a majority, the returns from any district where there is evidence of fraud, either in the returns or otherwise, and shall reject them where there is evidence of three or more persons voting at the primary meetings who are not Republicans. 7. The Return Judges shall appoint Conferees—Representative, Senatorial and Congressional—whose acceptance of said appointment shall be a pledge to support the person who may receive the largest number of votes cast for that office. 8. The Return Judges may at any time change the mode and manner of selecting candidates as they may be instructed by the people at their primary meetings, due notice being given by the County Committee. 9. The Chairman of the County Committee shall be required to issue a call in pursuance of the action of the County Committee.

PLAIN TRUTHS

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body, and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible.

If disease has entered the system the only sure and quick way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.

These simple facts are well known, and the highest medical authorities agree that nothing but iron will restore the blood to its natural condition; and also that all the iron preparations hitherto made blacken the teeth, cause headache, and are otherwise injurious.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will thoroughly and quickly assimilate with the blood, purifying and strengthening it, and thus drive disease from any part of the system, and it will not blacken the teeth, cause headache or constipation, and is positively not injurious.

Saved his Child. 17 N. Eutam St., Baltimore, Md. Feb. 12, 1882.

Genl:—Upon the recommendation of a friend I tried Brown's Iron Bitters as a tonic and restorative for my daughter, whom I was thoroughly convinced was wasting away with Consumption. Having lost three daughters by the terrible disease, under the care of eminent physicians, I was loth to believe that anything could arrest the progress of the disease, but, to my great surprise, before my daughter had taken one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, she began to mend and now is quite restored to former health. A fifth daughter began to show signs of Consumption, and when the physician was consulted he quickly said "Tonics were required;" and when informed that the elder sister was taking Brown's Iron Bitters, responded "that is a good tonic, take it."

ADOLPH PHILIPS.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS effectually cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Weakness, and renders the greatest relief and benefit to persons suffering from such wasting diseases as Consumption, Kidney Complaints, etc.
