

Republican State Ticket.

For Governor, General JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre county. For Lieut.-Governor, Senator WILLIAM T. DAVIES, of Bradford county. For Judge of the Supreme Court, WILLIAM HENRY RAWLF, of Philadelphia. Republican County Ticket.

For Congress, ANDREW COOK, Subject to the District Conference. For Assembly, E. L. DAVIS. For District Attorney, T. J. VAN GIESEN. For Jury Commissioner, H. O. DAVIS.

This public debt statement for July shows a decrease of $13,860,031.

BEFORE the campaign closes Chairman Hensel will make his followers believe that Pattison is paying off the debt of Philadelphia out of his own private purse.

WM. M. DERR, of Lebanon, is one of the "Garfield Republicans" on the Independent State Committee. He voted for Neal Dow for President in 1880. That is the sort of a Garfield Republican he was.

Just one-half of the counties of the State were represented at the meeting of the Independent State Committee. As the campaign progresses the "party" becomes "smaller o' degrees and beautifully less."

PRESIDENT ARTHUR yesterday vetoed the river and harbor bill passed by Congress lately. The veto gives almost universal satisfaction, because it was supposed to be a steal of gigantic proportions.

M'KEE's pen is now the thorn in the Independent side. It may be smart rhetoric but it is stupid politics that suggests the combining the name of General Grant with Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold.

The party that burdened the State of Pennsylvania with a debt of $40,000,000, at which, at the time they were deposited from power, they were recklessly increasing, will inspire no confidence by specious appeals to taxpayers.

The shot from the 81-ton guns of the British iron clad Inflexible, thrown into the Egyptian forts at Alexandria, weighed 1,650 pounds, and the charge of powder was 300 pounds. Every shot cost $1000 or more.

The Democrats are "always" in favor of the masses as against monopolists—always unless the monopolists are English free trade monopolists. Like the legitimists of France, they are willing that the English shall eat the crops and pillage the land if it is only done in the name of free trade.

WHEN Hancock was nominated he was to run like fire through a clearing. He did, but it was the wrong direction. Then came Pattison. His certificate of election was almost prepared the night he was nominated, and it is said that he seriously contemplated composing his inaugural address, but already his weakness and his unfitness are inspiring the once confident majority with the most distressing fears. "Twas ever thus from childhood's hour, I have seen my fondest hopes decay."

In Wolfe's own county, Union, the county ticket was nominated by the Crawford county system, that is by the direct vote of the party, and the Independents only scored two out of five of the nominees. If this is the case in the strongest Independent county in the State, under the direct leadership of Wolfe, the political revolution of which the Independents clamor must be deferred to some other year. It is not happening this year. Even in Union county Wolfe and his friends could not secure the endorsement of the Independent State ticket. They were even afraid to try.

A RENT has occurred in the Independent movement in Delaware county which split the party. Too much "bossism" was the charge which led to the bolt. Both factions now claim to be Simon-pure Independents, and each refuses to do business with the concern across the way. Independent Independents.

The would-be Minister to Mexico, the would-be United States Senator, the would-be Governor Stewart, stands about as bad a chance of getting to be Governor as he did Minister to Mexico or Senator. He is, however, becoming accustomed to disappointment and will soon pop up for something else. He is a chronic office hunter, but he is not as generally hunted for to fill offices.

HARRY WHITE will be the Republican candidate for Congress in this district as usual. He runs for Congress like a man rolling down hill with a saw log—on top half the time.—Clarion Democrat.

It is quite clever in the Democrat to acknowledge General White's election so early in the campaign. Last year was the General's turn under, and of course he will be uppermost this year, if the simile is perfect.—Brookville Republican.

THE Democratic and Greenback Congressional conferees of this District met at Kittanning last Thursday, and held a "joint" convention, the result of which was the nomination of one Mr. J. D. Patton of Indiana, for Congress. Just what stripes of politics this Mr. Patton claims to swear by we have not learned, but suppose he comes up to the regulation pattern of "joint" candidate. Two years ago the conventions were held in Clarion, in separate buildings, and when you accused a Greenbacker of fusing with the Democrats he would instantly have a corruption fit, and his first utterance upon recovering would be "liar." But this year they didn't go to the trouble of dividing, but just bunched 'em in a "joint" convention. The Greenbackers and Democrats will never "fuse," but they will "joint" every day in the week. It's a nice dish of soup, made right from the "joint," and if you voters "don't like the way we make it you needn't take it," say the bosses.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat cannot understand what Republicans are to gain by permitting the Democrats to carry Pennsylvania this fall. To a Republican, in Missouri, who no doubt gets his information from the truthful New York journals, there may be no other outcome of the present campaign than a Democratic victory. If however, he were nearer the scene of the conflict and give less credit to the croakings of that portion of the pretended Republican press which is doing the best to secure what he dreads, he would find that Democratic victory is not quite so imminent. Pennsylvania is a Republican State, and it will prove the sincerity of its faith by an old-time victory this fall. The line of Republican Governors will not be broken. Pennsylvanians are slow in adopting a principle—political or religious—but when once convinced slight things do not drive them from their moorings. "It takes seven years to make a Dutchman a Methodist, but when he is once made he sticks," is a saying that fitly illustrates the sturdy character of our people. Republicans of Pennsylvania are Republicans because they believe the principles of the party to be "everlasting night." They will vote as they think, and will not be swerved from the true faith by pretended friends or open foes.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

THE North American, M'Michael's paper, says "M'Kee has demonstrated his unfitness to manage a campaign for any considerable party of intelligent men. If a party could be marshalled by epithets and directed by catch words and abusive language, we do not question Mr. M'Kee's ability to run a machine for political purposes. His late letter demonstrates so much." All this is true. But the party is no better than the instrument, M'Kee. General Grant has been the object of so many venomous attacks from the men who are organizing for the defeat of the Republicans that M'Kee was justified in believing that he would be sustained in applying the term traitor to him. Grant has been so much that was bad and so little that was good that it seemed quite natural to this ward politician that comparing him to Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold was merely simplifying the argument. He no doubt congratulated himself over his wit. That he made a mistake he has now discovered, and it may teach him a lesson of prudence for the future, but it would not change his nature or mitigate his hatred for the soldier by whose service the nation was preserved from destruction. He will bite his lip and curse the stupidity that led him into making the blunder, but only because he has lost for his party some votes which it might otherwise have received. That the General who captured Donalson, gave to the country on its natal day Vicksburg, and ended the rebellion under the tree at Appamattox could be a traitor, could sell his country for thirty pieces of silver, nobody but a fool would suppose. The Independents, however, have the honor of possessing that fool for its chairman, and we heartily congratulate them upon their possession.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and C. N. CRITTENTON, New York, July 14-82.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Legonsport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880. For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SANDERS.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.
