For Jury Commissioner,
H. O. DAVIS.

M'KEE'S Democracy has been unmasked. He is chairman of the Independent State Committee only in name, Alex. M'Clure, editor of the Times, is the actual chairman from whom M'Kee receives his orders, and the orders are to play into the hands of the Democrats while pretending to be Independent Republicans.

It is said, by friends and enemies alike, that the Hon. Rev. De La Matyr, of Indiana, "is a much better preacher than politician." Sincerely, and with all love for Mr. De La Matyr, we do hope so. If his preaching isn't better than his politics, fifty cents a year would be big money for any church to pay him.—Beaver Falls Globe.

ARMSTRONG thinks the fight is between Beaver and himself. It is singular, but Pattison is of the opinion that the struggle will be between himself and Beaver; while Stewart entertains the idea that the two candidates who are going to head the poll are Beaver and himself. These political prognosticators can agree upon but one point, and that is that Beaver is the leading candidate.—Pittsburgh Commercial. The choice against the field, as it were.

The people should remember that a Republican House of Representatives passed a bill reducing internal taxation to the amount of $45,000,000 annually, and the Republican members of the Senate tried for two weeks to pass the same act through the Senate, but the Democratic members succeeded in preventing its passage this session by filibustering tactics. If the Republicans had a clear majority in the Senate the people would have been relieved of taxation to the amount of $45,000,000 annually. Keep it before the people.—Franklin Citizen.

ONE by one the Newspapers that favored the Independent movement are falling into line and keeping step to the music of the united Republican party. The Philadelphia Press, which was fully two-thirds Independent and the other third doubtful, is gradually swinging around to safe moorings. The Inquirer, which was out-and-out Independent, is following in the wake of the Press. Both of them will heartily support the Beaver ticket before the campaign is over. The old North American, although one of the M'Michael family is on the Independent ticket for Congressman-at-Large, is not supporting the Independent movement and there is no apparent likelihood of its doing so. Throughout the State the country papers—some of which, having put up the Stewart ticket, have taken it down—are showing more zeal in behalf of the Republican ticket, as the campaign progresses, the indications are that all the reliable Republican papers will be supporting General Beaver and the entire State ticket with old-fashioned enthusiasm. This is as it should be. All thinking men must realize that it will be Beaver or Pattison, and no loyal Republican should for a moment hesitate between voting for a brave, loyal, crippled soldier like General Beaver, or an inexperienced Democrat like Pattison, for Governor of Pennsylvania.

THE Democratic newspapers throughout the State, in order to ally the opposition of would-be Democratic candidates for President and their friends to Pattison, are beginning to explain that he has no Presidential aspirations for 1884, because he is now only 32, while the Constitution of the United States prescribes 35 years as the age qualification. Pattison's age need give the Democrats no concern, as that will not be the qualification that will prevent him from being an aspirant for President in 1884. He will be so badly defeated as a candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania this fall that he won't be in anybody's way for President in 1884, or any other year.

Just now the Democratic press all over the State is encouraging, flattering and coaxing the Independents to stand firm, and not to dieker, reconcile or coalesce with the Republicans. They are advised to maintain their manhood, stand up for principle, rebuke bossism, and never to surrender; no, never. If the Independents could reflect that all this obsequious attention on the part of the Democrats, this fawning flattery, is newly put on, in order that the Democrats may use the Independents—directly or indirectly—in the election of Pattison, they perhaps would recognize that true manhood would not allow them to be made tools of for Democratic uses. True manhood naturally suspects flattery of covert enemies, and Independent Republicans who succumb to Democratic flattery will be ashamed of the uses the Democrats will make of them before the next Governor is inaugurated.

WHEN the Independent campaign opened the pretense was made that it was a movement "of the people, by the people, and for the people." But this claim was soon abandoned, because as the facts in connection with the "selection" of delegates to the Philadelphia convention became known it was found that few had any constituents to represent. At the time it was suggested that data showing the different methods, adopted by the different political parties of the State in selecting delegates to their State conventions be secured and published for the information of all. This has been done, and it appears as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Ind.
Elected by conventions of popular vote.....	36	27	7
By County Committees.....	31	40	0
By Private Caucus.....	0	0	51

So from this it appears that the Independents had seven conventions, and that "private caucus" selected the balance. A pretty people's convention, was it not? Nine counties had no representation of any sort.

School Directors' Convention.

The Delegates elected by the school boards of Tionesta Twp., Tionesta Borg, Harmony Twp., Kingsley Twp., Green Ind., met in convention at Tionesta, Saturday, August 12. Barnett Twp. was represented by letter. Hickory Twp. had previously called a meeting to appoint a delegate, but not enough directors being present to transact business no delegate was appointed. Green Twp. was not represented for the same cause. The business of the convention was to decide upon a series of text books, with a view of bringing about a uniformity of text books in the county. The following were the delegates present:

Tionesta Twp.—Jas. Carson.
" " " Boro.—A. B. Kelly.
Harmony Twp.—John Peterson.
Kingsley " —Belle Lewis.
Barnett " —By letter.
Green, Ind. —Rob't Brumbaugh.
A report of the delegates being called for it was found that the instructions the delegates had received from their respective boards differed very little. These differences were reconciled in a very few minutes, and the convention reported as its choice of text books, which on motion of A. B. Kelly, they recommend to the several school boards of the county for adoption when any change of text books is made:

- Readers—Osgood's New American.
- Spellers—" " " "
- Arithmetics—Goff's.
- Geographies—Guyots.
- Language and Grammar—Hadley's Language Lessons I and II Book, and Lee and Hadley's Grammar.
- History—Anderson's.
- Penmanship—Payson, Dunton, and Scribner's.
- Algebra—Ray's.
- Book keeping—Bryant and Stratton's. On motion of John Peterson, of Harmony Twp., it is recommended that the boards of all the school districts of Forest County that at the Annual Meeting in June of each year they each appoint a delegate; these delegates to convene at the Court House, in the Sheriff's Office, on Monday evening of Court Week in September of each year, to consult together as to schools, school work, school buildings, and the educational interests of Forest county generally; and that the Co. Supt. be requested to be present at this convention. The convention adjourned sine die.

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and C. N. CRITTON, New York, July 4-82.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881.

Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.
