Rev. Mr. Black, of the United Presbyterian Church, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Catholic services will be held in Tionesta on the second Sunday in each month, Rev. Father Flood officiating.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Don't neglect it, Republicans! Get registered at once.

—There will be no camp meeting at Lickingville this year, we learn.

—Mr. Willard McVey, of St. Marys, Pa., is a guest of Mr. Cobb's family.

—Grand picnic and dance next Wednesday, in Tionesta. See notice elsewhere in this paper.

—Miss Kate Cobb, having finished her term of school in Chautauqua county, N. Y., is home again.

—R. Z. Gillespie, of Whig Hill, departed for Titusville, Monday, where he will attend Commercial College.

—Miss Bernice Heath of Richmond Centre, O., sister of Mrs. George Holeman, of this place, is paying her a visit.

—We had a pleasant call from Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Tylersburgh, on Wednesday last.

—Mr. Will Cordell and Miss Jessie Barr, attaches of the Oil City Derrick, paid the REPUBLICAN office a pleasant visit last Friday.

—The boys have determined to have their match hunt a week from next Saturday, Sept 21, which will be the beginning of the squirrel season.

—Miss Eva Beeman, of Centreville, Crawford county, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Chadwick, who returned from a visit to that place on Monday.

—Mrs. Tate, wife of the genial dentist, accompanied by her son and sister, Mrs. Whitehead, of Cleveland, Ohio, is paying the Doctor a visit this week.

—Frank Witherell, of East Hickory, who was in town Monday, reports the death of a rattlesnake, at his hands, which measured four feet and six inches, the largest we have heard of thus far.

—Leonard White of Delphos, Kansas, son of the late Judge White, is among Forest county friends at present. He will remain all summer and recruit his health, which has been somewhat affected by rheumatism.

—Sel. Whitman wishes us to state his blackberry patch is now open to the people, who are welcome to all they can carry away. He says there are berries enough to supply three counties and they are free as water.

—Curt Carr, son of Peter Carr, former section boss at Hunter Station, near Meadville, is visiting friends here. He had the misfortune to lose the two first fingers of the right hand while coupling cars in Meadville, not long ago.

—We learn that the Blue Stockings of this place expect to make more "tallies" than the Northern Lights, of Buck Mills, in a game of base ball on the Island next Saturday afternoon. The game will doubtless be an interesting one.

—Baldwin's Railway Guide for August fully sustains its high reputation for completeness and accuracy in railroad matters. It is not excelled by publications costing double the money asked for it, and ought to be in the hands of every traveler.

—2000 lbs P. Lorillard & Co's Plug Tobacco, just received at HOLEMAN & HOPKINS.

—We chronicle with much pleasure this morning one of the most delightful events which has happened in the social circles of our place for some time, namely, the nuptials of Mr. Curtis M. Shawkey and Miss Belle F. Shoup, which were celebrated in Kittingen, yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Homer J. Smith of the M. E. Church. Both of these young people are well and favorably known in our midst, the groom having for several years discharged an important official trust, that of Deputy Prothonotary, which he still occupies, with eminent ability and credit, and the bride taking a prominent part in the social gatherings of the younger portion of the community. After a pleasant wedding trip taking in the notable places of interest in the State, they will settle down to house-keeping and become one of the staid, solid couples of our town. The REPUBLICAN extends the right hand of fellowship to the happy pair, and joins their large circle of friends in wishing them a long future of unalloyed happiness. Welcome, Curtis, into the grand army of Benedict.

—The happy event of the marriage of Mr. Geo. W. Warden of East Hickory, one of our efficient county auditors, to Miss Sue E. Evans, took place at the residence of the bride's parents in Tidouote, Thursday, Aug. 17th, 1882, the Rev. L. M. Gilleland officiating. On account of the illness of the bride's mother the wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the high contracting parties being present. The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. Shortly after the ceremonies were concluded Mr. Warden and bride departed for an extended tour, which will include a voyage down the St. Lawrence to the Thousand Islands, taking in Boston and other eastern cities. On their return home they will occupy the handsome residence recently erected at East Hickory by Mr. Warden. Both of these young people have a host of friends in this place who will join in wishing them all the abundance of happiness to be had in the wedded state.

—Mr. C. F. Gillespie, of Whig Hill, is now the happy owner of one of the handsomest and most substantial turnouts in the county, and except the horses, it is all of Forest county production. The hack was turned out by Messrs. Raisig & Blum, and is a model of beauty and finish, comparing very favorably with any of the city makes that have come to town. And the harness and cushions of the carriage were the production of Mr. L. Fulton, who sends out as fine and durable work as can be had anywhere. The rig throughout was most complete, and was admired by all who saw it. Mr. Gillespie is one of those who will not go away from home for an article that can be produced here. He believes in patronizing and encouraging home institutions in everything, which is the way for every man to feel who cares to see his community or his fellow townsman prosper.

—The marriage of Mr. John T. Carson and Miss Anna F. Sawyer, took place at the residence of the bride's parents in this place, Saturday last at 11 o'clock a. m. The affair was private, none but the relatives being present. After dinner the happy couple drove in a carriage to Strattonville, where they will spend a few days with Mr. C.'s parents and relatives. Returning they will go to housekeeping and be happy. The thanks of the editor are due for a quantity of cake, which was very elegant. Congratulations to you and yours, John, and may you experience a long life of bliss and prosperity. P. S.—John and his bride returned home Tuesday and last night a reception committee of one hundred, more or less, waited upon him and discoursed some melodious strains. The band was perhaps the best equipped of any in the state and did themselves proud.

—The veteran's reunion at Oil City yesterday, was very largely attended. Upwards of forty people attended from this place, most of whom were old soldiers, and all agree that the affair was a grand success. The veterans express themselves as highly pleased with the hospitality shown them by the Oil City people.

—Teacher's examinations will be held at Clarington, Wednesday, Aug. 30, and Tionesta, Friday, Sept. 1. Applicants will please come prepared. Examinations to commence at 9 a. m.
J. E. HILLARD, Co. Supt.

—Burglaries are becoming alarmingly numerous of late. One night last week the post office at Neilltown was entered and about $40 taken, part of which was post office money, and part belonging to Mr. J. B. Machesney, the merchant and post master. Nothing else of importance was tampered with, the object of the thieves seeming to be money. On the same night, we understand, the post office at Fagundus was entered by burglars, but how much booty was secured we did not learn. What a blessed fine thing it would be if some of these devils could be caught in their work and, without any warning, expire at the end of a shot gun. People with anything in the shape of valuables about the premises should be on the lookout.

—Peterson's Magazine for September opens with a charming steel-engraving from a picture in the last Paris Salon; which is followed by a beautiful double-size, colored steel fashion-plate; and this by nearly fifty wood-engravings, including a colored pattern for a "Tidy on Java canvass." The stories of the number more than maintain the high merit of this well-known and popular monthly. No other lady's book combines so many qualities, and has such sustained merit in every department; it is, emphatically, as the publisher claims, "the cheapest and best." The price is but two dollars a year. Specimens are sent, gratis, to those really wishing to get up clubs. Address, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

—Special cash discounts until Sept. 10th, '82, on Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, &c., at HOLEMAN & HOPKINS.

A Grand Picnic.
The Catholic society of Tionesta and vicinity will give a grand picnic and dance in this place on Wednesday, August 30, 1882, to which every one is invited. The picnic will be held in Robinson's grove, where a nice platform is erected, and dinner will be served there. For the evening festivities the Lawrence Hall has been secured for dancing; supper will also be served in the Hall. A splendid band of music has been engaged for this occasion, and all who attend may count on having an enjoyable time. Rev. Father Flood will have immediate supervision of the affair and see that good order prevails. The charges will be reasonable, and the refreshments plenty and good. Come, all, and enjoy yourselves.

Brookston Brevities.
Well, here we are again. Have been looking around a little.
The Tionesta Valley R. R. is building a long and high trestle over a valley above here, said to be thirty feet high in the highest part.
We notice Fred Jorgenson has a very fine crop of tobacco growing, the first tobacco we have seen growing since we used to travel about Chemung county, N. Y., which was in '70. Have been informed that some musical "cuss" has been in the school house and "busted" the lock on the "organ."

C. W. Blanchard, a bark peeler, cut his foot quite badly last Saturday. Says he has an accident insurance. He left for his home Monday.
We see the telegraph line running through here is down on the county line hill and broken, lying all over the road.
The T. V. R. R. folks here have had a large force of men on for two or three days past.
Jim bought a wagon the other morning and went to Sheffield.

Oil Notes.

The Shannon well on the Cooper tract, Howe Twp., is still a puzzler to the trade. Guards are still kept about the premises so that no outsider can get a squirt at it, nearer than 100 or 200 yards. Several tanks have been erected and we have it from pretty good authority that most of them are filled with oil. A Tionesta boy claims to have got a look into the tanks, and near enough to the well to convince himself that it was a good one. The tanks were all full, he said. The prevailing opinion seems to be that, while nothing like the Cherry Grove gushers, the well will open up big; and it is also the opinion of many that the wells in that field will have better staying qualities than those of the Jumbo district, which decline very rapidly.

Cornwell's well, at Root & Watson's mills, was down about 100 feet last Saturday, and the drillers had a fishing job on hand. We hope, sincerely, that they may not meet with a repetition of the misfortune experienced at their last venture at that place, but this fishing job so soon looks very ominous.

Hancock & Co. have at last got their rig up on Whig Hill and expect to commence drilling to-day. Wolcott & Co. are getting things in readiness to drill the Peters Run well deeper. They have their machinery nearly all on the ground, and the rig nearly completed, and perhaps in four or five days will be ready to bounce the drill. This well is situated on the Tionesta Creek road, about half a mile above the creek bridge, near, or on Peters Run. It was drilled several years ago by W. S. Wood, to a depth of 600 feet and abandoned as dry. A thorough test will be made of this time.

The Tylersburgh well is, of course, a mystery. It is down about 1,400 feet, but as to the indications of oil, we are not aware that there are any as yet. The usual number of oil spies and log huggers are in the vicinity to see what they can.

Whig Hill Notes.
Hay harvesting is over, and oats are ready to cut. The yield of hay was superior to any we have had for many years. Oats are very good. Besides farming, oil developments are of great interest to the inhabitants but as yet there has not been much done. The drill is to commence on Hancock & Co.'s venture this week. Great hopes are anticipated as to the success of this first well in this county.

Among the numerous visitors at this place to-day are Messrs. E. L. Dewoody, J. L. Klinefiver, Leonard White, Wm. Burdick and many more, too numerous to mention.
John Heath, the produce man, is making his usual round through this vicinity gathering his load for the Garfield markets. John is the right man for that position, having had years of experience. Success is sure to crown his efforts and ere many days he will be acknowledged the prince of "hucksterists."

The lightning rod man has been through this neighborhood and of course has put a great many rods upon the houses and barns for the people.
Considerable complaint is made about our school, the vacations coming too often to suit the patrons. We hope to see this remedied ere long.
Sabbath school is good, the attendance is large, and all who attend appear to have a deep interest for its success.

While standing upon the hill to-day I looked into "drone hollow," and the occupants were all amusing themselves by warding off flies and other annoying insects, so I came to the conclusion that all was right, did not disturb the monotony of the place, but past on.
Politics are like "hen's teeth," nothing heard of them.
Emery Decker is the boss butcher. He and Elva Berlin supply the inhabitants with fresh meat every day or two.
Our place is improving rapidly and we will soon have quite a village. We are well supplied with gospel expounders. Three have regular appointments, so you see we should become quite moral, etc.
CAESAR.

Persons recovering from wasting diseases, such as malaria, fevers, etc., will be greatly benefited by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters, a true tonic.

—The September number of Ballou's Magazine contains an interesting account of the rise and fall of the Edward Everett Gold Mining Company, which sailed from Boston in the year 1849, and was one of the first companies to clear for California. The history is told in a pleasant and an accurate manner by Mr. William H. Thomas, the editor of Ballou's, and a member of the company, and shows some of the hardships of the pioneers in gold hunting. All who have visited California should read this history, as it will be found very entertaining. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum, post-paid.

TWO LITTLE BOYS.
BY JUAN HOLMES.
Robbie and John, aged seven and five, are two of the merriest boys alive. They have eyes that glisten like jewels bright, Their hearts are happy, their feet are light. They run and caper, they jump and play Like two little kittens, the livelong day. Sometimes, at play, these frolicsome boys Manage to make a good deal of noise. But if somebody is trying to read, You'll see they'll be very still indeed. Or if the old folks are talking together, About the news or about the weather— Or if somebody's head aches, then you'll see How nice and quiet these boys can be. For though they're the merriest little elves, They can think of somebody besides themselves. They like to help people—do Robbie and John— Two nice little boys as the sun shines on. They are always ready and willing, too, To do whatever they're asked to do. And to mother or father, or grandma or aunt, They never are heard to say "I can't." One day, if they live, these boys will be men, If they're good now, they will be so then. And the world will be better, as time rolls on, For such little people as Robbie and John.
