Republicans Bear in Mind.

That the last day for being assessed is Thursday, September 7.

That the last day for paying taxes is Saturday, October 7.

That the last day for being naturalized is Saturday, October 7.

That the election occurs Tuesday, November 7.

PATTISON sticks to his desk. That is right, Pat. That is just what the people intend you shall continue to do.

LEW CASSIDY and Sam Josephs, two of the eminent Democratic statesmen who did so much to nominate Pattison, for the sole reason that they could say that he is honest, are sadly disagreeing about the local city ticket in Philadelphia.

When rogues fall out honest men will more likely get their dues. Cassidy and Josephs are too greedy to agree long. They should call in their co-laborer and chief of rogues and thieves, Bill McMullen, as umpire.

It would be the first time that Bill has served Cassidy and Josephs a good turn, and vice versa.

THE Allegheny County Democratic Committee discussed the subject of the demoralizing effect of the committee paying the poll tax of persons who are expected to vote the Democratic ticket.

So the Democrats acknowledge, through the chairman of their State Committee, Mr. Hensel, and Mr. Parkinson, a member of the Allegheny County Democratic Committee, that they are in the habit of demoralizing voters by purchasing their votes by paying their taxes!

Yet the Democrats pretend to be reformers.

THE Democrats are charging that there are "bosses" in the labor party, and they are going to sell the vote to the "bosses" of the Republican party.

Good gracious! what a terrible set of fellows these "bosses" are, if we are to believe the Democrats, and what an honest, upright set the Democrats are, especially Aleck McClure, Bill McMullen, and Sam Josephs.

They would neither sell themselves nor be bought. Oh, no; they never did nor never would, unless they are very much belied. Never, if ever, hardly ever.

THE Democrat managers are laboring to work "the desk racket." Every request for the presence of Pattison at a public gathering in the interior of the State has been, and will be, met with the reply that he is too busy at his "desk" to leave.

Pattison has time to leave his "desk" to consort with Josephs and McMullen, and plenty of leisure to loll at Atlantic City, but he has no opportunity to show himself beyond the precincts of Philadelphia. And he won't have.

The bosses have ordered him to stay at home. They are afraid of the effect his appearance will have. His youth and evident inexperience would not satisfy the solid, middle-aged men among the Democrats, and his blundering, halting oratory would not draw out enthusiastic applause.

His masters have him caged, and are telling the people that they may gaze upon his form and listen to his words of wisdom when they have elected him Governor.

In common parlance, the Democratic managers are trying to get men's votes in much the same style a fellow is asked to buy a pig in a poke.

REPUBLICAN Committeemen should thoroughly examine the list of voters of their district and see to it that every Republican is registered. The time is brief in which to complete the work. Registration closes on September 7th. See that your name is on the list.

THE Fusion candidate for Congress—J. D. Patton, Esq.—in his letter of acceptance says: "If elected, I promise to use my best efforts to promote the best interests of the whole people, and faithfully execute the trust reposed in me." That is a handsomely worded paragraph, but then, under circumstances similar in character, one James Mosgrove, about two years ago, uttered a sentiment similar in import. And how did he "execute the trust reposed" in him? Very much after the style that old Capt. Bouch, through lack of ability to master the intricacies of the "corn stalk militia" drill. He wouldn't resign, but, as the puzzled captain expressed it—"Shust quit!"

A member of Congress is not chosen to fill the place of a mere figure head. There are duties and functions demanding talent and ability, and he who reaches the place through a combination of political circumstances that elevate the man, and not the talent and culture to meet the exigencies of the case, must do as James Mosgrove did, retire, confessing that he was not suited for the place. Hence reason and common sense abound in the suggestion that the people of the Twenty-fifth Congressional district seek a higher standard of merit than mere "availability" in a pecuniary sense—the ability to triumph through a liberal use of money. The victory is fruitless if, in the end the mere man prove a figure head only.—Indiana Progress.

The Stupid Challenge.

The game of the Democratic-Independent combination, says the Phila. Evening Bulletin, is a very amusing one. The McKee part of the troupe wants to keep up a semblance of Republicanism, while the Cassidy end of the machine affects a sublime indifference to its new ally. One of the latest bits of the by-play is the report that Mr. Cassidy's candidate cannot talk about a discussion with the Colossal Humbug until he receives a challenge from him! Mr. Cassidy's habitual sardonic smile must broaden considerably at that suggestion. The idea of Stewart challenging Pattison to a debate, and Pattison entertaining such a burlesque proposition is thinner than fine gauze. Why should the Professional Office-Hunter challenge the Model Reformer? They are both pulling in the same boat, and in the same direction, and the pilot who steers is the Democratic triple-headed Boss, Cassidy-Josephs-McMullen. What a farce would this be? What new fraud upon the innocent public? How could such a discussion be conducted. It would have to be Democratic bowler and Independent ten-pins to-day; and Independent bowler and Democratic ten-pins to-morrow. Had Stewart been a Republican, as he pretends to be, Pattison would have been his natural objective. His challenge would have gone to him and it would have been for Cassidy's Candidate to demolish Mitchell's Mouth piece, and drive him from the rostrum by the exposure of his fraudulent pretensions. But Stewart has blundered into a confession of his hypocrisy. He challenges the Republican, not the Democratic candidate. And in doing so, he openly proclaims that his fellowship is with the Democrats and not with the Republicans. It was a stupid thing to do; but it is done, and no cunning after-thought can mend the blunder. Stewart can drop the Republican mask whenever he chooses, for he has clumsily let it slip and betrayed his true features behind it. Stewart went into this business as a Colossal Humbug, and he is playing up to his part at every step, to the infinite discomfiture of such honest men as were fooled at first into a belief in the sincerity of this self-seeking "Independent" movement. This "challenging" business will open a good many eyes to the true relations of the several tickets to the Republican party.

THE Democrats are charging that there are "bosses" in the labor party, and they are going to sell the vote to the "bosses" of the Republican party. Good gracious! what a terrible set of fellows these "bosses" are, if we are to believe the Democrats, and what an honest, upright set the Democrats are, especially Aleck McClure, Bill McMullen, and Sam Josephs. They would neither sell themselves nor be bought. Oh, no; they never did nor never would, unless they are very much belied. Never, if ever, hardly ever.
