Republican Committee Meeting.

The Republican County Committee met at the office of Hon. E. L. Davis; on Monday evening, Sept. 25, pursuant to call of Chairman Brockway. All the Townships were represented, those of the regular committeemen who could not be there personally, being represented by substitutes. The object of the meeting was stated by the Chairman ; this was, to appoint a vigilnace committee for each of the townships, and affect a more therough organization for the ensuing campaign. From three to six Republicans were appointed in each township, the member of the County Committee to be the ehairman of the committee in his township. After a general interchange of views by the gentlemen present, the Chairman stated that the duty of the vigilance committee was to look after the interests of the party in their respective townships, and to confer with the regular member of the county committee when deemed necessary'; to ascertain if any Republican has not yet paid his taxes, and if so to urge apon him the necessity of so doing; to see that on election day all the Republicans are at the polls and vote, and to look after the canvass generally in their precincts. The members selected on the vigilance committee will be notified of their appointment by letter from Chairman Brockway, and we hope they will consider the importance of the campaign and be ever vigilant. The meeting then adjourned sine die.

REGARDING the interrogatories of Brother Dingman relating to the platform adopted at the Republican Congressional Conference in Clarion recently, we guess we'll have to take him at his word when he confesses his ignorance and inability to understand what is meant by "honest money," and say to him that our time and space is to precious to be wasted on such inexcusable ignorance.

In Somerset county the Idependents have thrown off all disguise and made a trading alliance with the Democrats. The conditions of the trade are, that the Democrats endorse the the Independent candidate for Assembly, in return for which the Iudependents agree to cast their votes for A. H. Coffroth, Democrat, for Congress. The same game was played there in 1878, when the Democrats sold out the Independent county ticket, and elected their man Coffroth by Independent votes.

WHENEVER there was a fraudulent account to be put through, or a stolen or forged warrant to be certified to, Pattison was always on hand to lend his name to the accomplishment of the swindle. Pattison may or may not have shared with the thieves, but if he did not, he allowed the thieves to use him in robbing the city treasury of Philadelphia. That much even Democratic papers admit, and no one denies. Is Pattison then a fit man to elect Governor of Pennsylvania ? Certainly not, and he will not be elected.

THE Patriot states that "General Beaver broke his pledges to his constituents at Chicago. If elected Governor the bosses would see that he did not break his pledges to them. The bosses knew their man better than his constituents knew him." The Telegraph defies the Patriot to give the name of one single constituent of General Beaver to whom he made a pledge which he broke at Chicago or elsewhere. Now be candid, fair and explicit, Mr. Patriot. It is either true or false. If true, it is susceptible of proof. If false, it should not again be asserted.-Harrisburg Telegraph.

THE Cleveland Leader, one of the most wide awake and reliable Republican papers in Ohio, on Wednesday last, contained a statement of one of its former staff, a Pennsylvanian, who has gone over the western portion of this State with a view of ascertaining the exact political situation. He represents the party in the most encouraging condition, and that the differences that existed in the early part of the campaigu are fast disappearing, and that General Beaver and the entire ticket is gaining strength every day and will certainly be elected. He justly says that "no one has ever dared to charge any specific exhibition of bossism, or point out a single county where any effort was made from the outside to control the election of delegates. By what process of reasoning then, can it be said General Beaver is not the choice of the party or regularly nominated ? The most malignant Independent or Democrat does not hesitate to admit that Beaver is every way qualified for the office, and has a claim upon the party and the people superior to that of any man ever nomorgans to the contrary. His election inated for the office in Pennsylvania. by a rousing majority is an assured All the issue there is in the State is simply this: The best ticket ever nominsted in the State, with a man at its head who has paid for his claim upon is becoming more and more satisfac-tory every day. The discontents that were being cunningly fomented by the must be defeated and the State turned over to the Democracy, for the sake of striking a blow which will surely not hit the person aimed at. Sensible men will not pull the trigger of a gun realizing every day the importance of which is sure to kick overboard the best ticket we ever had, and our grand old party with it. They believe the party has still a high and grand mission and is able to correct its mistakes without committing hari-kari."
