LOST !

A pair of gold spectacles, somewhere on the road leading up Dutch Hill, on Saturday last. The spectacles were peculiarly suited to the eyes of the owner, who is lost without them, and will feel under lasting obligations to and pay the finder a liberal reward for their return. Leave them at the REPUBLICAN office.

-Mr. F. R. Lanson departed Monday for a few days at the Pittsburgh Exposition.

-Sullivan, the shoulder-hitter, passed down the river on the 1:45 p. m., train last Thursday. Nobody was hurt.

-Charlie Raisig is rushing his new carriage shop along rapidly, and will doubtless have it ready to occupy in two weeks.

-Mr. F. H. Ludlow, of N. Y. City, is paying our county a visit, and looking up his land interests in Jenks township.

--Mr. L. J. Hopkins returned home on Monday from a pleasant visit to his old home in Indiana county. During his absence he took in the Pittsburgh Exposition.

-Bruce Crawford came down town last Friday morning and tried to rent the best eigar stand in town for the balance of the day. It was a girl and Bruce felt so happy about it that he wanted to make a wholesale business of the cigar trade.

-Rev. G. W. Scott, of the U. P. Church, and a native of Hindostan, preached two sermons in the Presbyterian Church, this place, which were highly spoken of. He is but 23 years of age yet a more logical and forcible expounder of the gospel is not easily found among older heads.

-Misses Marie and Annie Jackson gave their friends, to the number of forty or more, a very pleasant party at the Central House last Friday evening. Good music was in attendance, splendid refreshments were served, and all agree that they never enjoyed a more pleasant occasion in Tionesta.

-The sidewalk in front of the Democrat office is undergoing repairs, and this just reminds us that there is one -Preaching in the Presbyterian or two others in town that might not be ruined by a little improvement, as it were ; and if our memory serves us -Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit | right we have mentioned something in connection with the matter on a previous occasion.

-The new comet now visible in the northeastern heavens is said to be one of immense proportions, with a fan tail apparently 200 feet long. It is visible from about 3 a. m., until dimmed by daylight, and is worth getting up early day, and it will be put down 200 or to see. Parties living along the river must get out of the fog in order to get a view of the celestial visitor.

-Charlie Brooks, aged 10 years, left his home in Greenville, September 5th. He was dressed in brown coat and blue pants, is small of his age, and has light hair and light blue eyes. Any information leading to his return will be thankfully received. Address "Postmaster, Greenville, Mercer Co., Pa." Exchanges please copy.

--Mr. Benj. May and grand-daugh ter, Miss Edna Baily, of Norristown, Pa., returned home on Monday after a very pleasant visit of two weeks. Mr. May gained six pounds in weight during his short stay, and left feeling much better than when he came, while Miss Baily had the pleasure of meeting many of the old friends of her parents.

-The young folks of Stewart's Run indulged in a "potato digging" on the the gents dug them ; rotten potatoes the steaming oysters and other victuals counted the same as a red car at "a of which there was an abundance.

OII Notes.

There was a rumor rife last Thursday that the Cornwell well at Root & Watson's had come in and was a gusher, in consequence of which the market dropped three cents. The report, however, had no foundation in fact. On that day Mr. Keeler, who has charge of the well was in town and informed the REPUBLICAN that the well was not down by 600 feet. It is now about 1,400 feet as near as we can ascertain, and with good luck will be finished by the middle of next week. It would not surprise us then, nor grieve us either, to hear that she was a good one.

Grove, Hart & Co., on the southeast corner of tract 5211, Beaver Valley, commenced spudding on Saturday last. The wells on Whig Hill have got fairly under way at last, and will be put down without further delay unless some accidents occur. Hancock & Kennedy, Watson farm are down about 400 feet, and the one on the Widow Berlin farm had just commenced last Saturday, and as they have a first-class rig it will probably reach the required depth in two or three weeks.

We understand that a new rig is building on Brush Camp about half a mile from the late gusher struck there, by the same parties.

Drilling on the Tionesta well, by Wolcott & Co., was resumed yester-300 feet deeper.

Saturday's Grand Hunt.

The bunt billed for last Saturday came off according to program, and was, perhaps, the most successful one that has yet taken place here. It was a lovely autumn day, not too warm but just warm enough, and the festive game, was in its element, and so was the sportsmau. From the gray dawn to dewey eve the sound of musketry could be heard on every side, in the valley and on the hilitop. Eighteen men were chosen on a side, and all but three hunted, which is a much better precentage than usually turns out. In the evening the hunters were all on hand in good season, mostly loaded down with game-principally black and gray squirrels, which, according to the number brought in, were quite plenty, and some very fine strings were secured. After the game was counted and the result announced farm of W. Y. Siggins last Saturday the supper bell rang, and the hungry afternoon. The young ladies of the crowd lost no time in getting seated vicinity picked up the potatoes, while and squared around in shape to devour

Lineville Locals.

After making improvements in the way of two churches and several store buildings, our town so beautifully situated in a good farming country-is anxious to be heard from through the columns of the REP.

"Jumbo" is all the go now.

The potato rot is doing considerable damage in this vicinity.

Apples and peaches are scarce, but of other productions of the soil, there s an abundance in general.

The hum of the busy threashers is constant and has been for several weeks.

Mrs. A. Dolby, who has been quite sick, is again able to be around.

Mrs. J. M. Rickenbrode, who has been troubled with cancer, is again growing worse.

One of the "Hoy boys" is going to teach the Lineville school, and Mr. David Ebinger, Jr., of this place, will hold forth in the Amsler.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Irwin are visiting with friends in Tidioute and other portions of Warren county. Mr. Irwin is one of Lineville's new comors, and a solid Republican.

Engineer Whittekin gave our town a short call the other day. He was full of business and has again departed for Sheffield.

Although this community is largely Democratic, there are a great majority of them White men, and are not willing to be called fusionists.

Work has commenced on the Thompson Farm, where Kahl Bros., soon expect to bounce the drill. Oct. 7, '82. LOUIS.

Star Twinklings.

Don't think because you have not heard from us for so long that we are all dead, because we are about as lively as ever, only two busy to tell about it.

Harry Lovell cut his foot one evening last week while splitting fire wood.

Mr. J. H. Zuendell has got a new team and is correspondingly happy.

The farmers of this vicinity have their corn about all cut, likewise their potatoes dug, which are a very fair crop. The next thing in order will be buckwheat cakes, fresh pork and honey, and then we'll all be happy. October 9, '82. R.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverweil's Celebrated Essay on the rad-ical cure of Spermatorrhoes or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapac-ity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.: also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits induced by self-indulgence or several axtravariates by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance

Acc. The celebrated author, in this admiral Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarm-ing consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately, and rad-ically.

This locture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
