AFTER THE OHIO BATTLE. Since the smoke of battle has cleared away and the commotion subsided, we are enabled to give the definite result of the battle and the causes that led to the defeat of the Republicans. The Democratic majority on the State ticket is a trifle less than 20,000, while they elect 13 out of 21 Congressmen. The alliance between the Democracy and the liquor element of the State proved too much for the Republicans who had to fight their battle singlehanded, since the temperance people refused to join it in its fight for the regulation of the traffic, but preferred to vote the prohibition ticket and thus hand the matter over to the tender mercies of the Democracy. Had the prohibitionists voted with the Republicans they could have changed the result completely, and thus secured the legislation they pretended to be fighting for. As is said by one of our exchanges, "this result is less honorable for all these parties than for the Republicans. The Franklin Independent Press, speaking of the result,

"Its fight was literally single-handed, since the temperance fanatics refused to join in it. They worked collection of their wages. This act against all that promised to lessen the makes 76 pounds one bushel and evils of the liquor traffic, and voted 2,000 pounds one ton of coal, and the Prohibition ticket. That action of gives the miners right to employ check itself gave the victory to the Democ- weighmen, so that no injustice is done racy, for the returns show that the to them in weighing the coal mined. heavy losses sustained by the Republicans come from the strong temperance locatities. The full vote polled by the combined opposition forces, the fact that the Republican vote was by no means full, and the effect of the diers. Republican demoralization in Pennsylvania and Ohio, further contributed to the result."

The Pittsburgh Commercial-Gazette

The Obio prohibitionists deserve the congratulations of their Pennsylvania brethren. They have succeeded, in their inscrutable wisdom, in turning the State over to the "free whisky and no Sunday" party. This seems to be the aim of Prohibitionists generally, but they have not as a rule met with much success before last Tuesday.

To say that the result has a bad would not be true; on the contrary it has a tendancy to make men think, and to wake up those who were inclined to vote the Independent ticket to a through realization of their danger. They could stand it to administer a rebuke to the leaders of the Republican party, but when it comes to handing over the State to their lifelong enemies they will take no stock they have been falling into line by the scores and will continue to do so until election day is over. The Democrats see the effect and are wishing that the result might have been otherwise. They have quit crowing over the victory in Ohio, and are trying their mightest to stop the stampede of Independents to their old places in Republican ranks.

Republican, whether a candidate or a high private, to make individually the declaration and pledge contained in the platform adopted by the Republican Convention at Harrisburg, the Convention that nominated the ticket statesman, and an honest one, and that headed by James A. Beaver: "That will be General Harry White, who the licket combines purity of personal character with eminent ability, is worthy of the hearty and undivided support of every true Republican, and for its election we pledge our exrnest efforts.

Introduced and passed through the Senate an act to allow homesteads of the value of $600 and certain personal property for the use of the family to be exempt from levy and sale.

He also voted for and advocated the amendment of the United States Conststution abolishing slavery, thus relieving labor from the degredation to which slavery has reduced it.

He has voted for and supported every measure that ever came before effect on the campaign in this State the Senate or any legislative body of which he was a member, to educate and elevate the laboring man to that honorable and respectable position in society that he should occupy. Who has a better record than this? The above record is not one of promises, but one of acts performed .- Clarion Republican.

WELL informed men in Forest county say that Patton's majority in it. Since the Ohio thunderbolt there will be one hundred more than that given to Mosgrove in 1880. This will bring it up to about three hundred. - Brookville Republican.

That's all well enough to tell the fusionists of Jefferson county, but when it gets up here into Forest it is looked upon as very ridiculous twaddle. It is already conceded by both friends and foes of Mr. Patton that if he gets a majority at all in Forest county it will be so small that it will Irs is a good time just now for every not count much in the general summing up. The Democrats, generally, and many of the Greenbackers are disgusted with the nomination of Patton, and will cast their ballots for a makes friends wherever he goes.

LATEST returns confirm the election of John W. Mason to Congress in the Second West Va. Congressional district over Wilson, the Democratic candidate, by a majority of 25 to 50. With the election of General Goff by over 2000 majority, this makes a gain told him it was good; that no one had of two Congressmen in that State. The a better one. We looked it up and Republicans have made decided gains here publish a notice of some of the in the Legislature, but not enough to in the State on Supreme Judge will probably not exceed 2,000 and some Republicans even doubt the election for West Virginia.

For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia, and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing Buows's IRON BITTERS advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
