LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with 2 columns: NORTH, SOUTH. Train 15... 7:45 am Train 16... 11:05 am —Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Have you seen the comet? —Oil closed last night at 93 1/2.

—Election day draws nigh. Only two weeks from next Tuesday.

—Tub Oysters on Thursday at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.

—A little more sidewalk repairing, ye borough dads, before winter sets in, please.

—Be sure and read the advertisement of Dr. Chase's Recipes in another column of this paper.

—Mr. Geo. W. Dithridge and family have lately moved into J. K. Clark's house, on Water St.

—Mrs. Al. Hayden returned yesterday from a two week's visit with her mother in Barnett township.

—Venner says look out for snow before the 21st; and if it don't snow let Venner look out for himself.

—The old 646 mystery, Cherry Grove, is said to be producing about forty barrels per day.—Warren Mail.

—Although deer hunting has been lawful since the first inst., no venison has tickled the palate of our epicures as yet.

—Chestnuts, though rather abundant, are very small in size, and few are brought to market. Butternuts are plentiful.

—For fine fall weather the past few weeks are not to be sneezed at. The only fear is that it won't last another month.

—Mr. J. C. Corawell and wife arrived in town Monday. Mr. C. took a trip up to his well yesterday and we expect he will return all besmeared with oil.

—Carpenters commenced work on Wm. Killmer's new house, between the Agnew and Wagner houses, and will rush it through in a hurry. Its dimensions will be 18x30, 18 feet high.

—The court house tin roof has received a coat of paint, which is the correct thing. By keeping the roof properly painted it will last forever, but if allowed to rust would soon be ruined.

—Rudy Struken is plastering Mr. Lawrence's house across the creek, and Carpenter Chadwick is putting on the finishing touches. When completed Mr. L. will have a neat and comfortable abode.

—Mrs. Dithridge, teacher of the intermediate school took her flock of little ones out after chestnuts on Monday afternoon. The day was warm and pleasant, and the recreation was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

—Exchanges are discussing the question: "When is it time to stop advertising?" Some pencil shaver who understands all about it, says that the time to do that is 'when you want to stop doing business.' So.

—The buckwheat is said to be very good this season, and is about all harvested and threshed. Very little of the wheat has reached our market yet, however, and our citizens are just "itching to get hold of some."

—The many friends of Mrs. H. H. May will be pleased to learn that she has so far regained her health as to be able to ride out to church occasionally. We hope to be able to chronicle her complete recovery ere long.

—"Golden Days" for October has reached our table and like its predecessors is a beautiful number. For young readers it has few equals and no superiors and is daily growing in public favor. James Elverson, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa.

—Franklin Evening News: Joseph H. Bell, who is now teaching school at Tionesta, came down from there today and will remain here during Institute week.

—What has become of the fire engine project? Gentlemen, don't let this matter lag. Go right on and let us have the necessary apparatus for fire fighting. If we don't some one may rue it before the winter is over.

—Mr. J. C. Pinney, of Kittanning, Pa., who has been associated with Charlie Raisig for several weeks past, has moved his family to town and occupies part of the J. K. Clark house.

—Two years ago Aaron Dean, of Whig Hill, cut his right foot badly. It healed up, but for some time past his great toe has been assuming an upward tendency.

—We are requested to announce that Capt. George Stow Pest, No. 274, G. A. R., will give a grand dance at Haslet's Hall, on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 26.

—Mr. W. R. Dunn, of the Crookston, (Minn.) Chronicle, arrived in the city Sunday on a flying visit to his brother, Dr. D. C. Dunn, and returned to the West on train 3 Monday.—Mendville Republican.

—Our sincere sympathies are extended to Brother Miller of the Elk Democrat, who was so unfortunate as to lose all his printing material at the late conflagration at Ridgway.

—Those who have not seen the comet should certainly make an effort to feast their eyes upon the wonderful sight before it passes away.

—General Beaver spoke in Bradford last Friday, and the Sunday News, and Independent journal, thus remarks upon the subject: "General Beaver's speech was heard on Friday evening with the utmost respect and attention by the large audience gathered to see and hear him, and his speech seemed to make a deep impression, whatever may have been the fact."

Notwithstanding the size of the American Agriculturist has more than doubled that of earlier years, and the scope enlarged to take in all the wants of Outdoor and Indoor life.

The Tionesta well, by Wolcott & Co., is down something over 1400 feet and will be drilled to the depth of 1800 before it is abandoned.

—For good fresh Goods cheap go to HASLET & SOBE. Feb. 1, '82.

—Last Saturday evening as the family of Mr. Geo. Carr was sitting down to tea one of the gasoline lamps which hung in the front room, where Mr. C. has his meat market, became ignited and the flames flashed through the entire room.

—At the regular meeting of Tionesta Lodge I. O. F. on Saturday evening last the following officers were elected for the ensuing term.

- N. G., Q. Jamieson. V. G., Eli Holeman. Assist. Sec'y, R. B. Crawford. Treas., A. B. Kelly.

—The Lodge is in a very flourishing condition, being solid financially. A singular fact in connection with the Lodge is that it has been in operation for over eleven years, during which time it has never had a death among its beneficiary members.

Forest Oil Notes.

Within the next week we may expect some more mysteries in our county, provided the drillers experience no bad luck. We are told that the Anchor Oil Co.'s well, on division C of the Cooper tract, Howe twp., will reach the sand in a day or two.

At Whig Hill, the Kennedy & Hancock venture, on the Watson farm will doubtless be in next week. One of the owners will be at the well when she comes in and will watch it closely.

The Cornwell well will be down some time next week. They have a new fishing job on hand at present, but hope to get to work again in a day or two.

—For good fresh Goods cheap go to HASLET & SOBE. Feb. 1, '82.

—Peterson's Magazine for November is on our table, ahead, as usual, of all others. The present number has a beautiful steel-plate, "Little Red Riding Hood; a double-sized colored steel fashion-plate; another exquisite engraving, "The Falling Leaves;" and about fifty wood-cuts, in addition, of new dresses, bonnets, embroidery patterns, etc.

—Spain as Found.—The November of Ballou's Magazine contains an illustrated article on "Spain as Found," by Captain Charles Steadman, who has resided in the country, and knows what he is writing about.

—Beautiful skin, and fair complexion, robust health, and powers of endurance follow the uses of Brown's Iron Bitters.

—Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer. It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer.

—A full line of COFFINS AND CASKETS always in stock. UNDERTAKING in all its Branches promptly attended to.

A. H. DALE, (Successor to A. H. Partridge.) TIONESTA, PA.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of A. Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County and to me directed, there will be exposed to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House, in the borough of Tionesta, on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, A. D., 1882, at 10 o'clock, a. m., the following described real estate, to-wit:

MARCUS BROWNSON for use of Geo. E. Barger vs. FREEMAN H. ELLS-WORTH, et al. Pl. No. 4, December Term, 1882.—Miles W. Tate, Attorney.—All that certain piece of land situated in the Township of Kingsley, County of Forest, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the north-easterly corner of Tract No. 5212, as the same is laid out and designated on a map of said county made by S. D. Irwin...

—Also, All that equal undivided one-half part of a certain piece or parcel of land, situated in Kingsley township, known, laid down and designated on said Irwin's map as lot No. 5217, bounded northwesterly by lot No. 5218, northwesterly by lot No. 5234, southeasterly by lot No. 5216, and southwesterly by lot No. 5212.

—Also, excepting and reserving the following from the above described land to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of tract No. 5212; thence in a southwesterly direction along the line dividing Tract 5212 and 5217, to the southeast corner of Tract 5212; thence in a southeasterly direction along the line dividing Tracts 5212 and 5218, two-thirds of a mile to a point in said line; thence in a northwesterly direction along a line parallel with a line dividing Tract 5212, distant from the northeast corner of said Tract 5212, two-thirds of a mile; thence along said northerly line to the place of beginning.

TERMS OF SALE.—The following must be strictly complied with when the property is stricken down: 1. When the plaintiff or other lien creditors become the purchaser, the costs on the writs must be paid, and a list of liens including mortgage searches on the property sold, together with such lien creditor's receipts for the amount of the proceeds of the sale or such portion thereof as he may claim, must be furnished the Sheriff.

MANHOOD

How Lost! How Restored! Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.
