

OTHER than Republican hearts have been touched by the ingratitude of those who wielded the ballot on the 7th. The Labor Tribune pathetically remarks:

"For more than twenty years Thomas A. Armstrong has obeyed the behest of labor. He bows to its will now. When it asked assistance at his hands he gave it; when he asked assistance in return it was denied. That is all the difference."

Don't take it so much to heart, Tommy. Think of General Beaver what he did and what he got in return. He gave a leg to his country, has been going on crutches for twenty years, and now has had even the crutches knocked from under him.—Commercial Gazette.

THE United States Senate, after the fourth of March, 1883, will stand as follows: Republicans, 38; Democrats, 36; Independents (Mahone and Riddleberger), 2. This is on the supposition that Colorado has elected a Republican and Tennessee a Democratic Legislature, which seems probable. The Illinois Legislature may return David Davis instead of a Republican. In any event the Senate will be close. The lower House of Congress will be largely Democratic and will stand as follows: Republicans, 132; Democrats, 193. The political status of the Pennsylvania Legislature will be as follows this winter: Senate—Republicans 29, Democrats 21; House—Republicans 91, Democrats 110.

IN THE general rush last week we neglected to speak of the efficient services of Chairman Brockway in the campaign which culminated on the seventh inst. It was up hill work this fall to get out the vote, there being few county officials to elect, yet Mr. Brockway, by persistent effort, succeeded admirably, we think, and the result shows a largely increased majority for the Republicans, which is largely due to Mr. B.'s efforts and close attention to the canvass. He did his duty well, in fact we don't believe any one could have done better and few as well, and on behalf of the party in Forest county we extend to him a hearty vote of thanks.

PATTISON'S plurality in this State will be about 38,000. Stewarts vote will not be much over 45,000 if it reaches that figure. His vote will fall five or six thousand short of that polled for Wolfe last year. Thousands of professed independents voted direct for Pattison, fearing that Beaver would pull through and rob them of the revenge they were bound to have, thus making the Democratic plurality much greater than it would have otherwise been. The result shows clearly that with a united vote Pennsylvania would have given 25,000 to 30,000 Republican majority.

GOVERNOR HOYT in his letter to Wharton Barker said he knew the "brutal revenge that would be practiced," was the first example of his own prediction last night when the howling mob of Democrats headed by a band of music called at the Executive mansion to congratulate him on the defeat of the Republican party that elevated him to power. What high feather the Governor must have been in as the recipient of the congratulations of the poker room keeper of Wilkes-Barre, and the unwashed Democracy of Harrisburg.—Telegraph.

GEN. WHITE was defeated by about 1,100 majority in the district. The vote shows that he ran ahead of his ticket in all the counties, and in his own county he had the largest vote of any candidate in the field. This gives the lie to the reports circulated before the election that he was unpopular at home. Meanwhile our district, as in the last Congress, will be practically without a Representative.

THE Democracy got such a taste for battle on the 7th inst. that it can't get over it. Its leaders are already beginning to fight among themselves over the Speakership and the tariff issue.

THIS winter would be a good time to pass just such a civil service bill as the Democrats and kickers have seemed so much to desire during the campaign. Make it good and strong.

The Result.

The Harrisburg Telegraph sums up the result as follows: "After nearly a quarter of a century of Republican rule, during which time the people of this Commonwealth have enjoyed a flood of prosperity never equaled before in the history of the country, the Democratic party has been called to assume the administration of the State, not by a majority of the voters but by a meager plurality in view of the divisions and dissensions in the Republican ranks. There is a responsibility for this result, and it does not lie at doors of the out and out Republicans, but rather in the apathy of the people to the vital interests of Republicanism. In Ohio the differences there upon local issues delivered the State to the Democracy. In Pennsylvania the jealousies of the assumed reformers has allowed the Democracy to gain power. In New York the same thing prevails to a greater extent. In Massachusetts those who assumed to administer politics on high moral issues have given way to Gen Butler and his followers; and elsewhere throughout the country the spirit of dissatisfaction, not with the Republican party, but amongst Republicans with each other, has brought on a disastrous defeat of the party. In none of the States have the Republicans stood up to the party better than in Pennsylvania.

THE Independent vote in Forest county fell off one-third this year. Last year the party polled 3 votes and this year 2.

THE proposition to contest the election of Cleveland, Governor elect of N. Y., has been abandoned.

Press Comments.

Norristown Herald: Young man, if another rebellion breaks out, and you have aspirations for a high office, don't go to war and lose a leg in the defense of your country. Stay at home and sympathize with the traitors, and sorehead Republicans will help you into office.

Williamsport Bulletin: What a rush and a scramble there will be for places on "the hill," at Harrisburg, when Pattison is inaugurated. But, come to think of it, the Democrats and their assistants are opposed to the spoils system. Of course they are!

New York Herald: Republican faction fights may this year give the Democrats a majority in Congress and a number of Governors; but unless this faction fighting continues for two years longer the result of Tuesday will guarantee nothing for 1884.

Philadelphia News: The temperance people tied to the Independents, and they went over to the Democrats. Now let the application for a resolution favoring a constitutional amendment be submitted to a Democratic House. We will carefully watch the result.

Harrisburg Telegraph: St. John, of Kansas, went for prohibition, and the Kansas people went for his scalp, and got it, by 10,000 majority.

Boston, November 26, 1881. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
