

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We present those of our readers who are not likely to get it in any of the other papers, with President Arthur's Message in the form of a Supplement this week. The document needs no comments; it speaks well for itself. The leading papers of the country speak of it as one of the best and most statesmanlike messages ever presented to Congress, and all agree that the suggestions of the President are worthy of the careful and immediate attention of our national law-makers. We have been at considerable expense in laying this document before our readers, and we hope those who have not already done so will read it carefully and study its contents.

He beats Pattison by two years. The Governor-elect of Colorado is only thirty years old.

Two cent postage is the most popular suggestion in the President's message. It strikes the popular heart through the most sensitive artery.

JUDGE KELLEY says that the one thing certain about a Democratic Speaker is that "he will be a bad one. The "father of the House" speaks from long experience and knows whereof he affirms.

HENRY WATERSON advises Pattison to let "protection and protectionists go to the devil." Henry is mistaken in his man. Robert will not send protection to a place where the Democratic majority is so large.

DAN VOORHEES now says that he is in favor of civil service reform after the Democrats are placed in office—that is, he is in favor of keeping faithful public officials in office, if they are of his kind, and Dan has the majority of his party at his back.

The general disgust prevailing among members of the Democratic party at Pattison's selection of a Republican Methodist preacher for his private secretary, is cropping out from every point of the compass in the State.—Scranton Republican.

A NEW decision, favorable to pension claimants, has been recently made. Heretofore the pensioners, heirs of a missing man, had to prove death or a reasonable presumption. The department has ruled that the common law established the presumption of death after seven years, so the heirs of a missing man in action are entitled to pension without proof of death.

THE democratic organs are making considerable noise because Gov. elect Pattison says he "don't want his inauguration to cost the State a cent." It is not a good plan to crow before we get out of the woods. Gov. Pattison and his friends will cost the State enough after they get in. It is the kind of a show which costs nothing to get in, but a great deal to get out.—Meadville Republican.

WERE you aware the Commonwealth did not say the fourth district of Iowa gave a Republican majority of 6000 in 1880?—Commonwealth.

Yes, sir; we are aware that you did not say "the fourth district of Iowa gave a Republican majority of 6000 in 1880," but you did say that the district had "heretofore given about 6000 Republican majority," and we published the figures of 1880 to show that you did not tell the truth about it. Say, Jasper; trying to slink out of a pretty small crevice, ain't you?

HERE are specimen bricks of harmony! The New York Sun regards Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, as a "dangerous element in the Democratic party." The New York World denounces the Sun as a Republican organ thinly disguised. While Watterson denies that he was the father of the tariff-for-revenue plank in the platform of 1876, but that the party was solid for it, and that the only hitch was in the cowardice of the East failing to support it properly. All the signs of the times indicate that when the next Democratic convention meets it will be in the same spirit of harmony in which the Democrats met at Charleston in 1860.

PRESS COMMENTS.

Below we give the opinions of a few of the leading papers of country upon President Arthur's Message: HEARTILY COMMENTS IT. President Arthur's second annual message, like his first, is an admirable, clear and business-like State paper. It deals with the various affairs and interests of the country in the tone and manner proper to the Chief Executive of a republic. Its recommendations are well considered and wise. They deserve and, if the majority are prudent, will receive the careful attention of Congress.—N. Y. Herald.

CHARACTERISTIC OF THE MAN. The conservative character of the President is, however, proof against extravagance of any kind, and the message is a well-balanced document, dealing with the many topics that are treated with statesmanlike ability and breadth.—Philada. News.

BRISTLES WITH PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS. The message will suffer nothing by comparison with any that have preceded it, either in practical strength or in expression. It bristles with suggestions for thorough work in directions which largely occupy the public mind.—National Republican.

RECOGNIZES THE WISHES OF THE PEOPLE. The message as a whole is an able and business-like paper, and indicates a readiness on the part of the Executive to bring the policy of the administration into harmony with the economic wishes of the people.—Baltimore American.

THE "WORLD" PROPHECIED IT. The President's remarks upon the surplus and the revenue are, however, valuable as showing that the World has not labored in vain.—N. Y. World, Dem.

AN ISHMELEITE THINKS IT CREDITABLE. The message of President Arthur is a creditable document and deserves the careful attention of the people.—N. Y. Tribune.

GROVER CLEVELAND is one ahead. He declines the offer of the Burgesses Corps to be his escort at the inauguration. His induction into office must be "simple and quiet." The people must remain within their homes as if a general fast had been proclaimed, while he, with only his "night shirt" in his grip-sack, proceeds to the Executive Mansion. We would recommend to Pattison that he come without his "night shirt." Pennsylvania must not be beaten.—Harrisburgh Telegraph.

THE Gettysburgh Sentinel and Star reports a gross outrage committed by a number of Democrats in that place, by way of celebrating their "victory" at the late election. They hauled around a wagon on which was a gallow, from the beam of which was suspended an effigy of a one-legged soldier, labeled "Beaver" in large letters. There must be a godly number of Democrats in that place who have not changed materially since they denounced men like General Beaver as "Lincoln hirelings," and were always ready to extend a cordial greeting to the advance guard of the rebel armies, whenever they made their appearance on Pennsylvania soil. Such Democrats would much rather have sacrificed their lives in fighting for the Southern Confederacy than have given a leg or an arm in the defence of the Union.—Commercial Gazette.

Peterson's Magazine for January is just out, a marvel of beauty, the most costly, evidently, ever issued. There are two unrivalled steel engravings; the first, "Cherry Ripe," an exquisite copy of Millais' celebrated picture; the other, "Psyche Listening to the Flute," also exceptionally charming. Then there is a double-sized colored steel fashion plate, and some thirty other fashion patterns, besides a score of designs in embroidery, crewel work, etc., etc. But the great feature is a magnificent colored pattern in Berlin work for a curtain-board.—Cherry-ripe, etc., etc. The price is still only two dollars a year. Address Chas. J. Peterson, Chestnut St., Philada. Pa.

E. A. Waltman, Wrightsville, Pa., says: "A few doses of Brown's Iron Bitters will satisfy any one of its reputed merits."—Just received, White and Grey socks, Comfortables, Wool Shawls, and a full line of Dry Goods, at Wm. Smearhaugh & Co., 24

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL New York, July 14-82.
