HARRISBURG, Feb. 2, 1883.

A few words from one who lives near Capitol Hill, or "Roosters' De- the county where the Mansion house light," may be of some interest and is situated, where a county line divipossibly information, to seekers after knowledge. Knowledge political, but not scientific, nor religious, as that is for savants and divines to give, which in committee, and when the committhe Hill is not overburdened with.

You are aware ere this that we are living under a Simplicity Democratic Government, of which Gov. Pattison is the ostensible head, and Col. Guthrie the tail, although the tail is really greater than the head ; but the power behind the throne, which will override both head and tail, is Attorney General "Boss" Cassiday. Lewis C. Cassiday had little experience in office holding but much in office hunting, only tions. Some of the higguns on the Re-publican side of the House did not occupying a seat in the lower House here one term in 1851. Cassiday is a born boss and a far-seeing politicianfor Cassiday. He will domineer over Pattison before a month, who is inex. appointment on important committees. parienced, paralyza Stenger and squelch Guthrie, if necessary to fur-Doo's soat in the U. S. Senate, and too bitter to be overcome. this alone makes many an old flintlock democrat boil.

Pattison would not ride in a carringe from the Lochiel to the Hill to be inaugurated; he would not even ride a horse or mule. Attended by a few friends he walked through the slush and snow to his oath-taking, to the disgust of every Pennsylvanian who feels a pride in his great Commonwealth. The place selected to take the oath was the Capitol steps; no accommodations were made for the dignitaries present nor the members of the Senate or House, who were suffered to march out to witness the ceremo. ny. A platform in which heads of the departments and members of the Legislature could have assembled may not have been necessary to make a Constitutional inauguration, but common politeness would have dictated as much. Governor-elect Pattison wished to be inaughrated with Spartan simplicity; a platform costing $25 would have been aristocratic and extravagant. Simplicity Pattison swore, —so did hundreas of wen who were not Governors. Pushing, squeezing and tramping on each others' toes, trying to get a slimpse of the man they had lied for, cried for, but now would hardly die for. The longest killing deer, elk. &c., from the Slat of December to the S0th of November, and allowing the killing of deer from Out. 1st to November 30th. One giving witnesses attending court $1.00 per day, mileage now allowed by law, and fifty cents a day to witnesses before Justices of the Peace, a just measure and one which should have been passed long ago. An act requiring the assessors of the counties in the Commonwealth to assess the land in des a tract of laud. Also one to al-low Townships and darts of Townships to be annexed to adjoining counties. This latter bill, however, was killed tee "sets down onto" a bill it just about knocks the life out of it. The fare so well. Mr. Davis served last session with Mr. Faunce, (the present Committee, which may account for his Dukes has gone home, without hav-

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegs etable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray bair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulpher, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hairs in a few days to a heautiful glossy brown.
