ie extermination of deer in Northestern Pennsylvania. Last season ore deer were killed in the month December than in the two procedig months. The cold weather does not irly set in until the first of December hen hunting parties camp out and Il the deer by the dozen. In mild eather hunters cannot do such wholele slaughter.

The above extract from the Warren ail sets forth the ideas of nine-tenths the hunters and citizens of this unty. If another slaughter of deer this county like that of the past ason should be perpetrated there Il be no need of a law to protect is noble game five years hence, as it Il surely have become extinct. Will r legislators take heed in time?

THE present terrific floods in the orth American rivers should serve point a very emphatic moral. The vastation of forests has much to do th these mighty torrents which sweep existibly everything before them at can be floated. Pennsylvania is t losing her once famous forests m two principal causes- the greelumberman and tanner and the mmer forest fire. It is time our leghtors adopt the most stringent legal asures to preserve as far as possible forests still remaining. New York evaking up at last to this important pject and is new proposing to make public park of the Adirondac reon and put a stop to the lumber ipping process which has so long hvailed in that region. While such lan is not feasible in this State, Ich may yet be done to prevent the ire denundation of our forest counin the central and northwestern h't of the State, which furnish the urces of the Susquehanna and Allemy rivers. A LITERARY society in the northeastern corner of Erie county, Pa., has resolved to go out of business enwinter a round faced, jolly looking old farmer, who lives just across the State line in Chautauqua county, New York, gave the society three letters to read, with the promise that if may 4 81 any member could decipher any one of the letters a library of 100 volumes would be given to the society free of cost. The society worked at the let up as impossible and the society was disbanded. The letters were written by Horace Greeley to his brother, the jolly-looking old farmer. Mr. Greeley should not seek to discourage literary societies in that way.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO.

Gentlemen: — For years I have been agreat sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefitted by BROWN'S IMMEDIATE INTERS, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking BROWN'S IMMEDIATE AND HITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN'S IMON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any troubles are at an end. Can eat any troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person. Mrs. W J. FLYNN, 30 Maverick St., E. Boston.
