LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns NORTH and SOUTH, listing train times and destinations.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—At Henry Grubbs'—on Friday evening last, a new girl.

—Dr. Shamburg, of West Hickory, was on our streets Monday.

—Prof. Hilliard advertises the teachers' examinations this week.

—Oil market closed yesterday at 99c., and opened this morning at 99c.

—The chirps of the robins and blue birds are making things cheerful this beautiful spring morning.

—The Clarendon Record has changed hands, Mr. Chas. G. Thomas being the new owner. Success.

—Dr. Cook reports the arrival of a bouncing fine boy at Lon. Stronp's house, Nebraska, Pa., on Tuesday night of last week.

—The Conneautville Independent has lately changed its make up, which adds materially to the former excellence of that wide-awake journal.

—Henry Sidle has gone to Monroe, Clarion county, where he expects to make his home this summer with his sister, Mrs. Henry Cropp.

—Franklin News, Saturday: Burgess Samuel D. Irwin, of Tionesta was in the city over night.—James B. Muse was down from Tionesta yesterday.

—The Odd Fellows of this place have under consideration the changing of the regular meetings to Tuesday night. The change will not take effect before the first of April.

—Brother Tozer, of the East Brady Times, bids good bye to his readers and discontinues the publication.

—Earnest Sibble, of Dutch Hill, has a dog that looks out for No. 1. He went out the other night and brought in a coon, which, when discovered the next morning was still warm.

—Mrs. E. Tate, mother of Miles W. Tate Esq., and who has been visiting at her daughter's in Illinois since the death of her husband, over a year ago, has come to make her home with her son. We welcome her to our midst, and trust that she will be pleased with Tionesta.

—Messrs. Brennan & Shawkey have contracted with Harvey Foreman for the erection of a commodious office on their lot adjoining the Universalist church, and the work is to go on forthwith. Ex-District Attorney Irwin is to occupy the new office, which we are assured will be a handsome one.

—Hon. J. B. Agnew, while up to Forest City the other day, had the misfortune to burn his hands and face by the sudden ignition of gas at one of the big wells. He thought little of the hurts at first, and took no precaution to keep from taking cold, hence he now has two very sore hands, which may be several weeks in healing.

—The Tionesta telegraph company has its line in operation again, notwithstanding Geo. Huuter's refusal to allow the company the use of his ferry poles on which to string its wire across the river. When two such gigantic institutions as the Tionesta Telegraph Co., and the Tionesta Bridge Co., get at logger heads then look out for trouble ahead.

—Wiggins, the late Canadian weather cock, is a fraud of the first magnitude. While there were some little gales along the sea coast on Sunday, nothing like the great, awful, never-to-be-forgotten, rip-roarin' time, as Wiggins said there would certainly be, was manifested anywhere on the globe. Wiggins has gone to Halifax, and that's where he ought to stay.

—Mr. John Sauer received a telegram from Bradford Monday evening, conveying the intelligence that his son, Smith, was dangerously ill, supposed to be fever.

—We learn from a Tidoute correspondence to the Warren Mail that Dr. Coburn contemplates moving to Tidoute and taking the place of the late Dr. Freeman. We also learn that the Doctor has not fully decided on the matter.

—Mr. Stockton, who has had charge of Wheeler & Dusenbury's mill, and kept the boarding house for them for two or three years, at Stowtown, Pa., moved his family to Tylersburg on Thursday last. Mr. Farnk Witheral will take his place on the mill.

—The scarcity of good (or even bad) tenement houses in Tionesta at present is, to say the least, distressing. Many families are obliged to move on the first of April, and as yet have no place to go. The man who will erect a number of comfortable dwellings the coming summer will reap a good harvest and confer a favor on the town in general. Who will be first to grasp the pudding?

—Hickory capitalists, prominent among whom is Hon. N. P. Wheeler, are talking very seriously of building a bridge over the river at that place this summer. The talk is to buy the bridge at Foxburg and move it to Hickory, there being no further use for it at the former place as the Railroad company is putting up a three-span bridge on the site of the old one. Our Hickory friends mean business.

—The fence bill introduced by Representative Davis, and which had got so far along as to be ordered printed, was last week killed when up for final passage, we are very sorry to say. This was Mr. Davis' pet measure, and he worked very hard to get it through the House, but the railroads proved too much for him. He deserves credit for his untiring efforts on behalf of his constituents, and we feel assured they will fully appreciate the persistence with which he fought for their interests in this case.

—As will be seen by their card at the head of the first local column, Messrs. J. T. Brennan and C. M. Shawkey have again entered into co-partnership in the real estate business. These gentlemen are too well known to need any recommendation from us, yet we cannot refrain from saying that no stronger team could be got anywhere. They both possess rare facilities for transacting the business in which they have embarked, and are prompt and reliable in every particular, which any one knows who has had business relations with them. Our best wishes attend them.

—East Brady Times: Ex-Sheriff Brace of Forest county was in town on Thursday evening the guest of Mr. J. B. Stephenson. He paid the Times office a call and we found him as ever the same pleasant and agreeable gentleman.—Mrs. W. L. Riley, of Braceville, Forest county, spent Thursday evening in East Brady the guest of Mrs. W. K. Hamilton. Mrs. Riley was enroute for Reynoldsville to visit her son whose little child is lying very sick with scarlet fever.—Ex-Judge Cook, of Forest county, was in town a portion of this week the guest of his partner Mr. Geo. Graham.

—The Supreme court has decided that townships are liable for the expenses of holding the spring—or February—elections. It has been the custom heretofore, to present the bills to the county commissioners who approved them and they were paid out of the county treasury. The case in question was that of the city of Meadville vs. Crawford county. The city brought suit against the county commissioners and obtained a verdict in the lower court; whereupon the commissioners carried the case up, and the Supreme court reversed the decision, declaring each township or district liable for the expenses incurred in holding the February elections. This decision will doubtless control the action of county commissioners in the future.

NOTICE
Having made arrangements to remove from this place, I hereby request all those knowing themselves to be indebted to me, to call and settle. After April 15th, all accounts unsettled will be left in the hands of an Attorney for collection.

OIL NOTES.

Within the past week four new gushers have been completed on the Cooper tract. On Wednesday last the McCalmont No. 2 came in, and the first 24 hours it produced nearly two thousand barrels.

The Patterson No. 2 struck the sand on Friday, and after penetrating it some little distance began flowing at an eighteen-hundred barrel rate, which it has kept up pretty well ever since. The striking of these wells has caused another tumble in the market, and on Friday sent oil down into the eighties.

The other two wells are, the Reno No. 2, and the Murphy No. 2. Of these the Derrick of Monday says: "Two more wells were added to the producing list in the Cooper tract district on Saturday. The Reno No. 2 struck the sand about noon, and as with the McCalmont No. 2, began flowing as soon as the shell was broken through. Its location is 525 feet east of the Reno No. 1 and 500 feet south of the McCalmont No. 2. The first gusher received on it at the Derrick office was that it averaged fifty-four barrels an hour for the first six hours. This is considerably smaller than the other wells, and as its location is first-class its failure to maintain a large production at the opening must be attributed to drainage. Murphy's No. 2, located 900 feet north of No. 1, and 693 feet west of the Shannon No. 1, struck the sand in the forenoon. The first report received was that it was showing better than No. 1. In the afternoon a second dispatch said it had made no flow, and last evening a message was received that it would be a light producer, and smaller than No. 1. The latter well started off at fifty-six barrels. From its location its owners expected a light producer, but as some producers are looking for a belt running east and west this venture was an important test for that territory. It being smaller than No. 1, and also smaller than the Shannon wells to the east of it, would seem to prove that the Reno belt runs very close to the west edge of the district, and that on the southwestern end there is no prolific territory to the west of the present producing wells."

P.S.—Since the above was in type reliable reports come that the Murphy No. 2 made 200 barrels the first 24 hours.

The following gauge on the wells in the Cooper district, taken on Monday evening, and published in yesterday's Derrick will be of interest to our readers:

Table with columns Wells and Prod'n, listing production rates for various wells.

Total, twenty wells.....2440

BALDWIN.

The latest report from the Grandin No. 5 puts the production of that well at 40 barrels a day.

The Porcupine well is not doing much at present. It is said the well has made about 125 barrels since it was completed; that was on the 16th of February, or nearly a month ago.

Drilling on the Welch & Co. well is progressing. They have encountered some difficulty with the salt water vein, and will have to ream down some seven hundred feet and case.

NOTES BY THE TRAMP.

BROOKSTON.

The school at Brookston has grown small on account of so many families moving away.

Mr. Black has gone to York State; his father, living there, is very sick.

M. M. Seybolt now lives at Sheffield. He is in the employ of Horton, Creary & Co. as book-keeper.

W. S. Cole has moved to Gusher City.

Levi's horses were so inconsiderate as to run off and smash things Wednesday evening.

An auction of the store, chains, wagons, sleds, &c., &c., is advertised to begin here Tuesday the 13th.

A ride on the T. V. R. R. provokes a compliment for our friend Whitekin.

BYROM'S.

Mr. Byrom met with an accident by which he sustained a severe, though not dangerous, injury of the throat.

Hi. Wing's family has gone back to Canada, Clarion county, where Hi. will soon follow them.

The school closed last Tuesday with the nicest picnic and social gathering it has ever been our lot to stray into. The Secretary of the school board, the Supt., and almost the entire feminine population of the village assisted the school children in paying such a compliment to the makers of the feast as did the greatest good all around.

Besides the dinner there were declamations and recitations, and a "spelling down match" by the scholars. Then there were speeches by the visitors; then distribution of cards by the teacher; and then a candy treat by Mr. Byrom, who, being unable to be present in person was represented by his daughter in this role.

Job Cummings has been called away to attend the funeral of his father, well known to many of the readers of your paper.

MARIENVILLE.

The town still grows apace. Uncle Samuel Rohrer has not been in good health for awhile back.

Quite a number of our houses are heated with gas.

The Oak Woods school is again under way.

The thermometer stood at 18° below zero last Thursday morning.

SCATTERING.

Tionesta creek is frozen over in nearly every eddy or pond along its length. The dam at Newtown is under repairs, and the remnants of the bridge carried off by the ice are being gathered up and hauled back preparatory to rebuilding the same.

Small, son of Rev. Small of Sagundus, caught a severe ducking on Sunday morning last. He was waiting for Mr. Perry and his boat to carry him over the river, and while waiting he walked out on the ice lodged and frozen against the shore. The ice was treacherous and gave way with him in very deep water. Fortunately he was able to get out.

A. A. Hopkins of Neiltown is the father of a new bouncing boy baby.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer that enable us to club that magazine with the FOREST REPUBLICAN at the low price of $1.75 per year, a trifle over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. The American Farmer is beyond doubt worth three times the price, at which we place it. Try it. It is a monthly publication.

MEMOIR.

Mrs. Susan Patton was born in Centre County, Pa., May 10, 1791, and died at the residence of her son, Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, Pa., Jan. 29, 1883, aged 91 years, 8 months and 19 days.

She was one of the early Methodists of Center and Clearfield Counties, and a member of the Church for 75 years. She was married in 1812 to John Patton, a Lieutenant in the United States Navy, in the command of Commodore Decatur, and afterwards Associate Judge of Clearfield County, and to whom she bore 11 children, six of whom, three sons and three daughters, survive their mother, the youngest now being past 50 years of age.

Being born during Gen. Washington's first term as President she had lived through the administration of every President of the United States down to the present. She was well versed in National affairs, and loyal to the government, giving one son, and four grandsons to the army, and heartily rejoiced in the overthrow of slavery and the restoration of the Union.

Grandma Patton is well known to many of our citizens. She visited her grand-daughter Mrs. Miles W. Tate, of this town, a few years ago. Mrs. Hunter, mother of Hons. John A. and Joseph G. Dale, was then living, and she and Mrs. Patton had been school girls together. They were both devout christians then worshipping at the same Church, and both died in the triumphs of the Christian's faith, after giving long and useful lives to the cause.

An intimate friend of the family and a near neighbor had a singular dream just after the funeral. She dreamed that Mrs. Patton came down from the cemetery into Mr. Patton's yard, and seemed to be searching earnestly for something but declined to enter the house when invited. She said she was only looking for a flower; and plucking one of the most beautiful she could find, placed it in her bosom, and went back to the Cemetery again. Within a week little Kate, the idol of Mr. Alex. E. Patton's home, was taken suddenly ill and died, and the fair flower found its resting place indeed, in the bosom of the ripe sheaf in God's harvest fields of Glory.

Thus has an affectionate home been doubly wounded by one stroke of the wing of the Angel of Death. The ruthless, marble hand has touched their two extremes of life and love, and the dear forms sank into the same grave, but the same Heaven now holds these treasures of the soul, and there our "hearts are also."

DIED.

CROPP—In Edinboro, Pa., March 6, 1883, of heart disease, Mrs. Mary E. wife of C. F. Cropp, of Green twp., Forest Co., Pa., aged 54 years.

PERRY—At Trunksville, Pa., March 10, 1883 Orville Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Perry, aged 7 months and 10 days.

WEANT—Infant son of John and Nancy Weant, of Nebraska Pa.; born on the morning of March 10, 1883, at 7 o'clock, and died in the same evening at 10.
