

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—S. D. IRWIN. Councilmen—North ward, H. M. Foreman, C. M. Shawkey, A. M. Douth, South ward, W. A. Eagles, J. H. Fones, A. H. Dale.

Justices of the Peace—J. T. Brennan, D. S. Knox. Constable—James Swales. School Directors—S. J. Wolcott, J. H. Dingman, J. Groves, A. B. Kelly, G. W. Robinson, D. S. Knox.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—JAB. MOSGROVE. Member of Senate—J. G. HALL. Assembly—E. L. DAVIS. President Judge—W. D. BROWN. Associate Judges—JOHN RECK, C. A. HILL. Treasurer—N. S. FOREMAN. Prothonotary, Register & Recorder, &c.—JUSTUS SHAWKEY. Sheriff—C. W. CLARK. Commissioners—H. W. LEDERUR, J. S. HENDERSON, H. A. ZWENDEL. County Superintendent—J. E. HILLARD. District Attorney—T. J. VANGIENSEN. Jury Commissioners—H. O. DAVIS, J. GREENAWALT. County Surveyor—F. F. WHITTEKIN. Coroner—C. H. CHURCH. County Auditors—G. W. WARDEN, J. A. SCOTT, R. B. SWALLEY.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE No. 369. I. O. O. F. MEETS every Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lodge Room in Partridge's Hall. ELI HOLEMAN N. G. G. W. SAWYER, Sec'y.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274, G. A. R. Meets on the 2nd Wednesday in each month, in Odd Fellows Hall, Tionesta, Pa. D. S. KNOX, Comdr.

T. J. VAN GIESEN, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, and District Attorney of Forest County, Office in Court House, Tionesta, Pa.

E. L. DAVIS, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa. Collections made in this and adjoining counties.

MILES W. TATE, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Elm Street, Tionesta, Pa.

T. F. RITCHEY, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Tionesta, Forest County Pa.

J. B. AGNEW, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! I have been admitted to practice as an Attorney in the Pension Office at Washington, D. C. All officers, soldiers, or sailors who were injured in the late war, can obtain pensions to which they may be entitled, by calling on or addressing me at Tionesta, Pa. Also, claims for arrearages of pay and bounty will receive prompt attention.

Having been over four years a soldier in the late war, and having for a number of years engaged in the prosecution of soldiers' claims, my experience will assure the collection of claims in the shortest possible time. J. B. AGNEW, 41st.

LAWRENCE HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa. H. S. Brockway, Proprietor. This house is centrally located. Everything new and well furnished. Superior accommodations and strict attention given to guests. Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds served in their season. Sample room for Commercial Agents.

CENTRAL HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa. T. C. Jackson, Proprietor. This is a new house, and has just been fitted up for the accommodation of the public. A portion of the patronage of the public is solicited. 46-ly.

EAST HICKORY HOTEL, Tionesta, Pa. J. W. Ball, Proprietor. This house is new and has been furnished with new furniture throughout. It is centrally located, and has a first-class barn in connection with it. The traveling public will find a pleasant stopping place. First-class Livery in connection with the Hotel.

NATIONAL HOTEL, Tidioute, Pa. N. W. D. Bucklin, Proprietor. A first-class hotel in all respects, and the pleasantest stopping place in town. Rates very reasonable. Jan-82.

M. B. COOK, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Office at the Central House, Tionesta, Pa. All professional calls promptly attended to.

J. W. MORROW, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Late of Armstrong county, having located in Tionesta is prepared to attend all professional calls promptly and at all hours. Office in Smeathugh & Co.'s new building, up stairs. Office hours to 8 A. M., and 11 to 12 M.; 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Sundays, 9 to 10 A. M.; 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Residence in Fisher House, on Walnut Street, may-18-81.

W. C. COBURN, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Has had over fifteen years experience in the practice of his profession, having graduated legally and honorably May 10, 1865. Office and Residence in Forest House, opposite the Court House, Tionesta, Pa. Aug. 25-1880

DENTISTRY. DR. J. W. MORROW. Having purchased the materials &c., of Dr. Steadman, would respectfully announce that he will carry on the Dental business in Tionesta, and having had over six years successful experience, considers himself fully competent to give entire satisfaction. I shall always give my medical practice the preference. mar-22-82.

H. E. MAY, A. B. KELLY, MAY, PARK & CO., BANKERS! Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts. Tionesta. Bank of Discount and Deposit. Interest allowed on Time Deposits. Collections made on all the Principal points of the U. S. Collections solicited. 18-ly.

BRENNAN & SHAWKEY,

Real Estate Agents & Conveyancers. Dealers in ANTHRACITE & BITUMINOUS COAL (Offices in Court House.)

TIONESTA, FOREST COUNTY, PA.

—FOR SALE—

57 acres, Tionesta twp., 10 acres cleared and in wheat and rye; small house and barn; considerable oak timber. Price $750; $400 down, balance in 8 years.

Also, Houses and lots, and building lots in Tionesta Borough for sale on easy terms. We have some good bargains on hand. BRENNAN & SHAWKEY.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns NORTH and SOUTH, listing train times for various destinations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and York.

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Oil Market closed last night at $1.11.

—Harvey Foreman has the foundation for his new house nearly completed.

—Dr. Cook is visiting friends and relatives at his old home, Erie, this week.

—Mr. O. B. Hoskins is shaking hands with his many Tionesta friends this week.

—D. W. Clark has adorned the front of his property by the erection of a new fence.

—Mr. Joyce is building a porch on each end of his house, and otherwise improving the same.

—Mrs. W. J. Roberts departed Monday for York State, where she will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

—J. W. Jamieson and Dr. Steadman boarded the 3:59 train north Monday, the former for Bradford and the latter for Erie.

—Mr. T. P. Flynn, of Green township, is announced as a Democratic candidate for County Treasurer in last issue of the Democrat.

—Nearly all the sidewalk from the old Universalist church to the cemetery is completed, and that which is not, will be in due course of time.

—No traces of the body of young Brownell, who was drowned in Tionesta creek, near Balltown, two weeks ago, have as yet been discovered.

—Mr. Beaman, of Tryonville, Crawford county, brother of Mrs. J. R. Chadwick, is visiting the family this week. He is a pleasant gentleman.

—Mrs. T. B. Cobb and Miss Kate, departed on Wednesday last for East Poultney, Vermont, where they will spend a month with relatives and friends.

—Mrs. Spaulding of Richmond Centre, Ohio, and Mrs. Bernie Heath of Tidioute, aunt and sister, respectively, of Mrs. Geo. Holeman, are visiting her this week.

—Editor Hayden of the Democrat has commenced business on the first floor, having fixed up the dwelling next his office very neatly, and now keeps house there.

—Mr. Ed. Bennett, Wm. Blum's wagon and carriage maker, has brought his family on from Pleasantville, and now occupies the dwelling just above Lawyer Tate's office.

—Many of our citizens are beautifying their residences by fresh coats of paint, the latest among whom are W. Y. Siggins, on River St., and G. W. Bovard, Vine St.

—The building between Hopkins & Co.'s store and Tate's office, is being remodeled and fixed up for the post-office. It will be ready to occupy about the first of July.

—Alex Dale returned last evening from an extended trip through the timbered portion of Tennessee, whither he had gone to size up the country and invest if it suited him. We haven't heard his opinion of it yet.

—Mr. A. Bignon, the boss clothes-cleaner, tells us he expects to leave this place in a week from now, and those having anything to do in his line should call early. The work he has done for our citizens has given excellent satisfaction, and fully demonstrates that he understands his business thoroughly.

—A new crossing has been put in on May St., near the lower corner of the public square. Also the one at the maple tree on Judge Reck's corner has been replaced by a new one.

—Our Kellestville correspondent gives the particulars of the frightful accident by which a young man was instantly killed in the bark woods, near that place, last Thursday afternoon.

—Mr. Geo. Holeman is moving his family into Wm. Richards' house in the north ward, and Mr. R. L. Haslet will commence housekeeping in the house next the store made vacant by George's removal.

—Joseph Adamson, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent a portion of the past week with Tionesta friends. During his stay he paid a visit to the mills of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., of which he is President.

—The East Hickory Hotel, which is already receiving a large run of custom, has added a first-class livery, and hereafter parties can be furnished with a good rig at reasonable rates. Give Mr. Ball a call when traveling that way.

—Carpenter Chadwick has erected a wire fence in front of Hon. E. L. Davis' property, which takes the cake for neatness. Mr. Chadwick has the agency for this style of fencing, and agrees to put up one that will outshine and out-last any picket fence made, and at far less expense.

—It is stated that at a recent term of court at Tionesta, the jurors summoned to sit on important cases were universally bright. One of them could not tell the name of the township in which he lived, while another who was drawn on a complicated case, got tired and went home before the evidence was all in. Bright citizens indeed.—Derrick. The above item has been going the rounds of the papers for the past two months, but was credited to a Huntingdon county jury, until it finally came to the notice of the Derrick, where it is made to do duty as an original item. But it is plenty good enough for a "funny item" in that sheet, and fully up to its standard of truth and wit.

—The bill shortening the deer killing season by taking off the month of December, and making the open season from October 1st to November 30th, has passed both Houses of the Legislature and now only needs the signature of the Governor to make it a law. This measure was introduced by Mr. Davis of this county, and its passage will be hailed with joy by all who wish to see this noble game protected from the indiscriminate slaughter of por-hunters, who make it a business to come early in the season from other States and "stay all winter," as it were. In this way no less than 800 deer were slaughtered in Forest county alone last winter, and nearly all during the month of December.

—Edward Hyde died very suddenly at Cobb & Co.'s mill, Dawson Run on Monday. He had come in at noon, put up his team, went into the house and sat down upon a bench. Two other men were in the room at the time, who say that the only signs given that anything was wrong was a quick gasp, and on looking around saw Mr. Hyde sink over on the bench. They went to him and applied cold water to his temples and pulses, and administered other restoratives, but no signs of life were visible. His death was evidently caused by heart disease. The deceased resided at Tylersburg, where his remains were taken the same day. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and seven or eight daughters, four of whom are grown up. Mr. Hyde was a pensioner of the late war, and held an insurance policy in the Economical Mutual Benefit Association, of Sandy Lake, Pa., for $1,500, at the time of his death.

—The Memorial ceremonies on Wednesday last were carried out according to program in so far as the inclement weather would permit. The morning gave promise of a beautiful day, and many hack loads of interested citizens from the surrounding country came in, but at noon rain set in and continued during the entire afternoon, interfering greatly, if not almost destroying the beautiful exercises arranged for the occasion. At 2 p. m. the Post veterans formed in line headed by the martial band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where they were joined by the civilians and the procession continued its march to the Court House, where the ceremonies were carried out, and the eloquent address of Col. John S. McCalmont was listened to, after which the old soldiers marched to the cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of their dead comrades. The music of both the Post band and the choir on this occasion was excellent and elicited great praise from all present. It was the largest crowd ever in attendance on Decoration Day in Tionesta, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

—The sale of Henry Brace's property at Braceville, consisting of the large mill, machinery, teams, wagons, lumber, store, and in fact everything on the premises, took place on Tuesday of last week. It was quite a remarkable sale, as the mill never stopped running, the store was busy and all was activity about the place, as though nothing unusual was going on. Hon. Alfred Short, of North East, Pa., was the heaviest creditor, and to him the property was knocked down. A few days before the sale Mr. Brace held a conference with his laborers and told them if there were any who wished to file labor liens he would assist them to get their papers in proper shape without putting them to any expense. Such was their confidence in Mr. Brace's integrity and his ability and willingness to square up with his men that not one of them took advantage of his offer, but all kept right on at work as before. Mr. Short will continue the business at that place and being a man of large means, and a practical lumberman, under this supervision the business at Braceville will flourish as in the past. Meanwhile we are pleased to state that Mr. Brace intends remaining the same popular citizen of Braceville he always has been, and that not one of his creditors will lose a dollar.

—Mr. J. D. Hulings returned last Friday from a three-weeks' trip through the wilds of West Virginia. The nature of his business was such as to take him through much of the hunting and fishing country in that State, and the accounts he gives of it are calculated to make one of a Nimrodian turn of mind long for a chance to get there. On the headwaters of the Cheat River (where the stream is about the size of Tionesta creek at its forks, a short distance below Sheffield) trout are caught that weigh from one to two and one-half pounds, the smallest ones averaging from 6 to 10 inches in length. From 100 to 300 of these speckled darlings is considered a fair day's catch. He took occasion to drop in his hook a few times and his largest trout, he thought, would weigh a pound and a half, and the fun of it all is that they have the same gamey bite that our trout have. Think of that! Bear, deer and wild turkeys are abundant, and gray squirrels by the thousands. He also saw plenty of woodcock on his travels along the streams, but the natives did not know they were fit to eat. Now just think of that!! Mr. Hulings says the principal drawback to that country is the difficulty in getting in and out, horseback being the only way, except to "foot it." The staple article of food is corn bread and maple syrup, and the natives consider it a delicacy to indulge in "store molasses." No wonder game is abundant there.

—The bill shortening the deer killing season by taking off the month of December, and making the open season from October 1st to November 30th, has passed both Houses of the Legislature and now only needs the signature of the Governor to make it a law. This measure was introduced by Mr. Davis of this county, and its passage will be hailed with joy by all who wish to see this noble game protected from the indiscriminate slaughter of por-hunters, who make it a business to come early in the season from other States and "stay all winter," as it were. In this way no less than 800 deer were slaughtered in Forest county alone last winter, and nearly all during the month of December.

—Edward Hyde died very suddenly at Cobb & Co.'s mill, Dawson Run on Monday. He had come in at noon, put up his team, went into the house and sat down upon a bench. Two other men were in the room at the time, who say that the only signs given that anything was wrong was a quick gasp, and on looking around saw Mr. Hyde sink over on the bench. They went to him and applied cold water to his temples and pulses, and administered other restoratives, but no signs of life were visible. His death was evidently caused by heart disease. The deceased resided at Tylersburg, where his remains were taken the same day. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and seven or eight daughters, four of whom are grown up. Mr. Hyde was a pensioner of the late war, and held an insurance policy in the Economical Mutual Benefit Association, of Sandy Lake, Pa., for $1,500, at the time of his death.

—The Memorial ceremonies on Wednesday last were carried out according to program in so far as the inclement weather would permit. The morning gave promise of a beautiful day, and many hack loads of interested citizens from the surrounding country came in, but at noon rain set in and continued during the entire afternoon, interfering greatly, if not almost destroying the beautiful exercises arranged for the occasion. At 2 p. m. the Post veterans formed in line headed by the martial band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where they were joined by the civilians and the procession continued its march to the Court House, where the ceremonies were carried out, and the eloquent address of Col. John S. McCalmont was listened to, after which the old soldiers marched to the cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of their dead comrades. The music of both the Post band and the choir on this occasion was excellent and elicited great praise from all present. It was the largest crowd ever in attendance on Decoration Day in Tionesta, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

—The sale of Henry Brace's property at Braceville, consisting of the large mill, machinery, teams, wagons, lumber, store, and in fact everything on the premises, took place on Tuesday of last week. It was quite a remarkable sale, as the mill never stopped running, the store was busy and all was activity about the place, as though nothing unusual was going on. Hon. Alfred Short, of North East, Pa., was the heaviest creditor, and to him the property was knocked down. A few days before the sale Mr. Brace held a conference with his laborers and told them if there were any who wished to file labor liens he would assist them to get their papers in proper shape without putting them to any expense. Such was their confidence in Mr. Brace's integrity and his ability and willingness to square up with his men that not one of them took advantage of his offer, but all kept right on at work as before. Mr. Short will continue the business at that place and being a man of large means, and a practical lumberman, under this supervision the business at Braceville will flourish as in the past. Meanwhile we are pleased to state that Mr. Brace intends remaining the same popular citizen of Braceville he always has been, and that not one of his creditors will lose a dollar.

—Mr. J. D. Hulings returned last Friday from a three-weeks' trip through the wilds of West Virginia. The nature of his business was such as to take him through much of the hunting and fishing country in that State, and the accounts he gives of it are calculated to make one of a Nimrodian turn of mind long for a chance to get there. On the headwaters of the Cheat River (where the stream is about the size of Tionesta creek at its forks, a short distance below Sheffield) trout are caught that weigh from one to two and one-half pounds, the smallest ones averaging from 6 to 10 inches in length. From 100 to 300 of these speckled darlings is considered a fair day's catch. He took occasion to drop in his hook a few times and his largest trout, he thought, would weigh a pound and a half, and the fun of it all is that they have the same gamey bite that our trout have. Think of that! Bear, deer and wild turkeys are abundant, and gray squirrels by the thousands. He also saw plenty of woodcock on his travels along the streams, but the natives did not know they were fit to eat. Now just think of that!! Mr. Hulings says the principal drawback to that country is the difficulty in getting in and out, horseback being the only way, except to "foot it." The staple article of food is corn bread and maple syrup, and the natives consider it a delicacy to indulge in "store molasses." No wonder game is abundant there.

—The bill shortening the deer killing season by taking off the month of December, and making the open season from October 1st to November 30th, has passed both Houses of the Legislature and now only needs the signature of the Governor to make it a law. This measure was introduced by Mr. Davis of this county, and its passage will be hailed with joy by all who wish to see this noble game protected from the indiscriminate slaughter of por-hunters, who make it a business to come early in the season from other States and "stay all winter," as it were. In this way no less than 800 deer were slaughtered in Forest county alone last winter, and nearly all during the month of December.

—Edward Hyde died very suddenly at Cobb & Co.'s mill, Dawson Run on Monday. He had come in at noon, put up his team, went into the house and sat down upon a bench. Two other men were in the room at the time, who say that the only signs given that anything was wrong was a quick gasp, and on looking around saw Mr. Hyde sink over on the bench. They went to him and applied cold water to his temples and pulses, and administered other restoratives, but no signs of life were visible. His death was evidently caused by heart disease. The deceased resided at Tylersburg, where his remains were taken the same day. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and seven or eight daughters, four of whom are grown up. Mr. Hyde was a pensioner of the late war, and held an insurance policy in the Economical Mutual Benefit Association, of Sandy Lake, Pa., for $1,500, at the time of his death.

—The Memorial ceremonies on Wednesday last were carried out according to program in so far as the inclement weather would permit. The morning gave promise of a beautiful day, and many hack loads of interested citizens from the surrounding country came in, but at noon rain set in and continued during the entire afternoon, interfering greatly, if not almost destroying the beautiful exercises arranged for the occasion. At 2 p. m. the Post veterans formed in line headed by the martial band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where they were joined by the civilians and the procession continued its march to the Court House, where the ceremonies were carried out, and the eloquent address of Col. John S. McCalmont was listened to, after which the old soldiers marched to the cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of their dead comrades. The music of both the Post band and the choir on this occasion was excellent and elicited great praise from all present. It was the largest crowd ever in attendance on Decoration Day in Tionesta, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

—The sale of Henry Brace's property at Braceville, consisting of the large mill, machinery, teams, wagons, lumber, store, and in fact everything on the premises, took place on Tuesday of last week. It was quite a remarkable sale, as the mill never stopped running, the store was busy and all was activity about the place, as though nothing unusual was going on. Hon. Alfred Short, of North East, Pa., was the heaviest creditor, and to him the property was knocked down. A few days before the sale Mr. Brace held a conference with his laborers and told them if there were any who wished to file labor liens he would assist them to get their papers in proper shape without putting them to any expense. Such was their confidence in Mr. Brace's integrity and his ability and willingness to square up with his men that not one of them took advantage of his offer, but all kept right on at work as before. Mr. Short will continue the business at that place and being a man of large means, and a practical lumberman, under this supervision the business at Braceville will flourish as in the past. Meanwhile we are pleased to state that Mr. Brace intends remaining the same popular citizen of Braceville he always has been, and that not one of his creditors will lose a dollar.

—Mr. J. D. Hulings returned last Friday from a three-weeks' trip through the wilds of West Virginia. The nature of his business was such as to take him through much of the hunting and fishing country in that State, and the accounts he gives of it are calculated to make one of a Nimrodian turn of mind long for a chance to get there. On the headwaters of the Cheat River (where the stream is about the size of Tionesta creek at its forks, a short distance below Sheffield) trout are caught that weigh from one to two and one-half pounds, the smallest ones averaging from 6 to 10 inches in length. From 100 to 300 of these speckled darlings is considered a fair day's catch. He took occasion to drop in his hook a few times and his largest trout, he thought, would weigh a pound and a half, and the fun of it all is that they have the same gamey bite that our trout have. Think of that! Bear, deer and wild turkeys are abundant, and gray squirrels by the thousands. He also saw plenty of woodcock on his travels along the streams, but the natives did not know they were fit to eat. Now just think of that!! Mr. Hulings says the principal drawback to that country is the difficulty in getting in and out, horseback being the only way, except to "foot it." The staple article of food is corn bread and maple syrup, and the natives consider it a delicacy to indulge in "store molasses." No wonder game is abundant there.

—The bill shortening the deer killing season by taking off the month of December, and making the open season from October 1st to November 30th, has passed both Houses of the Legislature and now only needs the signature of the Governor to make it a law. This measure was introduced by Mr. Davis of this county, and its passage will be hailed with joy by all who wish to see this noble game protected from the indiscriminate slaughter of por-hunters, who make it a business to come early in the season from other States and "stay all winter," as it were. In this way no less than 800 deer were slaughtered in Forest county alone last winter, and nearly all during the month of December.

—Edward Hyde died very suddenly at Cobb & Co.'s mill, Dawson Run on Monday. He had come in at noon, put up his team, went into the house and sat down upon a bench. Two other men were in the room at the time, who say that the only signs given that anything was wrong was a quick gasp, and on looking around saw Mr. Hyde sink over on the bench. They went to him and applied cold water to his temples and pulses, and administered other restoratives, but no signs of life were visible. His death was evidently caused by heart disease. The deceased resided at Tylersburg, where his remains were taken the same day. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and seven or eight daughters, four of whom are grown up. Mr. Hyde was a pensioner of the late war, and held an insurance policy in the Economical Mutual Benefit Association, of Sandy Lake, Pa., for $1,500, at the time of his death.

—The Memorial ceremonies on Wednesday last were carried out according to program in so far as the inclement weather would permit. The morning gave promise of a beautiful day, and many hack loads of interested citizens from the surrounding country came in, but at noon rain set in and continued during the entire afternoon, interfering greatly, if not almost destroying the beautiful exercises arranged for the occasion. At 2 p. m. the Post veterans formed in line headed by the martial band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where they were joined by the civilians and the procession continued its march to the Court House, where the ceremonies were carried out, and the eloquent address of Col. John S. McCalmont was listened to, after which the old soldiers marched to the cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of their dead comrades. The music of both the Post band and the choir on this occasion was excellent and elicited great praise from all present. It was the largest crowd ever in attendance on Decoration Day in Tionesta, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

—The sale of Henry Brace's property at Braceville, consisting of the large mill, machinery, teams, wagons, lumber, store, and in fact everything on the premises, took place on Tuesday of last week. It was quite a remarkable sale, as the mill never stopped running, the store was busy and all was activity about the place, as though nothing unusual was going on. Hon. Alfred Short, of North East, Pa., was the heaviest creditor, and to him the property was knocked down. A few days before the sale Mr. Brace held a conference with his laborers and told them if there were any who wished to file labor liens he would assist them to get their papers in proper shape without putting them to any expense. Such was their confidence in Mr. Brace's integrity and his ability and willingness to square up with his men that not one of them took advantage of his offer, but all kept right on at work as before. Mr. Short will continue the business at that place and being a man of large means, and a practical lumberman, under this supervision the business at Braceville will flourish as in the past. Meanwhile we are pleased to state that Mr. Brace intends remaining the same popular citizen of Braceville he always has been, and that not one of his creditors will lose a dollar.

—Mr. J. D. Hulings returned last Friday from a three-weeks' trip through the wilds of West Virginia. The nature of his business was such as to take him through much of the hunting and fishing country in that State, and the accounts he gives of it are calculated to make one of a Nimrodian turn of mind long for a chance to get there. On the headwaters of the Cheat River (where the stream is about the size of Tionesta creek at its forks, a short distance below Sheffield) trout are caught that weigh from one to two and one-half pounds, the smallest ones averaging from 6 to 10 inches in length. From 100 to 300 of these speckled darlings is considered a fair day's catch. He took occasion to drop in his hook a few times and his largest trout, he thought, would weigh a pound and a half, and the fun of it all is that they have the same gamey bite that our trout have. Think of that! Bear, deer and wild turkeys are abundant, and gray squirrels by the thousands. He also saw plenty of woodcock on his travels along the streams, but the natives did not know they were fit to eat. Now just think of that!! Mr. Hulings says the principal drawback to that country is the difficulty in getting in and out, horseback being the only way, except to "foot it." The staple article of food is corn bread and maple syrup, and the natives consider it a delicacy to indulge in "store molasses." No wonder game is abundant there.

—The bill shortening the deer killing season by taking off the month of December, and making the open season from October 1st to November 30th, has passed both Houses of the Legislature and now only needs the signature of the Governor to make it a law. This measure was introduced by Mr. Davis of this county, and its passage will be hailed with joy by all who wish to see this noble game protected from the indiscriminate slaughter of por-hunters, who make it a business to come early in the season from other States and "stay all winter," as it were. In this way no less than 800 deer were slaughtered in Forest county alone last winter, and nearly all during the month of December.

—Edward Hyde died very suddenly at Cobb & Co.'s mill, Dawson Run on Monday. He had come in at noon, put up his team, went into the house and sat down upon a bench. Two other men were in the room at the time, who say that the only signs given that anything was wrong was a quick gasp, and on looking around saw Mr. Hyde sink over on the bench. They went to him and applied cold water to his temples and pulses, and administered other restoratives, but no signs of life were visible. His death was evidently caused by heart disease. The deceased resided at Tylersburg, where his remains were taken the same day. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and seven or eight daughters, four of whom are grown up. Mr. Hyde was a pensioner of the late war, and held an insurance policy in the Economical Mutual Benefit Association, of Sandy Lake, Pa., for $1,500, at the time of his death.

—The Memorial ceremonies on Wednesday last were carried out according to program in so far as the inclement weather would permit. The morning gave promise of a beautiful day, and many hack loads of interested citizens from the surrounding country came in, but at noon rain set in and continued during the entire afternoon, interfering greatly, if not almost destroying the beautiful exercises arranged for the occasion. At 2 p. m. the Post veterans formed in line headed by the martial band, and marched to the Presbyterian church, where they were joined by the civilians and the procession continued its march to the Court House, where the ceremonies were carried out, and the eloquent address of Col. John S. McCalmont was listened to, after which the old soldiers marched to the cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of their dead comrades. The music of both the Post band and the choir on this occasion was excellent and elicited great praise from all present. It was the largest crowd ever in attendance on Decoration Day in Tionesta, and the occasion will long be remembered by those who witnessed it.

—The sale of Henry Brace's property at Braceville, consisting of the large mill, machinery, teams, wagons, lumber, store, and in fact everything on the premises, took place on Tuesday of last week. It was quite a remarkable sale, as the mill never stopped running, the store was busy and all was activity about the place, as though nothing unusual was going on. Hon. Alfred Short, of North East, Pa., was the heaviest creditor, and to him the property was knocked down. A few days before the sale Mr. Brace held a conference with his laborers and told them if there were any who wished to file labor liens he would assist them to get their papers in proper shape without putting them to any expense. Such was their confidence in Mr. Brace's integrity and his ability and willingness to square up with his men that not one of them took advantage of his offer, but all kept right on at work as before. Mr. Short will continue the business at that place and being a man of large means, and a practical lumberman, under this supervision the business at Braceville will flourish as in the past. Meanwhile we are pleased to state that Mr. Brace intends remaining the same popular citizen of Braceville he always has been, and that not one of his creditors will lose a dollar.

—Mr. J. D. Hulings returned last Friday from a three-weeks' trip through the wilds of West Virginia. The nature of his business was such as to take him through much of the hunting and fishing country in that State, and the accounts he gives of it are calculated to make one of a Nimrodian turn of mind long for a chance to get there. On the headwaters of the Cheat River (where the stream is about the size of Tionesta creek at its forks, a short distance below Sheffield) trout are caught that weigh from one to two and one-half pounds, the smallest ones averaging from 6 to 10 inches in length. From 100 to 300 of these speckled darlings is considered a fair day's catch. He took occasion to drop in his hook a few times and his largest trout, he thought, would weigh a pound and a half, and the fun of it all is that they have the same gamey bite that our trout have. Think of that! Bear, deer and wild turkeys are abundant, and gray squirrels by the thousands. He also saw plenty of woodcock on his travels along the streams, but the natives did not know they were fit to eat. Now just think of that!! Mr. Hulings says the principal drawback to that country is the difficulty in getting in and out, horseback being the only way, except to "foot it." The staple article of food is corn bread and maple syrup, and the natives consider it a delicacy to indulge in "store molasses." No wonder game is abundant there.

OIL NOTES.

Two wildcat wells are expected in this week; these are, the Kepler & Dufur well, on tract 5268, on Salmon Creek, and Grove, Hart & Co.'s, 5-228, at Braceville, Hickory township. The former is now thought to be below the Bradford sand level, while the latter is reported below the level of the Balltown wells. How this may be we cannot say, but one thing seems pretty well settled, that is they are both very close to the depth where the oil should be found if it is there to be found.

The operators on the Tubbs Run well had the misfortune to break a bran new cable at their well last Thursday afternoon. They were drawing the tools and when within a few feet of the top of the hole the rope parted near the top of the derrick letting the entire string with about 50 feet of rope go crashing down the hole. Fishing tools arrived Saturday and on Monday they intended to commence the work of fishing them out. What success they will have cannot be told at this writing, but it is barely possible the tools will stay there for some time. They are down about 1500 feet, near as we can ascertain.

The Cooper tract ought to furnish four new wells this week. They are McCalmont Oil Co.'s Nos. 7 and 8, Anchor No. 19 and Clark & Foster No. 4. Among the wells that are due this week in the Balltown district are, Balltown Oil Co.'s No. 7; Porcupine Oil Co.'s No. 5, and Grandin & Kelly's No. 9.

Balltown Oil Co.'s No. 6 was opened last Friday, and at last accounts was doing 500 barrels. The same company's