Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention which met in Harrisburg last Wednesday was a very tame, inanimate affair. There was little or no contest for the nominations made, probably because no one cared to figure as the corpse at the November funeral. Jos. W. Powell of Bradford county, was made the nominee for State Treasurer, and Capt. Robert Taggart of Tidioute, for Auditor General. The platform is of the regulation Democratic pattern; tries to suit everybody and consequently bristles with inconsistencies. The Meadville Republican overhauls it in the following terse manner: The platform is an immense bundle of inconsistencies—an evident attempt to give equal prominence to the peculiar ideas of every faction in the party, and to stuff all classes of people with an equal amount of taffy. On most questions they affirm the cut, and dried principles of the democratic party, but on the tariff they adopt the meaningless India-rubber plank of the Ohio democrats. The republican party is of course denounced at every opportunity, but they go a long distance out of their way to denounce a proposition the republican party never made. The abolition of the tax on whisky and tobacco is demanded as a measure of relief from an unnecessary and unequal burden. Governor Pattison comes in for his share of praise for his "courageous exercise of the executive power" while the democratic House of Representatives is commended for its wise legislative enactments. The resolution calling attention to the economies enforced by the democratic House is closely followed by one counselling the democratic members of the Legislature to continue the useless extra session, no matter what the cost in money may be. The announcement is made that "every legitimate effort of labor to better its condition, enhance its reward and protect its rights commands the sympathy of the democratic party," and in the same paragraph it is asserted that "due regard should be had to the vested rights of capital and the claims of private enterprise." This looks as though the democrats propose to catch labor and capital on the same hook with the same kind of bait. Taken altogether, the platform may be said to make up in length what it lacks in sense. But long-winded resolutions and obscure candidates will not defeat the united republican party, and this the democratic leaders very well know.

The syndicate who have been buying Confederate bonds have secured the opinions of the leading jurists of Europe that the Southern States are liable for their claim. But they do not propose to depend upon their legal rights but will undertake to force a settlement by putting the States of the Confederacy in an attitude of default and by discrediting their present loans in the money markets of the world force a compromise settlement. Another lever will be used upon the securities of Southern railroads. A few of the bonds of this country are held by banks, but the largest proportions were bought during the war or acquired since by the aristocracy. The syndicate themselves have but small holdings, but they expect to force a settlement at twelve per cent, which would give them $3,500,000. The scheme is discussed here in financial circles as one with probable success, on the ground that the South must settle to save its state and corporation credit.—Exchange.

The New Hampshire Senatorial dead-lock was broken on the 2d inst. by the election of Austin E. Pike, Republican, to the U. S. Senate on the 42d ballot.

The New York Tribune puts it in this shape: The tidal-wave Governors have been little less than six months in office, and the entire democratic press is crying, "Turn the rascals out."

The Judiciary Apportionment bill, which was reported by the conference committee last week and adopted by the House has passed the Senate and will now go to the Governor for his signature. It is hoped the Governor will resist the temptation to veto this bill, as it is all the Legislature has to show for the extra session of eight weeks. A hundred and forty thousand dollar bill is too costly to be killed by a veto. The bill is substantially in the form in which it was originally passed by the Senate.—Meadville Republican.

The New Postal Notes.

The new postal notes for the transmission of small sums of money are now being prepared in New York. They will be ready for delivery about the 1st of September. The notes are in shape nearly like bank notes. They are printed in a blank form, spaces being left for the names of postoffices from which they are sent and at which they are paid. On the right hand side of each of the notes are three columns of figures, one for the dollars, containing the figures from 1 to 4, the second for the dimes from 1 to 9, and the third for cents from 1 to 9. The postmaster who sells one of these notes will punch the figures indicating the amount for which the note will be received. For instance if a note for $3.52 is wanted the figure 3 in the dollar column, 5 in the dimes column and 2 in the cents column will be punched out. All counterfeiting or "raising" is thus prevented. The notes may be bought of any value from one cent to 4.99. A charge of three cents will be made in addition to the face value of the note. The great advantage possessed by the postal notes over money orders is that the former is transferable so that it will not be necessary for those who receive them to go in person for the money. They may be used in payment of goods or for other purposes, but must be presented for payment within a few months or their collection will be more difficult.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer that enable us to club that magazine with the FOREST REPUBLICAN at the low price of $1.75 per year, a trifle over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. This is beyond question the first time that a reliable agricultural paper has been offered at so cheap a price, and we trust all our subscribers will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity of securing a first class agricultural magazine. The American Farmer is beyond doubt worth three times the price, at which we place it. Try it. It is a monthly publication.

A Dangerous Counterfeit.

There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle warranted. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York, wholesale agents.

Peruna.
This medicine was introduced to the profession and to the public at large by S. B. Harman M. D., in 1877 after he had prescribed it over 400,000 patients in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. It is wholly composed of numerous vegetable ingredients each one of which is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the most potent of all the herbal remedies known to medical science. But its great virtue is mainly attributable to the new and peculiar proportions in which the harmonious ingredients are combined and to the extreme care exercised in its manufacture using only the pure active principles, and excluding all that is crude or irritating. No one should be without Peruna.
