For County Treasurer, WILLIAM SMEARBAUGH.

For County Surveyor, HENRY C. WHITTEKIN.

For Coroner, Dr. J. W. MORROW.

The Philadelphia Times, largely quoted by Democratic newspapers last year, says: The Democratic house yesterday added an additional handicap of $3,000 wasted public money to the extra session milestone already on the democratic state candidates.

JUDGE HOADLY, Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, is quoted as having said to a friend that he was by no means so confident of an election as when first nominated. He needed rest, he said, from his profession, and thought he could find it for a couple of years in the Governor's office, but he had not anticipated the grinding anxiety of a campaign.

TO LEGISLATE there must be consideration of bills. The Senate refuses to consider bills and therefore refuses to legislate. The Senate is in contempt of the Constitution and the people.—Democrat.

And during all this time what in blazes is the democratic House doing? It does not refuse to "consider bills," to be sure, but the principal "consideration" it seems, is ten-dollar "bills."

The democrats at Harrisburg have again avowed their intention of continuing indefinitely the robbery of the State Treasury. The fact of the matter is, the democratic leaders don't know how to get rid of the extra session. They are holding on in the hope that something will turn up to bring the session to a close and let them out. It is the old story illustrated. The Legislative boy has yoked himself with the gubernatorial calf, "Here we come, damn our fool souls, somebody head us off."—Meadville Republican.

The democratic House have amended the Senate's adjournment resolution to read that they will adjourn when the business of the session is done. Well that gives us heart once more. The promise that they will "let up" when there is nothing more to do, and stop drawing their ten-dollars-a-day, ought to be some consolation, if it is only a democratic promise. Now if they will stick to that promise and really agree to an adjournment when the business is all done, why we believe they will stand some show of being forgiven by some of their own party at least.

JEREMIAH S. BLACK, who has been in a critical state of health for some weeks, died at his home in York county, Pa., on Sunday morning at 2 o'clock. Pennsylvania has lost an eminent jurist and statesman. Judge Black was a profound scholar of rare ability, and a thoroughly conscientious man; and he was respected by men of all shades of opinion, not only in his native state, but elsewhere also. He was born in the Glades, Somerset County, Pa., January 10, 1810. He was twice elected Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and served as Attorney General and Secretary of State under Buchanan.

THE Pension Department at Washington has begun the establishment of district pension bureaus in all the large cities of the country including Pittsburgh, with a view of expediting the business of examining into the cases of applicants for pensions. Bureaus have already been located in Philadelphia, New York and elsewhere, and in a few weeks the one provided for Pittsburgh will be in operation on Wood street. The head of the board will be A. S. Coleman, of Rochester, N. Y. One of the most experienced and best informed officers in the department. He will have from three to ten assistants and his districts will embrace Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and probably West Virginia.

Will Lose both Victory and Spoils.

Every war offers instances of an army which has thrown away its victory by stopping to pillage a camp of which it imagined itself in secure possession. The Democratic party is going to be beaten in this way. Its accidental victories last year left it with the impression that it had nothing to do but divide the spoils. The thin veneer of a belief in civil service reform has peeled off. The old demand for administrative reform has been dropped. Such principles as the party had used in fighting its battles have been thrown down to reach for plunder. The party watch-word has become "Turn them all out—Give us all the offices." The party itself is wrangling and jangling over a nomination for the Presidency, as if it, too, were loot. From one end of the party to the other, pillage and plunder, the possession of office, and the capture of the government is the ruling motive which keeps the party in line. "To the victors belong the spoils" was the Democracy of the last generation; but this generation has sounded a lower depth in seeking "Victory for the sake of the spoils." The inevitable natural result is first confusion and then rout; first a loss of principle for the sake of success, and then a loss of success for a lack of principle. The Democratic party will neither win its victory nor pillage the camp. The party is already losing headway. In New York and Pennsylvania its battle is lost, in Ohio it is doubtful. Nowhere is it attracting young men or arousing the enthusiasm of Independents, as it did in 1875 and 1876. Its sole hope and single plan is in organizing the appetite for pillage and plunder, and in doing this it will estrange that solid, sober and conservative vote by which alone great political success is won.—Phila. Press.

Erle's Experience. Another cure utterly without a precedent! Erle, Pa. Sept 19, 1883. Dr. Hartman:—I cannot but express my thanks to you for the great benefit I received from the use of Peruna and Manalin. One bottle of each placed me squarely on my feet, after a long sickness, which had laid me in bed and then left me lame and crippled. Three days' use of these remedies dispensed with the cane, and in a week I was perfectly well. N. J. WRIGHT, Business Agent Erie Evening Herald. Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's book on the "Iris of Life." He will give it gratis. If not, address Dr. H. at Osborn, O.

Barnum is overjoyed with his acquisition—the baby elephant—and declares that $300,000 could not buy it. He offers $2,000 for an insurance of the life of the infant for 52 weeks. Surely, if he knew the full value of Peruna and Manalin, he would not so much thing as they are the most successful protective medicines that have ever been introduced to the human family. No one can take any disease while taking Peruna before each meal, and keeping the bowels regular with Manalin. Ask your druggist for the book on "Iris of Life."

PE-RU-NA Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession, and then to the public at large, by Dr. H. H. Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 60,000 patients with the most gratifying results. Its effects upon the system is entirely unlike that of any other remedy, and is the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. (In Consumption, Diseases of the Liver and Kidney, Neuralgia should be given with it.) PE-RU-NA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, each one, according to medical authorities, a great remedy in itself. Dr. Hartman has succeeded in extracting from these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly coincides with the "Vital Medication" & "SALINA" in every disease, and a cure necessarily follows. There is no side effect, it will not reach nor disorganize the system. Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's pamphlet on "Pituitary Gland," or "The S. H. Hartman & Co., Oskoson, O., proprietors.
