THE REAL ISSUE.

The practical work of the campaign has begun. Both parties have opened their headquarters. The managers of each have begun to spread over the State the wide net of influence, agitation and persuasions (says the Philadelphia Press) which will draw to the polls in November three-quarters of a million voters. The great work of waking up a State and rousing voters over a territory a quarter as large as France, will shortly be in full swing. Year by year Americans see this free school in politics opened until familiarity has blinded them to the marvel of hard work and skilled organization which polls the vote of a great state and wheels voters into line by the hundred thousand. But the real work is not done by organization, valuable as it may be. The tide runs stronger and deeper than the waves and elections are won and lost as great principles and moving motives sway great masses. Republican success is certain because the Republican tide is rising and its swelling flood bears a party, but lately in the shadows of discord and the breakers of defeat, to safety and victory. All signs point alike to a Republican majority, because a Republican majority is necessary to meet the need and assure the supply of good government.

It is an off year by the political calendar, but it is no off year by the issues which are opened and the principles at stake. Step by step for five years past the Democratic party has arrayed itself against administrative platform. Democrats aided in passing the Civil Service Reform act, which aims to lift Federal office out of politics, but Democrats from end to end of the party are opposing the measure. The success of the party means the destruction of this reform, and there is not to-day a Democratic platform or a Democratic speaker who dares to pledge his party to the support of the Pendleton bill and the application of its principles to all offices. Here, as in all things its principles and practice are makeshifts of the hour. The party does not dare to propose a change in the tariff next winter, and last winter its Congressmen voted with scarcely a break against the revision it now accepts. In this State, the party promised economy and its Governor has entailed on the tax-payers of the State the heaviest useless outlay of years in the extra session. Local self-government is the crying need of the hour, and in Baltimore a Democratic city government is under indictment, in Cincinnati the local Democratic machine has bred revolt by flagrant corrupion, in Chicago a Democratic city government is a stench in the nostrils of decent citizens, in Boston it has shamelessly divided offices as spoils, in New York an honest Democratic officer, Controller Campbell, resigned in disgust the other day because a defalcation yawned under him—in short every candid man knows that the average of Democratic administration, state and local is below the average of Republican administration.

The real issue which divides parties to-day and tests the good sense of voters is, therefore, whether they want good government or bad, a stable tariff or perpetual change, economy, or $3,000 chucked daily into the Susquehanna. The Republican party in the main gives good administration, the Democratic party in the main gives bad—the choice is plain, clear and unavoidable. We believe in government by common sense, and government by common sense this year for this reason means a Republican victory.

THE Pennsylvania Greenbackers met in convention at Williamsport last Thursday and nominated the present state Chairman, T. P. Rynder, of Altoona, for Auditor General, and an Erie gentleman named Capt. A. T. Marsh, for State Treasurer.

The jury in the Frank James trial returned a verdict of not guilty. We always thought that the "suspicion" of Mr. James' guilt was unwarranted, and he ought now to commence suits for libel against those papers which have slandered him so in the past. No doubt the same jury that acquitted him would award him heavy damages.

THE Altona Tribune says: "The shameless manner in which the New York Sun persistently attacks the memory of the late James A. Garfield is a disgrace to our common humanity and a reproach to journalism." Some of the small fry newspaper, who have not discernment enough to see that the people think with the Tribune, might profit by its opinion.

It is estimated that the reduction of the public debt during the month of August just closed will amount to six million dollars. This sum is below the average of the monthly reductions for the past two or three years; but, considering the greatly increased expenditures of the government on account of pensions and other things, that any reduction whatever should have been effected is a circumstance which bears witness to the wonderful elasticity of our finances. There is not another country in the world which can make anything like such a showing.—Clearfield Journal.

OUR dispatches indicate a wide spread area where frosts have prevailed during the last two nights. The injury done is limited to tobacco and the smaller fruits, which have suffered greatly. All over the west and northwest the cold north wind has been biting and benumbing floral and vegetable life, and we can now bid summer farewell and prepare for a long period of cold and storm. Fitful flashes of the dying embers of the golden period of the north will come, and many a ray of sunshine illumine the waste places, but the heated term is over and Autumn comes briskly on to prepare the way for the dread approach of winter.—Derrick, yesterday.

Harvard College.

At a recent meeting of the overseers of Harvard College, a discussion was held upon the resolution which had been before the board for several weeks, that in the opinion of this board, the statutes making attendance on morning prayers and other religious exercises compulsory should be repealed. The board, by a strong vote refused to adopt the resolution. But Mr. George Shiffer, lately from Martinsburg, Blair Co., Pa., who had a Cancerous growth on his nose, and who was advised the use of Peruna before a visit to a Cancer Hospital, was allowed to take that par-excellent remedy, and by its use for a very short time, was cured completely—page 24 in the "I'lls of Life"—get one from your druggist.

A Miracle in Oil City. Doctors dumfounded—druggists and the people wild with excitement. (From the Oil City Derrick, July 31st, 1883.) Miss Maggie Martin, of this city, has been ill and confined to the house for several years. Our best physicians failed to give her relief. She took Peruna and, to the astonishment of all who knew her, she is now up and about again. Mr. Simmons, the druggist, sold 184 bottles last week. He buys in gross lots. Mr. Cawell, too, sells it. Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's book "I'lls of Life", gratis, or address Dr. H., at Osborn, O., for one.
