THE REAL ISSUE.

The practical work of the campaign has begun. Both parties have opened their headquarters. The managers of each have begun to spread over the State the wide not of influence, agitation and pursuasions (says the Philadelphia Press) which will draw to the polls in November three-quarters of a million voters. The great work of waking up a State and rousing voters over a territory a quarter as large as France, will shortly be in full swing. Year by year Americans see this free school in politics opened until familiwhich polls the vote of a great state and wheels voters into line by the hundred thousand. But the real work is not done by organization, valuable as it may be. The tide runs stronger and deeper than the waves and elections are won and lost as great principles and moving motives sway great masses. Republican success is certain because the Republican tide is rising and its swelling flood bears a party, but lately in the shadows of discord and the breakers of defeat, to safety and victory. All signs point alike to a Republican majority, because a Republican majority is neccessary to of good government.

It is an off year by the political calender, but it is no off year by the issues which are opened and the prisciples at stake. Step by step for five prepare the way for the dread apyears past the Democratic party has proach of winter. - Derrick, yesterday. arrayed itself against administrative platform. Democrats aided in passing the Civil Service Reform act, which aims to lift Federal office out Hickory Township, the farm of the of politics, but Democrats from end to late George Sibbald, oeceased; conwhich sims to lift Federal office out end of the party are opposing the taining about 96 acres. A first class measure. The success of the party means the destruction of this reform, and there is not to-day a Democratic platform or a Democratic speaker who dares to pledge his party to the support of the Pendleton bill and the application of its principles to all offices. Here, as in all things its principles and practice are makeshifts of the hour. The party does not dare

At a recent meeting of the overseers of Harvard College, a discussion was held upon the resolution which had been before the board for several weeks, that in the opinion of this board, the statutes making attendance on morning prayers and other religious exercises compulsory to propose a change in the tariff next winter, and last winter its Congressmen ivoted with scarcely a break against the revision it now accepts.

In this State, the party promised econ-In this State, the party promised econemy and its Governor has entailed on the tax-payers of the State the heaviest useless outlay of years in the extra session. Local self-government F. F. WHITTERIN, is the crying need of the hour, and in Baltimore a Democratic city government is under indictment, in Cincinuati the local Democratic machine ion, in Chicago a Democratic city government is a stench in the nostrils of decent citizens, in Boston it has shamelessly divided offices as spoils, in New York an honest Democratic officer, Controller Campbell, resigned in disgust the other day because a defalcation yawned under him-in short every candid man knows that the average of Democratic administration, state and local is below the average of Republican administration. The real issue which divides parties to-day and tests the good sense of voters is, therefore, whether they want good government or bad, a stable tariff or perpetual change, economy, or $3,000 chucked daily into the Susquebauna. The Republicau party is the main gives good administration, the Democratic party in the main the Democratic party in the main gives bad, -the choice is plain, clear and unavoidable: We believe in government by common sense, and government by common sense this year for this reason means a Republican victory.

The Pennsylvania Greenbackets met in convention at Williamsport last Thursday and nominated the my office on Monday evening of Court last Thursday and nominated the present state Chairman, T. P. Rynder, of Alteona, for Auditor General, and an Erie gentleman named Capt. A. T. Marsh, for State Treasurer.
