Republican County Committee Meeting.

The following named gentlemen, members of the Republican County Committee, are requested to meet at my office on Monday evening of Court week, Sept. 24, 1883, at 7:30 o'clock, to transact important business relating to the ensuing campaign:

- Barnett twp—W. R. Coon. Jenks—J. J. Parsons. Howe, upper—A. P. Anderson. Howe, lower, L. Agnew. Hickory, L. Keister. Hickory, Braceville—E. Witherel. Harmony, upper—P. C. Blocher. Harmony, lower—John Thomson. Green—Lyman Cook. Kingsley—Geo. W. Osgood. Tionesta—Wm. Lawrence. Tionesta Boro—F. F. Whittekin.

Let there be a full attendance as the election is drawing near and we must be thoroughly organized.

S. D. IRWIN, Chairman.

The taxpayers of the State have the republican Senators to thank for the stoppage of the three-thousand dollar a-day leak in the State treasury. The reformers can stay at Harrisburg till the snow comes and goes, and the daises bloom again, if they are so inclined. There is nobody in the State more interested in adjournment than themselves, now.—Meadville Republican.

WILLIAM LIVSEY, the republican candidate for State Treasurer, is at present Cashier of the Treasury. He stands at his desk working twelve hours every day, faithfully performing his duties instead of neglecting his work to travel over the State on electioneering tours. The people will think more of him for pursuing this course and reward his industry and integrity by electing him to the position which he is so well qualified to fill.

BOB FORD, the slayer of Frank James' brother Jesse, who is now in Indianapolis, playing at the Zoo Theater in a sensational drama, said in regard to the acquittal of Frank James: "I never believed it was possible for the jury to acquit him knowing as I did that he was guilty. Even Thursday I had offered to wager $1000 on his conviction." When asked if he apprehended personal danger from the probable release of Frank James, he said: "Well I should feel safe if he were locked up, but I don't propose to provoke any quarrel."

THERE are few men in the country whose knowledge of politics is equal to that of Hon. James G. Blaine. He has studied politics all his life and his opinion may safely be regarded as something more than a mere guess. Recently, in answer to the inquiry of a friend as to his opinion respecting the republican prospects in 1884 Mr. Blaine said: "At the present time I regard the prospects of the republicans in the campaign of 1884 better than they were a year before the campaign of 1880 and in every way more hopeful than they were a year prior to the election of 1876. For years there has not been so general feeling of harmony in the republican party as exists at the present time, while the absence of anything like unity of sentiment on the leading issue—the tariff—by the democratic leaders, leads intelligent men to distrust that organization more than ever."

Chicago Inter Ocean: "Standing squarely up for human slavery, squarely in the way of the Union army, squarely opposite to the Constitutional amendments and reconstruction made necessary by the results of the war, squarely in the way of the laboring masses in the North in the advocacy of free trade, squarely against land reform—in fine, the Democratic party has made a record in opposition to every great national question in which humanity and progress has had the largest interest. When it stands out and proclaims infallibility and 'dead past to bury,' then can the devil himself boast of exploits that will win him immortal honors."

THE following from Mr. Harry Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal is respectfully referred to those democrats who talk about carrying Pennsylvania this year and next.

If we should build the tariff as high as the moon we could not carry Pennsylvania. The party has fooled itself with Pennsylvania long enough. It is high time to say to Pennsylvania: "Good evening, Pennsylvania; goodbye, Pennsylvania; go to the devil Pennsylvania!" As for Mr. Randall, he has about the same chance of being elected Speaker of the next House as the democrats have of carrying Pennsylvania. In the coming Congress the dog will wag the tail.

A BLESSING.

The pain in all his joints became intense; fever, with its deteriorating effects, was now added, and he became rapidly reduced to the semblance of a skeleton while vitality reached its lowest possible condition, and his sufferings were of such indescribable character that those who most loved him sometimes thought it would be better if he were called away. At this time, physicians well-known in this city (Pittsburg), informed his parents that he was in imminent danger of total Paralysis, and directly afterward they announced to his sorrowful mother that they could give no hopes of his recovery. At this juncture the use of Peruna commenced and in six weeks Wm. Lincoln Curtis was well and at work. Read page 23 or Dr. Hartman's "Hills of Life," get it from your Druggist.
