—The school house roof caught fire last Monday morning shortly after school had called, but was fortunately extinguished before much damage was done.

—Miss Kate Poase arrived home on a visit to her mother last week. She is accompanied by her cousin Miss Cora Scott, who will remain during the winter.

—Mr. H. G. Tinker, of Oil City, with a party of gentlemen sportsmen, passed up the road to Kinzua, on Monday last, in pursuit of the hilarious squirrel.

—There is a large attendance at court this week, and the hotels are over-run, being obliged to turn away customers on account of a lack of sleeping room.

—Mr. Selden T. May, of Norris-town, Pa., is with old friends in Tionesta this week. We acknowledge a pleasant call from him and Mr. Hamilton Stow, yesterday.

—Messrs. Jacob Lachey and Pritner Agnew have finished taking out several headers that have so long proved obstructions to the lumbermen at the mouth of the creek.

—Wm Sibble of Dutch Hill, left for the Mackburg, Ohio oil field Monday, where he will put in the coming winter dressing tools for his brother-in-law, H. H. Keeler, who has several wells drilling there.

—Charlie White, of the Tidoute News, stopped in town a few hours last Saturday; he left his signature on our office door with the injunction that we be at home next time. Well, give us another trial, Charles, and we'll endeavor to be in.

—Among the foreign attorneys in attendance at court this week we noticed Geo A. Jenks of Brookville, B. J. Reid of Clarion, J. H. Osmer of Franklin, Frank Guthrie of Titusville, Sam. W. Calvia of Cooksburg, S. P. Johnston of Warren, W. P. Mercillott of Elk City.

—Mr. J. W. Neily, of Baltimore, Md., a gentleman who has been engaged in the lumbering business for several years, was in town Monday, looking over the field with a view to locating in this county. He is a pleasant gentleman whom we would be pleased to have as a citizen.

—The many young Tionesta friends of Miss Sallie Dougherty will be pleased to congratulate her upon her marriage which occurred at Kittanning, Pa., on the 17th inst. The lucky young man, who deserves credit for his good taste in choosing a life partner, is Mr. Albert Trent, of Johnstown, Pa. Peace, long life and prosperity to the happy pair.

—Dr. Morrow is the only dentist in Forest county that has registered under the dental law that went into effect on last Thursday. Any person suffering from diseased teeth or in need of new ones, cannot do better than give him a call. He renders general satisfaction, and puts up as handsome a set of teeth as can be had anywhere.

—Last week we received a crate of most delicious peaches by express. There was nothing attached to indicate who had so kindly remembered the printer except the express tab, which was Kittanning, and is the only person we can lay the blame on for our young friend Geo. Dougherty, who is now rusticated at home. Accept our best thanks, George, and don't forget that the handsome present was appreciated in a luscious manner.

—Our old friend and predecessor, W. R. Dunn, Esq., of Crookston, Minn., arrived in town Monday evening, and has since been shaking hands with his many old Forest county friends. We are pleased to see Mr. Dunn looking so well, and also to report his success in the great northwest. He expects to remain a week or ten days and when he returns will take with him his wife and daughter, who have spent the summer very pleasantly with eastern friends.

—A correspondent in the Clarion County National, says: E. S. Rudy, head sawyer on Buzard, Ritts & Co.'s mills, while tightening up the belts on the mill, on Tuesday, the 6th, instant, slipped and fell, and was carried through to the engine house, cutting and bruising his head in a shocking manner. It was thought for awhile that he would not recover but at last accounts, he was able to be around. Mr. Rudy's family reside in Tylersburg and he is said to be one of the best sawyers in the county.

—Our old friend J. R. Chadwick has lived a day or two in his time, and although not a man of great age, has seen the elephant from Maine to California. He now wears a bran new hat as the reward of a little knowledge of law that he picked up in his younger days. In 1850 a law was passed by the Pennsylvania legislature making it a misdemeanor punishable by heavy fines to offer a bill of less denomination than five dollars. Some one disputed that such a law was ever in force, and offered to bet a new hat, which was promptly taken by Mr. Chadwick who had some experience in the matter in his younger days, and who produced the documents to show he was right. We don't know when the old man is going to apply for admission to the bar, but perhaps before court adjourns.

—Petersons Magazine for October comes to us more beautiful than ever. The principal steel-engraving, "An Ignominious Flight," is after one of the most popular pictures of the last Paris Salon, and is full of humor and graphic truth. There are two sheets of colored patterns with eight different designs; alone worth the price of the number. The colored steel fashion-plate is of rare loveliness; "Peterson" is now the only magazine that gives these steel fashion-plates, colored by hand. Address CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

OIL NOTES.

The tools are out of the Hunter well across the river but drilling has not yet been resumed.

The Beaver Valley well will hardly go any deeper. It is over 1800 feet, and while the owners talked of going down 2000 or more, it is not likely they will.

Monday's Derrick says: Saturday Porcupine No. 11 was drilled into the sand and the first pour according to some reports, put 75 barrels into the tank. Others say the amount in the first hour was 55 barrels. Last night messages were received that it was very gassy and had declined to seventeen barrels an hour. The well is located three quarters of a mile northeast of Porky 5, and 1,200 feet west of Porky No. 4.

Howe Nos. 5 and 7 were drilled deeper on Saturday. No. 5 increased to eighty barrels an hour, and No. 7 was also largely increased. Galey & Murphy No. 3 made 300 barrels in the first 15 hours, and at the end of that time was doing ten barrels an hour. Grandin No. 15 was drilled sixteen feet into the sand Saturday. The first hour it made eighteen barrels, and is showing for 100 to 150 barrels. This well is located between Nos. 8 and 14. At present it is showing smaller than No. 14, which is in advance of it.

During the next week Porky ten should be completed, and also Miller & Co.'s well in the southwest corner of 731. Howe No. 10 will also probably get the sand this week.

Death of Jeremiah Bonner.

Our community was shocked on Monday last to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Jeremiah Bonner, Esq., at his home in Stoneboro, Mercer county, Pa. On Saturday last he fell from a scaffold at a ware house which was undergoing repairs, sustaining injuries from the effects of which he died at 4 p. m. on the following Sabbath, living but thirty hours after the accident.

Few men were more widely known and none more highly respected in this county than Mr. Bonner, where he has held large interests for the past forty years or more. He was born near Kittanning where he engaged in business at an early age, in which he was very successful, owing to his frugal, industrious and energetic habits. About twelve years ago he moved to Stoneboro, where he became interested largely in the coal mines of that place. He was one of the projectors of the New Castle & Franklin railroad, of which he was at one time the vice president and treasurer. He was one of the heaviest land-owners of our county, much of which land is among the most valuable in the county.

Mr. Bonner was a man of wonderful energy, always feeling best when he was the busiest. He was ever ready to lend assistance to those who were deserving of it, and who were willing to help themselves. In his death an honored, useful and model citizen is lost to the community, and as such he will be mourned by the many friends and acquaintances whom he leaves behind. He was aged about 69 years, and besides a wife he leaves several children and grand-children. He was the father of our worthy townspeople Mrs. G. W. Robinson and Mr. Chas. Bonner.

County Committee Meeting.

The Republican County Committee held a meeting last evening pursuant to call of Chairman Irwin, and a very successful one it was. A good representation was present, and an interchange of views showed that the party in the different townships was alive to the work before it and ready for the coming election. A vigilance committee was appointed in each township, and the chairman was instructed to notify each member of his appointment and instruct him in his duties in the campaign. There now remains nothing for the Republicans to do but go to work from now till election, and see that every voter is at the polls on the morning of the sixth of November and casts a good solid vote for the entire ticket. Let every Republican attend to the payment of his State and County tax, and if he knows of a brother Republican who has not paid his tax let him see that he does it right away. Be vigilant and work.

Court Minutes.

Up to the hour of going to press very few of the cases on the trial list had been disposed of. Every case on the list except one, in fact, has been continued, down to Wm Petrie et al vs. Wm F. Wheeler et al, which is now on trial. Case of H. P. Ford vs. O. W. Proper was withdrawn. Com. vs. John McCool, selling liquor without license; true bill. Same vs. Same, selling liquor to men of intemperate habits; not a true bill and prosecutor to pay costs. Com. vs. Kate Singleton, selling liquor without license; true bill. Same vs. Same, selling liquor on Sunday; true bill. Case of Commonwealth vs. J. J. Reynolds, obstructing public highway; not a true bill and county to pay costs. Com. vs. Cadwallader et al, assault and battery; settled. Com. vs. Cyrus McElwain, F. & B., true bill; settled. Com. vs. Thos. Law, assault and battery; true bill. Same vs. Same, aggravated assault and battery; true bill. Com. vs. John McIntyre, assault; true bill.

The Hunt Last Saturday.

Perhaps the most successful match hunt yet had was that of last Saturday. The day was mild but a little too windy for good squirrel hunting, nevertheless a large number was slain. Sixteen on a side were chosen, and strange to say every man hunted and reported in the evening at the Lawrence House. As on the former hunt it was a question for some time whose side was ahead, and it was "which and tober" until Zach. Shriver came in with 225 of a count, the largest ever scored by one man. This virtually decided the matter, and we all—that is, the side we were on—commenced fumbling around the bottom of our pockets for the dollar to pay the other fella's snappers. They all managed to find the dollar and didn't hesitate about handing it out. Dr. Coburn and Billy Smearbaugh were the captains, to whose efforts the success of the hunt is largely due, for they had their men well worked up, and they all pitched in and worked like beavers till late in the evening. The supper at the Lawrence House was extra good, and the boys didn't allow any of it to go to waste. Following is the score:

Newtown Pine Knots.

The mill and dam are undergoing repairs for the coming season. The pond is also being cleaned and scraped out, so as to be safe for logs.

Mr. J. G. Root is preparing to build a shingle mill at Fork Run, on the Balltown and Tionesta road; he will cut up the timber in that section.

The farmers of this part report buckwheat a failure.

A number of people of this place attended the reunion last Tuesday, and a good time was reported by all.

The school ended last Friday; Miss Nellis, of President draws the breath of relief.

OBITUARY

DIED—On Tuesday, Sept. 18, 1883, in Pleasantville, Pa., Miss Kate E. Jamieson, daughter of Gilbert and Mary A. Jamieson, in the 18th year of her age.

The deceased was called away from her earthly home and friends in the "morning of life." Nor was she unkindly of the preparation needed for so great a journey. Her feet were "shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace." On the 12th of Feb., 1882, she publicly professed Christ, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. But the summons, "Come up higher," was soon to come and happily to find her not ashamed of her hope. Kind and affectionate to a remarkable degree, none knew Katie but to love her. But how often is the trite saying realized: "Death loves a shining mark." It is always an unwelcome visitor, whether it "knocks at the palace or the cottage gate;" whether in silent steps it comes to trembling age, or when it smites the young and beautiful in the midst of the pleasures, endearments, hopes, and ambitions of life. How terrible the gloom when the sun goes down while it is yet noon! How desolate and dreary the home when its life and light are fled! Yet we should not despair longer. Already the gospel of joy and peace breaks the gloom of these darkening clouds and bids us take new courage: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

"Dearest sister, those that left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 'tis God that hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; And in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed." I. B. S.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer that enable us to club that magazine with the FOREST REPUBLICAN at the low price of $1.75 per year, a trifle over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. This is beyond question the first time that a reliable agricultural paper has been offered at so cheap a price, and we trust all our subscribers will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity of securing a first class agricultural magazine. The American Farmer is beyond doubt worth three times the price, at which we place it. Try it. It is a monthly publication.
