—How did the election suit you. —Our paper is delayed one day in order to give the correct election returns.

—One more battle ended and every body feels easier, at least "them as got office."

—Mr. James Ward, one of Barnett township hardy sons, paid us a pleasant call this week.

—Our young friend Walt D. Adams came home from Tidionte Tuesday to cast his first vote.

—The boys enjoyed some fine duck shooting on the river during the latter part of last week.

—Have you commenced fattening that turkey for Thanksgiving? The 29th of this month is the time to eat it.

—The boys are laying awake nights—that is those with a sportsman's turn of mind—waiting for a good "tracking snow."

—Mr. E. E. Stitzinger, one of our county's young school teachers, is attending commercial college at Titusville this winter.

—Sam Q. Clark has gone to the Macksburg, Ohio, oil field, where he will officiate as clerk in D. W. Clark & Co.'s hardware store. We wish Sammy a pleasant time.

—Elbert Chadwick returned last week from his jaunt up to York State where he visited for six weeks with his father's relatives. Elbert thinks there's no place like home and he is right.

—Some of the boys got there work in on Hollow E'en, displacing some of the signs in different parts of the town and committing other little depredations of a minor character. Nothing serious and no arrests as far as heard from.

—The new mill on the Helm tract, three miles from this place, and near the old Jamieson & Copeland saw mill, will perhaps commence sawing lumber this week. A Mr. Slater of Mercer county, is the owner of the mill, and the sawing will be done for Capt. Knox.

—Last week Mr. Wm. Young, of Old Town, received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, John, which occurred at his home in Kasson, Minn., on the 20th ult. He was quite a prominent man in the community, and his home paper speaks of his death as a serious loss to the neighborhood.

—Attention is directed to the new card of Ball & Halliday, who have just started a new livery at East Hickory, Pa., and are prepared to furnish a good rig to travelers at all times. They will run a hack regularly and from all trains, which will be a source of much convenience to the traveling public.

—Joseph Zuver, well and favorably known to many of our citizens, died suddenly at his home in Edenburg, Pa., on Friday last, Nov. 2d. Mr. Zuver will be remembered as the man who conducted the billiard room when it was first started in connection with the Lawrence House. He made many warm friends here at that time on account of his gentlemanly bearing, and genial good nature, all of whom will be sorry to learn of his sudden death.

—Frank Walker expects to have his new billiard room in operation the latter part of this week. He will have oysters, tobacco, and cigars in connection, and altogether will have a nice room wherein to spend a leisure hour. At this writing we are smoking one of Frank's ten-centers which we recommend as a superior article.

—Diphtheria prevails at an alarming extent at Stoystown, Somerset county, and the vicinity within a radius of four miles. It effects old and young alike. One family lost three children within 24 hours; another a grown daughter, two young sons and a child within a few days. The disease does not yield to the usual treatment and physicians are baffled.

—Wm. Blum has just finished a very handsome hack at his wagon shop. The painting, style and workmanship speak for themselves and as to the material used, Mr. Blum will guarantee that to be first-class in every particular. The hack is for sale and those wishing to purchase anything of the kind should call early and look it over.

—Last Friday morning our local sports got in their work on the first tracking snow in good shape. Dr. Coburn bagged two fawns, while J. D. Hulings and S. H. Haslet made one bite the snow. On the following day T. F. Ritchey broke a fawn's neck and wounded another. And all these within two miles of Tionesta. Who says we don't live in a hunter's paradise?

—Our friend Madison Church passed down the river last Thursday in charge of four large barges, it being the "last run of shad" for this season. Madison has put in the summer at this business, and has been very successful, giving good satisfaction to his employers, and laying by some wealth for himself. He expects to remain at his home in Millvillage, Pa., this winter and take things easy.

—Emma E. Johnston, teacher of Jamieson School, makes the following report for the month ending Oct. 30, 1883: No. enrolled males 5, females 8; per cent. of attendance males 93, females 100. The following are names of pupils who have been neither late nor absent during month: Willie Johnston, Charles Monson, Carl Carlson, Minnie Lawson, Florence and Ida Jamieson, Gussie and Hannah Johnson, Annie, Jennie and Selma Eckberg.

—Our old friend John Thompson, of Stewart's Run, returned home last week from a six week's visit in the East. He was accompanied by his wife, and they visited with Hon. Wm. McKinley of Elizabeth, N. J., Gilbert McKinley of Lincolnton, and many of their old friends and former neighbors, all of whom did their utmost to make their stay pleasant, and to hear Uncle John speak of it, they succeeded most admirably. They visited the famous Brooklyn bridge, also.

—With sincere regret we chronicle to-day the death of Mary A., wife of our young townsman William Wolcott, the sad event having taken place at her former home in Sunville Venango county, Pa., on Friday, Nov. 2d, 1883. Mrs. Wolcott had been in rather delicate health for some time, and about six weeks ago she repaired to her old home hoping that the change might do her good.

The deceased was a lady of refinement; amiable and gentle in her manners, and loved by all with whom she became acquainted. The grief-stricken husband has the sympathy of all our people in his great affliction, which we are sure will assist in a measure to bear him up in his hour of trial. Mrs. Wolcott was aged 26 years.

A New York paper had prepared one day two articles, one a sermon by a celebrated divine and the other on the freaks of a mad dog. The foreman in placing them within the form mixed them, with this result: "The Rev. James Thompson, rector of St. Andrew's Church, preached last Sunday to a large concourse of people. This is his last sermon. In a few weeks he leaves for Europe, as per the advice of his physician. He exhorted his brethren and sisters, and, after offering up devout prayer, took a whim to cut up some frantic freaks. He ran up Timothy street to Johnson, down Benefit to College, where he was met by a couple of boys who tied a tin kettle to his tail and he again started. A crowd collected and for a time there was great excitement and confusion. After some trouble he was shot by a policeman.

—A happy occasion was that on last Thursday evening when the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Grove assembled at their residence to assist in the celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary. When the appointed hour arrived the guests began to assemble and by nine o'clock the house was filled with happy friends all bent on having a real jolly time, and if we are to take their words for it all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The refreshments that were served were most delicious and would tickle the palate of the finest Epicurian cast. The display of presents was very fine, and the collection embraced nearly everything in the line of tinware, and while it was large, it had scarcely two articles alike, strange to say. At a late hour the happy guests dispersed wishing their pleasant host and hostess many years more of peaceful, prosperous and happy married life.

—Go away from home to learn the news. From the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette of Saturday last we get the following item: On Friday morning Mr. J. T. Dunn, of Gusher City, Forest county, Pa., was sitting in a room adjoining the shoemaker shop where a young man by the name of Custeller accidentally discharged a shot-gun through the board partition hitting Mr. Dunn fair in the face and eyes, stunning and instantly blinding him. Great excitement prevailed for a time, physicians were called in from several towns around. Yesterday he was brought to this city examined by Dr. Sadler, who found two No. 10 shot had penetrated the left eye, and one the right. There is no hope of restoring any sight. His face and neck also bear numerous shot marks, and it is a wonder he escaped with his life.

—Alas for the man, thinks the Forest and Stream, who loveth not, nor is beloved by a dog. Let all good men and all good dogs avoid him, for there is something amiss with his head, or his heart, or with both. It is the fashion with some agriculturists, perhaps those who plough paper more than soil, to rail against the dog as the farmer's enemy—but we have found that most real farmers count good dogs as good friends, and value them accordingly. Indeed, we know one farmer who thinks it pays to keep a "yaller dog," for the sake of having something to kick when he gets mad. And the "yaller dog" loves him.

—Fred Bussinger, night watchman for Cunningham & Co., in New Castle, is the hero of several serious accidents. In 1854 he fell from the third floor, to the cellar, a distance of fifty feet, and broke every rib on his right side but one. In 1869 he fell a distance of forty-five feet breaking his left arm in four places and crushing in his left side. In 1865 his right arm was broken near the shoulder. In 1874 he had three ribs on his left side broken. Of other little accidents, such as being shot, carved, kicked, etc., they are too numerous to be mentioned.

EDMUND KIRK opposes the idea of giving an education to the negroes of the south because he thinks that if lifts them above their condition and makes them dissatisfied. Edmund is one of those chaps who would be of much more service to the world in the capacity of a grease spot.—Blizzard.

Newtown Mills. Having sent each of the other of Tionesta papers a communication, and not to make any invidious distinction on account of difference in political faith, I also send you one, which you will, if you see fit, give one insertion in your paper.

The good people of Forest county will please take notice, that, in the near future, I expect to canvass the county for the sale of a book of great merit, and as I have not got the calves of my legs ironclad they will lay me under a lasting obligation by keeping the bull dog either muzzled or tied up, if it is all the same to you. If ever I am permitted to shuffle off this mortal coil I should prefer doing it by some other disease; even the infirmities of old age would be preferred to hydrophobia. Truth is mighty and will prevail; bury it hundreds of fathoms deep under the surface of the ground, or under the waves of the ocean, although it may be eaten by sharks or swallowed by whales, it will rise triumphant at last. D. H. Nov. 5, 1883.

OIL NOTES. Friday afternoon Howe No. 14, on 4792, Balltown district, was drilled into the sand. The oil was found near the top of the rock, and it began flowing soon after passing through the shell. It started off largely and in the first hour had put forty barrels in the tank. The location of this well is north of No. 13 and west of No. 10, being close to the western edge. It is about 600 feet west of No. 10, and south, or nearer the prolific belt of a line through No. 11. It is very close to the line between the good and uncertain territory.

McCalmont & Company's No. 3, in the Cooper district was drilled deeper in the second sand Friday night, and for the first hour made fifty barrels. Its location is 400 feet northeast of No. 11, on division 11, of the Henry lands, and is northwest of No. 5, McCalmont, which was the largest second sand well in the Cooper district.

The Hunter well is down and to all appearances, dry. A little fuss is still kept up about the premises, but what it all means no one seems able to guess. We calmly await the results.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer that enable us to club that magazine with the FOREST REPUBLICAN at the low price of $1.75 per year, a trifle over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. This is beyond question the first time that a reliable agricultural paper has been offered at so cheap a price, and we trust all our subscribers will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity of securing a first class agricultural magazine. The American Farmer is beyond doubt worth three times the price, at which we place it. Try it. It is a monthly publication. —Latest Revised Map of the Oil Regions, $1.00 and revisions free to S. C. A MOTHER'S LOVE. A Practical Illustration of Its Power.

A Mother's Love! What a potent thing it is! It will melt the heart of the most hardened criminal when no other influence would be effectual. No one but a mother knows its full meaning, but every one can appreciate it if they will. It is known, though, that it means sleepless nights, care, inconvenience, and, if necessary, want, hardship and death. But the subject has been too eloquently treated by the sweetest poet and the ablest writers to furnish an essay for these columns. Too many practical illustrations occur in every day life for it to be dwelt upon, so that it is unnecessary to speak of the subject further in order to make the reader understand the full meaning of what is to follow.

Mrs. Henry Schuilen, of Ashland, Ky., writes that her daughter has been cured of deafness which resulted from chronic catarrh. She tells how she had lost all hope of her daughter (her ideal) being cured, and how overjoyed she is at the result. After trying many remedies she says: "Peruna brought a cure and that the daughter's hearing is restored. She concludes by speaking in the most flattering terms of Peruna, and then describes in the most lovely manner the happiness it has brought her, and reviews the distress she experienced while her daughter was afflicted."

A Dangerous Counterfeit.

There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle warranted. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & Co., Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York, wholesale agents.
