CONGRESS meets one week from next Monday. The scramble for the Speakership among the Democrats is growing ho, with the chances in favor of Randall of Pennsylvania, as against Carlisie of Kentucky.

rights of persons traveling in sleeping cars in this State, was handed down at the session of the Supreme Court at Pittsburgh on Monday last. It was on the case of Gardner vs. the Pullman Sleeping Car Company, in which the lower court has decided the company liable for the loss to passengers. The Supreme Court affirmed the decision, saying: "A duty rests on the company to provide reasonable care and precaution against the valuables of a passenger being stolen from his clothes on his person." Hereafter, in this State, a passenger lying down in a eleeping car may feel a greater sense of security from the consciousness that, if the company fails to protect his slumbers, the courts will recognize his bill for damages.

Pennsylvania is too far out of reach of the Democracy to make it worth their while to attempt to carry it. So Mr. Randall has no wares to dispose of.
