LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns NORTH and SOUTH, showing train times for various routes.

—Preaching in the F. M. Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. J. D. Rhodes officiating.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening, at 7:30.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 12:30 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Dr. J. M. Burkett, of Barnett, paid our town a visit this week.

—Mr. Peter Berry, of Balltown, is attending court in Tionesta this week.

—Oil Market closed last night at $1.08 1/2. Opened this morning at 1.08.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. Agnew of Balltown, are with Tionesta friends this week.

—Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Towler, of Marienville, are guests of Tionesta friends this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Warden, of East Hickory were among Tionesta friends a short time last Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Heibel are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Krech, of Corry, Pa., this week.

—Mr. Sol. Fitzgerald and Judge Kerr, two of Barnett's staunch Republicans, were in town Monday.

—The Cover property has changed hands, Mrs. H. A. Adams being the purchaser. The family will take possession on the first of April.

—Mr. J. W. Cromer, wife and two sons, of North Lima, Ohio, are spending a few weeks with Mr. C.'s parents at Fox Creek this country. They expect to remain until it is time to begin farm work.

—We publish this week the minutes of the teachers' institute recently held here, not as a matter of news, for they have ere this ceased to be such, but as a matter of record for future reference.

—None of the cases set down for trial at the present court have yet been disposed of. The case of Wheeler & Dusenbury vs. Salmon Creek Lumber Co., is now on trial. Nearly all the other cases have been continued.

—We have heretofore neglected to notice the removal of Mr. S. J. Wolcott and family to the Sibbe farm, in Hickory township, which took place about two weeks ago. We understand Mr. W. purchased the farm for a consideration of $4,400.

—Hon. Geo. Jenks, A. L. Gordon, Brookville; J. H. Osmer, Franklin; Messrs. Slagle and Wiley, Pittsburgh; Frank Guthrie Titusville; R. Brown, L. R. Freeman, D. I. Ball, Warren; W. P. Merrill, Clarion county are some of the foreign attorneys attending court here this week.

—Something that interests every person can be purchased at the store of L. Fulton, Tionesta, Pa. A water proof oil is used upon belts and also for harness, and for shoes and boots. It will preserve leather and keep it from cracking; is also excellent for rubber-ware; applicable to the finest shoe and clearest boot. Can be bought only at L. Fulton's Store.

—Rev. J. C. Greer, of the United Presbyterian Church, will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Friday, Jan. 25, at 11 a. m., after which, if the way is clear, he and the Elders appointed, by Brookville Presbytery will organize a congregation and elect Elders; on Saturday will ordain the Elders. On Sabbath the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered after the sermon. Other announcements will be made from the pulpit. All are cordially invited to attend.

—Miss Nora Hulings' elocutionary entertainment will take place at the Court House this evening. Let all turn out and give the young lady a good reception.

—Mrs. H. H. May has had erected within the past week a monument over the grave of her late lamented husband which is the grandest one yet erected in the cemetery of this place. It is of granite and is over fourteen feet high, while the design and finish are of the latest and most elegant character.

—We have the pleasure this week of announcing the marriage of Dr. E. L. Steadman and Miss Sallie Hulings, both well and favorably known to our citizens. We join their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for their future welfare, and hope that their voyage over the sea of life may be a safe, prosperous and happy one.

—Jacques Buscha, a character noted for his eccentricities in dress and manners, and highly esteemed for his many charitable deeds as well as good qualities of heart, died at Franklin last Thursday. He will be remembered by many who were here at the burial of the 83d, his long wavy hair giving him the appearance of a frostersman and attracting much attention.

—Our Star scribe says that Prof. Winans had a spelling bee last Friday night, and will give another about the 15th of next month.—Mr. Geo. Zuendel is more than cutting logs now.—The great trapper is not having good luck this winter on account of so much snow.—The young man who watches the creek so closely need not be alarmed; the water will not likely raise until it rains.—Mrs. G. W. Osgood is visiting friends in Clarion county.—Mr. L. Behrus' house took fire last Friday, and but for the timely assistance of F. F. Zuendel, who happened along, would have burned down.

James Nutt—"Not Guilty."

The great trial of James Nutt was ended in the Allegheny county courts on Monday, and the jury brought in a verdict of "Not Guilty." If there was general dissatisfaction and condemnation of the verdict which cleared the culprit Dukes there is the most general satisfaction and commendation of the verdict which cleared young James Nutt of an act which any one with a spark of manhood left in his veins could hardly have resisted. Public opinion most emphatically demanded the acquittal of Nutt, and the only surprise in this case is that the jury men ever left their seats to make up their verdict, as it was they were out all night.

Dutch Hill Dots.

Some of our worthy farmers are inclined to complain of the deep snow, especially those who have no wood in their sheds, and are compelled to tackle the garden fence.

A number of our yeoman friends are engaged this winter in taking out ties. James Emert is about through with his job, Mr. Tyrrel having manipulated the broad-axe.

Phil. Emert has given up ever finding that lost glove. He has hunted all over Forest, Clarion and part of Venango counties in vain for it. I judge from his down-cast appearance on his return from his last trip he got the "mittens."

I think the directors could not have made a better selection when they employed Mr. McLaughlin to teach the Oldtown school. He's a good teacher if he does get off his beat occasionally.

Miss Lizzie Lauffin returned to her home in Linville, after a two week's visit with Dutch Hill friends.

Mr. E. P. Williams and Miss Emma Miller paid a visit to Mr. Emert's family recently, attended several parties and no doubt had a splendid time. Come again. JIMJAM.

Free Concert.

The Leslie Concert Co., of Chicago, give a Free Concert in Presbyterian Church Monday evening Jan. 28. The Company is composed of the following: Jennie Vine, Soprano; Minnie McLaughlin, Mezzo Soprano; Kate Coffey, Contralto; Earl Burwell, Tenor; C. E. Leslie, Bass.

Although the concert is free—and no collection taken—yet a first-class program of Sacred, Secular and Classic music will be given. Their object is to organize a musical convention, and no lover of music or those interested in its cultivation can afford to miss this concert.

OIL NOTES.

The McKiney well in the Sheffield district it is one of the best wells struck for some time. It is now doing between 20 and 30 barrels and has only tapped the sand. When completed it will doubtless be not less than a 1000 barrel producer.

Ever since the cold snap after the first of the month, Balltown No. 17 has been shut down on top of the sand. The well may be opened at any time. Its location is northeast of No. 15, and a little north of No. 14, and between it and the Clark well. There is no reason why it should not be a good well, as it is inside the defined lines, and will probably start off as the other wells have along the west edge of the belt.

A careful estimate of the Balltown production last Friday placed it at about 3,000 barrels.

On the Funk lands south of Balltown, the Union Oil Co. is building another rig northwest of their drilling well.

From Saturday's Blizzard we call the following notes: Balltown No. 18 was shut down on top of the sand last Friday night. Neither 17 nor 18 will be opened before the last of next week.

Porkey 17 is down 1,100 feet and should reach the sand by the first of next week. It is located on a line between Nos. 13 and 14 and should be a fair well.

Grandin No. 19 is down 600 feet, and with no bad luck should reach sand by next Friday.

Grandin No. 20 will commence rigging up to-day. They have a rig up for No. 21.

The cold weather has caused stock to accumulate at most all the wells in this district since the first of the month.

Howe 10 was agitated yesterday and started at over 400 barrel gait.

Very little shooting and clearing out can be done in this weather, and the production shows a decline in nearly all parts of the district.

Clapp has started his No. 3 between Nos. 1 and 2, south of the Cooper.

Lineville Lines.

Here we are again, Mr. Editor, with our everlasting "gab."

Mr. and Mrs. William Dolby of Oil City are visiting with their parents at this place.

Mr. R. S. Gray is home from Clarion.

Mr. J. W. Miller is again among us for a short time.

The ladies of this place got up a leap year party a short time ago which was well attended by the "Linevillers," but the "Fryburgers" failed to put in an appearance. But there is always magnetism enough in the average Linevillian to make things interesting, and the party was a grand success without the aid of Fryburg "feminae."

E. S. Owens will give an exhibition at his "pedagogue shop" the coming week. He has secured the services of the Lineville orchestra to furnish music for the occasion.

Lineville is the home of a certain very young gentleman (?) who ought to be the author of a text book on letter writing.

H. L. Miller is engaged in the study of medicine.

Mrs. Betz is absent visiting her relatives near Edenburg.

The election draws nigh and although of little importance comparatively yet when locally considered its importance assumes proportions which are not meager. Only such men as are competent should be elected. In this line let me say that there are men whose happiness would be promoted by seeing the common school system crushed to the earth, and they would do all in their power to hasten such a day. Beware whom you vote for, for school director.

Jan. 21, 1884. LANK.

—Market gardeners know the importance of getting good fresh seeds true to name, and will be glad to know where to find them. We advise them to send to Joseph Harris, Moreton Farm, Rochester, N. Y. Drop him a postal card and he will send catalogue for 1884 with directions for cultivation, free. Mr. Harris is a large farmer and seed grower and offers the best of seeds at the lowest wholesale rates.

—Use Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. Sold by G. W. Bovard.

Resolutions of Respect

The following preamble and resolutions were passed by Forest Lodge No. 184, A. O. U. W., on Friday evening, Jan. 18, 1874.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the universe to remove by death Mrs. Elizabeth Groce, wife of our brother Henry Groce, known to us as a lady of exemplary character, who by her gentle manner and kindly disposition was blessed with the love and respect of hosts of friends—who in the years to come deeply mourn her loss, therefore be it

Resolved, That we express our grief at this great affliction depriving our brother of one whose presence was ever a source of joy and a stimulus in his life work.

Resolved, That we extend the full measure of christian sympathy to our stricken brother, his children, relatives, and friends, and hope with them to rejoice in the one taken from the home circle on earth to the circle which surrounds the Throne.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family and the same be published, and they be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge.

A $20 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their monthly for February month, which is the following: We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner February 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Pa.

—Seeds for the Children's Garden.

—Joseph Harris Rochester, N. Y., offers to send seeds, to the children at 25 per cent less than catalogue rates. His seeds are the very best. We have used them and can recommend them. Catalogue for 1884 free. Send for it.
