

EDITOR. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 30, 1884.

Notice to Republicans.

As the State Convention will meet on April 16th next, and primaries will be necessary prior to that date...

SAMUEL D. IRWIN, Chairman of Rep. Co. Com. Jan. 29, 1884.

State Convention.

At a meeting of the State Committee held in Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week, Wednesday April 16th was the day, and Harrisburg the place selected for holding the next Republican State Convention.

We have received from Congressman Brown a copy of a bill introduced in the house of representatives at Washington by Mr. Dorsheimer...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all duties upon timber, lumber, wood-pulp, bark, extracts of bark, fire-wood, railroad-ties, and logs...

SEC. 2. That this act shall take effect immediately.

The above bill is but a sample of the many free trade bills that will emanate from the present democratic house of representatives.

THE Humes boom for the Chairmanship of the Democratic State Central Committee seems to have died in Humes own breast.

SENATOR HILL, of Georgia is the most effective squelcher of the surplus heard of yet. His plan is to put up a United States building in every town in the country...

Good gracious, spare us the infliction! It is said by those in a position to know whereof they speak that Governor Pattison is going to call another extra session.

The following article, telegraphed from Erie, Pa., to the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette, covers the ground relative to the selection of delegates to the State Convention...

The Republicans of Northwestern Pennsylvania are beginning to be on the alert, both in the matter of National delegates to Chicago and local delegates to the State Convention.
