LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station. NORTH. Train 15... 7:45 am Train 18... 8:10 am Train 9... 3:50 pm

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling. —Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening, at 7:30.

—The cold weather has sized down the coal piles materially. —The grain in the fields has been well protected thus far this winter.

—Oil Market closed last night at $1.10. Opened this morning at 1.10. —Go to the Court House next Monday evening and hear the bell-ringers.

—Henry Sibble, who is stopping at Edenburg, spent a few days with friends here this week. —Found, a gent's wool scarf, which the owner can have by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

—The spring elections are drawing nigh, but as yet aspirants for office are not blooming very rapidly. —Alex. H. Dale has returned home, having finished his course of studies at commercial college, Pittsburgh.

—Don't forget the Bell Ringers at the Court House next Monday night. A rare treat is in store for those who attend. —S. C. Jensen, of Nebraska, this county, who was seriously ill with pleuro-pneumonia for two weeks, is recovering nicely.

—Judge and Mrs. W. R. Coon, of Barnett, took advantage of the nice sleighing to visit friends and relatives here this week. —Judge Proper, who was laid up for two weeks with an immense carbuncle on the back of his neck, is able to be around again.

—"What's in a name?" We notice in one of our Armstrong exchanges that a Mr. Dumm announces himself as a candidate for county superintendent. —The new postal note is to be narrower than the present one, the color to be changed to blue, the paper heavier and finer texture and the design to be changed.

—Curt Shawkey has purchased Harve Foreman's unfurnished house in the north ward. Mr. F. will endeavor to complete the house before April first when Curtis will move in. —Deputy Supreme President G. W. Brown, of Youngsville, Pa., organized Century Equitable Aid Union at Braceville, this county, on the 18th inst. The Union starts off with 32 members and bids fair to become a grand success.

—James Nutt was judicially declared sane and released from confinement in Pittsburgh. In company with several members of his family, he arrived at his home in Uniontown in the evening and was very cordially received by old friends. —Last Friday and Saturday morning were the coldest this winter, in fact about as cold as we've had in this section for several years. At seven o'clock the most reliable thermometers registered from 24 to 26 degrees below zero, while in some places where they were in the least exposed to the air the 34 figure was reached. This is all that could reasonably be asked of an "open winter."

—The Leslie concert company gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, at the close of which a singing class of eighty-five members was organized. The school is to last all week with three sessions a day. —The B. N. Y. & P. Ry has issued a late time schedule on the 24-hour system. It will doubtless be news to our readers to learn that a regular passenger train passes this place going south at 13:45 o'clock and one at 20:28; and one goes up at 16:00. The time is computed from 12 o'clock, midnight. —W. R. Smail, who lives at Thomas' shingle mill near Tylersburg, lost his house with all its contents by fire on Monday night of last week. Mr. Smail was in attendance at the Post installation on that evening consequently the fire, which originated from a defective flue, had full sway. This loss leaves the unfortunate man in rather straightened circumstances. —We are ready to announce candidates for delegates to the Republican State Convention, which are to be voted for on the 19th of February. Our county is entitled to one Representative Delegate, and we also have a voice in the selection of a Senatorial Delegate in conjunction with Clarion, Elk and Cameron counties. Our terms for announcements in this case will be $2. Who wants to go? Hurry along the names as the time is getting short. —John Tanner, an employe at Wyman & Co's mill at Tubbs Run, met with a severe accident on Friday morning last. He was endeavoring to throw a belt on a pulley when his hand slipped and he became entangled in the machinery. The mill being under full headway he was drawn under and around the pulley before he could be released, causing a compound fracture of the left arm below the elbow. Dr. Morrow was summoned and reduced the fracture, leaving the patient feeling much easier. Mr. Tanner is a resident of Cochranon, Pa. —The Auditors' Report, which will be published next week, shows the assets over liabilities to be $13,314.62; in fact the county has no liabilities, and hasn't had for some time. This is an increase in assets of $1,976.88, which is indeed a healthy showing. While this surplus is not what would be termed available assets, that is not so much cash in hand, it is, nevertheless, due the county and will come some time. The tax levy for the coming year will not be more than six mills and perhaps less. All this shows the wisdom and care of our present efficient board of Commissioners, and is viewed with pleasure and satisfaction by the taxpayers of the county. —The following characteristic note from an old subscriber is just the kind that editors like to "get, and can assure our friends that we are always ready to make a "dicker" of the sort indicated: "I notice by the label on my paper that my subscription has almost expired; therefore, I enclose herein a beautiful steel engraving, the prominent features of which are the head of Jefferson, and the Capitol at Washington, trusting—although I believe you never trust—that you will arrange to renew my subscription for it, as I have understood that some editors will occasionally submit to this sort of a "dicker." Wishing you a happy New Year, if not too late, I remain, Yours truly, "Tom Atopic."

—Thursday evening of last week as Judge Hill was driving home from court, being accompanied by his niece, Miss Nannie Wolcott, he met with a mishap which might have proved serious. His cutter was upset while going down the hill above Tubbs Run, which frightened his horse so that the animal ran away smashing the sleigh considerably and compelling the occupants to walk home. Although no serious damage was done in this instance, the Judge thinks that a little attention to the condition of the road at that place may be the means of saving some costs to the township in the future. —The special term of court occupied nearly all of last week, yet there was but one case tried, the Salmon Creek Lumber Co. vs. W. A. Dusenbury. This case involved the ownership of a valuable tract of timber land in Kingsley township. The jury returned a verdict in favor of Dusenbury, whereupon the plaintiff applied for a new trial, which motion will be argued at next term of argument court. The case of D. W. Clark vs. The Balltown Oil Co. was settled. This case also involved the ownership of 700 acres of oil producing territory at Balltown, and what was for years considered a barren, worthless piece of ground, has within the past 18 months developed into a very prolific field, something over 200,000 barrels of having been produced from the same. By the terms of the compromise the defendants retain possession of all the oil produced to date, while the plaintiffs get the property and its future production. We are pleased to learn that our townsman D. W. Clark comes in for a good share of the proceeds, and as the territory is still very prolific we will doubtless be able to lay up a nice little sum for a rainy day from his profits. —An Act passed by the Legislature on June 13, 1883, to the effect that the term of office of every borough officer hereafter elected whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceeding said first Monday of April, and the terms of the successor of such borough officers shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the period now fixed for the duration thereof by existing laws; and provided further, that the borough auditors shall meet on the second Monday of March of the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and on the second Monday of March of each year thereafter, for the settlement of all accounts by them to be settled except accounts of the school directors and school treasurer. —Ballou's Monthly Magazine for February contains a large installment of Mr. William H. Thome's amusing and instructive story of "On Land and Sea, or California in the Years 1843, '44, and '45." Beside the leading story, there is a clever illustrated article on submarine diving, a large number of poems and stories, amusing matters, a puzzle department, a lady's page devoted to fine and fancy work, comic pictures, household matters, wonders of nature, and many things which we have not room to mention. Ballou's Magazine is only $1.50 per annum. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St. Boston. Wagons! Wagons!

I desire to call the attention of the public to the fact that I will have ready for the spring trade fifteen wagons comprising all sizes, and consequently all prices. All my work is warranted in every respect. I respectfully ask an inspection of my stock. Come early. CHAS. RAISIG. —Something that interests every person can be purchased at the store of L. Fulton, Tionesta, Pa. A water proof oil is used upon belts and also for harness, and for shoes and boots. It will preserve leather and keep it from cracking; is also excellent for rubber ware; applicable to the finest shoe and coarsest boot. Can be bought only at L. Fulton's Store. —Diaries for 1884 at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co. —Aker's Blood Elixir guaranteed; will cure all kinds of blood poisoning inherited or contracted. S. J. D. by G. W. Bovard. —Are you miserable through indigestion, sour stomach, or constipation? Aker's dyspepsia tablets we guarantee will relieve you. Sold by G. W. Bovard.

Oil Notes. Yesterday's reports from the oil fields are about as follows: Scouts report that the McKinney well was drilled one hour and then started off at the rate of fifteen hundred barrels. The Porcupine Oil Company is drilling no more wells at present. There is a rig up for No. 16, located on high rocks above the Minister but it is impossible to do anything at it at present, owing to there being no water on the hill, and no means of getting it there except by the pump. Melvin Walker, Shannon & Co.'s No. 30 is due this week on the Cooper. It is not an important well. Their No. 29 is making about 75 barrels. Balltown Nos. 17 and 18, are still shut down on top of the sand, and there is no telling when they will be opened. The scouts report the production of the Cooper tract on Friday, as 2,904 barrels from 152 wells. The Balltown production at the same time was 3,307 barrels from 63 wells. The two tracts are maintaining a good production, considering the condition of the weather. A gentleman connected with one of the Cooper producing firms, says that four wells of one company have produced 131,000 barrels and only one of the wells is a year old. Grandin No. 19 will no doubt be brought in next Saturday forenoon. So says one of the principle owners. Neiltown Notes. Our town has met with a sad loss in the death Mr. McAllister, brother-in-law of A. A. Hopkins, who, after a short severe illness, died on Sunday, Jan. 20. Mr. McAllister had not been in good health for a long time past. His sudden death was altogether unlooked for. He had many good qualities. He leaves a wife and daughter to whom in their sad bereavement neighbors and friends extend their sympathy. Mr. McAllister was a mason and a member of the G. A. R. Mrs. Carr who lives near Neiltown, and whose daughter Fanny has so long been ill, is herself lying ill. Miss Emma Black of Titusville is visiting friends here. Mr. Tanner's saw mill is in operation. Oliver Amshury is at home. Tom MaChesney is up in oil dom clerking in a store. John Wiles horse seems to be determined to go back on him. It will be quite a loss to John. Our schools are getting along nicely. The very bad weather hurts the attendance considerably. The teachers of this township will meet next Saturday at Stewart's Run to hold a Local Institute. There will be an educational meeting in the evening. A Local Institute was called at Whig Hill for Saturday Jan. 26. Owing to the extremely bad weather only a few of the teachers met. In the evening an educational meeting was held in the school house. The house was filled, and the meeting passed off very nicely. The programme consisted of Essays, class drills, and an address by the Supt. One point strongly urged was that parents ought to visit the schools. A Local will be held at East Hickory Feb. 14 and 15. Belle McClintock, of Meadville will sing on the evening of the 15th. Jan. 29, 1884. TRAMP.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer that enable us to club that magazine with the Forest Republican at the low price of $1.75 per year, a trifle over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. This is beyond question the first time that a reliable agricultural paper has been offered at so cheap a price, and we trust all our subscribers will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity of securing a first class agricultural magazine. The American Farmer is beyond doubt worth three times the price, at which we place it. Try it. It is a monthly publication. A Dangerous Counterfeit. There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties, knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle warranted. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & Co., Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York, wholesale agents.
