—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.
—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening, at 7:30.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 12:30 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Davey Hilands is down from Balltown on a short visit.

—Mr. John Sliney, of Corry, was shaking hands with Tionesta friends yesterday.

—Mr. D. W. Agnew has moved to the Mark Noble farm at the other end of the creek bridge. Dan will farm the place this summer.

—Our Official directory will be found corrected this week in accordance with the new regime. Bruce Crawford is Burgess of Tionesta, and John D. Patton is Congressman.

—Harvey Connelly of Stewarts Run now dances a bouncing boy on his knee. The young gentleman arrived last Thursday morning and "Doc." is the happiest man in the township.

—Miss Helen Corzwell, who has been visiting with her cousins Misses Magie and Artie Robinson, for the past month, returned to her home in Stoneboro, Pa., yesterday.

—Mutton's going to be cheap if the present rate of increase keeps up on Wm. Heath's farm, Dutch Hill; one day last week one of his ewes gave birth to three lambs, all doing well.

—George Smith has purchased the billiard tables and material in the Proper building, of Frank Walker, and is now "master of ceremonies" there. George will endeavor at all times to keep his tables in good shape, have good lights, and see that good order prevails.

—Treasurer Smearbaugh advertises his land sales this week which crowd out much of our local and general news. But as a review of the tracts to be sold will be quite interesting to the majority of our readers the suffering from a lack of other matter will not be so great.

—The Oil City Blizzard is not quite so large as it was before the fire, but it's brighter, newer and "easier" than ever, and soon as their new press arrives it will swell up to its former proportions. It's the kind of a blizzard we can enjoy at all seasons of the year, and we hope it will always stay with us.

—By a glance at the announcement column it will be observed that Dr. Burkett, of Clarington, has announced for Assembly; Curtis M. Shawkey, of Tionesta, for Prothonotary, Geo. W. Osgood, of Kingsley, J. R. Chadwick of Tionesta for County Commissioner.

—Mr. Brennan has moved his household goods into a couple of the rooms of his house, now occupied by C. M. Shawkey, in the north ward, and will commence house keeping there as soon as Mr. Shawkey gets into his new house, which will be about May first.

—A Fryburg correspondent of the Clarion Republican says that John Seigel, while engage in off-bearing on Toby's mill, on Tionesta creek, had his right hand caught in the circular saw, which cut the thumb and little finger off at the first joint, and the ring finger at the second joint, but the bone being shattered had to be amputated at the third joint, the remaining hand escaped untouched with the exception of a slight flesh wound in the palm of the hand. The thumb on the left hand received a severe gash.

—Two years ago Mr. Herman Blum, of Dutch Hill, sustained an injury by having a wagon pass over his body. He partially recovered but never felt as sound as before the injury, and of late has experienced considerable pain in the region of the spine. Last Monday he departed for Buffalo to receive treatment, which we sincerely hope will restore him to his former good health.

—Dr. H. K. Green, graduate of the oldest college of Dental Surgery in the world, will be at the Lawrence House parlor on Tuesday, March 18, and would be pleased to see you all. All work in the dental line executed with taste, and warranted to please as well as last. A specialty made of gold filling. Nothing in the line of dentistry but what you can now get done in Tionesta. Call and see me; my prices are moderate. It —Considerable heavy thunder yesterday morning followed by a drenching rain has swollen the small streams herabouts and the chances at this writing are more than even for a good-sized flood. There is considerable lumber in the mouth of the creek which will need close watching to keep it there. P. S.—Since the above was in type the ice has gone out of the creek and with it several creek rafts. Root & Watson lost four rafts of boards, and Dale and Lawrence lost one raft of timber containing about 4000 cubic feet. Some of this stuff may be picked up, but the chances are most of it will be a dead loss to the owners.

—Some time last July Alonzo Andrews, whose parents live in Hickory township, sustained a fracture of the right arm above the elbow. The injury was attended by a physician of Tidioute, but never got entirely well and gave the young man a good deal of trouble up to a few weeks ago, when it became so bad that he went to Cleveland to have it operated upon. The physicians there discovered that the bones had never knit, and for several inches were entirely dead. They performed the difficult operation of taking part of the bone out with a view of saving the arm, but informed the folks at home that the arm would undoubtedly have to be amputated. Later, word was sent that the amputation would be performed on the 6th inst. and accordingly Mr. Andrews, accompanied by Mr. L. Keister of Hickory, went on to witness the operation. Mr. A. returned on Saturday last and reported the operation quite well under the circumstances. The arm was taken off close to the shoulder. The case is a distressing one indeed, as the young man is but 21 or 22 years of age and will hereafter be compelled to go through life minus his right arm. Where the blame lies in this matter we are not informed, but that there was carelessness, negligence or ignorance somewhere is evident.

James D. Kelly, Deceased.

The following kind tribute to the memory of Mr. James D. Kelly, whose death we briefly mentioned last week, comes from an old friend of the family.

PITTSBURGH, March 7, 1884.
J. E. WEAVER, Esq.

Dear Sir:—In your issue of March 5th you err in the name of James D. Kelly, the father of your estimable townsman and my steadfast friend from childhood, A. B. Kelly. Mr. James D. Kelly was the eldest of five brothers, three of whom are sleeping the sleep of the grave. There were two sisters, both of whom are still alive. We have known intimately and respected highly, all the members of this family for thirty-five years, and while we looked on the peaceful countenance of a departed friend we could not help recalling the beautiful sentiment: "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." Mr. Kelly was 78 years of age. We are pleased to hear of your warm regards for Mr. A. B. Kelly. Respectfully yours, H. M. BOLE.

—Mess. Youths', Boys and Child's Clothing just received for Spring and Summer wear. Quality, styles and make-up of the very best. We will compare goods and prices with any. Call and see our new stock. Wm. SMEARBAUGH & Co. 4t

WANTED!

Fresh Roll Butter, Eggs, Onions, and Cabbage. Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.

OIL NOTES.

—Oil Market closed last night at $1.01 1/2. Opened this morning at 1.01 1/2.

—Graudin and Kelly's No. 21, in the lead of all others developments at Balltown, was finished during the week and started off at about an 800-barrel rate, thus showing that the limit to that territory has not yet been reached.

—McCalmont No. 12 made 112 barrels in seventeen hours.

—McCalmont eight is showing for twenty-five barrels and McCalmont five for one hundred barrels.

—Henry's Mills production is little over three thousand.

—McCalmont eight, McKinney four and Cochran are to be shut to-day.

—The Shannon well, near Russell's mills, is down and dry, so we are informed on good authority.

Barnett Notes.

—Dr. Burkett has been quite busy lately. The Dr. has a large and growing practice.
—Among the sick are J. J. Reynolds and Leonard Fitzgerald both of whom have been having a serious time but are now improving. There seems to be considerable sickness, most of it originating from bad colds.

—Our United Brethren will have services regularly every two weeks at Pleasant Grove, and we presume at the other appointments on this charge as well.

—Rev. Frampton has been under the weather for some time past.

—We had the pleasure of a visit with J. J. Parsons of Jenks. We found him laid up—(something he seldom is)—with a bad cold. Mr. Parsons has been as solid service in his country's defence as any of the veterans in the county.

—W. H. McClane of Greenwood will teach a writing class of two weeks at the Greenwood at the close of his school. Mr. McClane is a graduate of Eastman Business College, including Ornamental Penmanship. Why shouldn't each of our local districts support a two week's term of writing school?

—A lot of rafts owned by Mr. Powell, of Raughts, and run out of the Clarion this winter, were torn loose from their moorings at Millers Eddy by the flush ice and carried away. The Heplinger boys, who were out to thresh the oats raised by them last season on the place purchased from Sammy Cussins near Greenwood, think that Forest Co. land is equal to the Jefferson Co. soil in its agricultural aspect.

—Mr. William Rarie is a master of the gun-smith art. No one would think there was such a demand for "weepins o' death" in this section as there is. Mr. Rarie is kept so busy in his shop from early fall until midwinter that he finds but little time for sighting the iron he has wrought into "a thing of beauty and a joy forever" to the heart of the hunter. TRAMP.

March 10, 1884.

Byrom's Mills.

—Mr. W. H. Frost, Postmaster of Pigeon P. O. Pa., and others of this neighborhood are about to put down two wells on or near Wolf Run. The lumber is about all on the ground. The carpenters came Tuesday a. m. They will start at once. These wells are to be put down within sixty days. We expect a great boom and a lively settling up of our little town.

—Mr. F. M. Reck, formerly of Tionesta, has his new saw mill running in good shape, and is ready to fill all orders in a good workman like manner.

—A birthday every four year:—On the evening of Feb. 29 quite a number of the friends of Willie P. Haddon, of Averas, near Byrom's Station, were gathered at the residence of his folks for the purpose of celebrating the 3d anniversary of his birth. The early part of the evening was spent in playing games, &c., after which a delicious supper was served by the parents of the young gentleman. Our friend was the recipient of some handsome presents; and after passing a very pleasant evening, the young folks departed for their homes, all well satisfied.

—Our hero Oliver Boyd, as stated in a recent issue has unwisely withdrawn from his comfortable situation with Mr. Frank Nash. The mill of the former has shut down for a few days.

—We are sorry to inform the public that Mr. John Bailey, the hefty church vocalist of Forest City near Byrom's job, suddenly disappeared. The Forest City Lyceum met last Saturday evening, and after partly going through the program they turned it into a dance. They all had a good time dancing, and all went home happy. BACKWOODSMAN. March 8, 1884.

Lineville Lines.

—Sleighting has returned but it is rather thin.

—The Kahl boys have commenced drilling a well near this place. It will be drilled to a depth of 2000 feet.

—Miss Nettie Cary and Miss Stewart are visiting with Dr. Cary.

—H. L. Miller has purchased the skunk skins from the Springer pedagogue. He proposes to start a tannery, in connection with his coloring establishment.

—Mr. Abraham Dolby, a resident of Lineville suddenly died on the 2d inst., after an illness of only two days.

—The literary society of this place is in a flourishing condition with S. E. Hanlan as president and H. L. Miller fiddler.

—Messrs. Phil. Emert and "Hank" Whittekin were among us a few days ago. May their visits be frequent is the wish of at least two of—well no matter what gender.

—Report says that David Ebinger will require the services of about twenty boys armed with cow bells, muskets, horse fiddles, etc., in the near future.

—Protracted meeting is still in progress. H. Kapp, one of our merchants, will leave Lineville about April 1st, and go to Centerville, Venango Co. Mr. William Swab will then start a store in Mr. Kapp's place.

—Mr. John Gray met with an accident last Monday. His team ran away and the sled ran over his body. But he is again able to be around.

—Harve Long is no slouch on biographical essays when foreign aid flows in so freely.

—Several of our young men and ladies intend having their knowledge boxes tested in Forest Co. this spring. They are all worthy ones and we hope success will be theirs.

—Some one told me one time that brevity is a virtue, so adieu. March 8, 1884. LANK.

School Reports.

—Report of Church Hill school for month and term ending March 2, 1884; No. enrolled during month 10, term 16; average attendance for term 8; per cent of attendance 70. Samuel and Laura Church were present every day during last month. Laura Church, Hamilton Foreman, Orion Shaffer and Kate Andrews deserve special mention for progress; Samuel Church for attendance during term.
