MANY FRIENDS.

PAYNE thinks Tilden the greatest patriot hf his times, while Tilden thinks Payne is too old to be President. Payne, considering Tilden's sneer, is as humble as Uriah Heep.

HARMONIZING the Democratic party at this time seems to depend upon the ability of the Watterson-Morrison wing to kick Randall and his small following out of the party.

IT is a significant fact that Chairman Cooper, the hopeful Republican campaigner of this State, has pronounced for the nomination of Blaine. He says: "Blaine can best succeed against the accidents that are incident to every canvass, because he is the one of all that are named who can best be elected without New York." Without that State, he counts 203 electoral votes as sure for Blaine. He leaves New Jersey out of his count, but believes that in a tariff battle Blaine is certain also of that State. The electoral vote this year is 401, making 201 a majority.

—Emma C. Johnson, teacher of Jamieson School makes the following report for month ending March 14, 1884: No. enrolled males 5, females 8; average attendance males 4, females 7; per cent. of attendance males 94, females 86. Those who have been present every day during month are, Willie Johnson, Charlie Monson, Warner Eckberg, Jennie Eckberg, Florence and Ida Jamieson and Gussie and Hannah Johnson.
