MANY FRIENDS.

That Same Situation.

An attempt-(we beg pardon of our readers for calling it by so respectable a name)-is made by both Greenback party and the Democratic the fusion organs, the Democrat-Com. party is very small!" Honest and monwealth, to answer the points of conscientious Greenbackers, is this our article last week. The former true? has it come to that pass when wheet says in substance, "just you let there is little difference between those us alone; we've got this thing all fixed, and are going to do it up brown; their way we doubt not they would we speak for the Greenback party as have it so; but do the few ringsters well as for the Democratic, and here in Tionesto speak for the entire up a corrupt ring I could vote. A would like to have a say so for the party? We guess not. Republican party; we want to be left alone in this matter of fixing things ocrats and Greenbackers will do their have you stir the matter up so much." While the mighty boss of the Com-"you're another!" This is the subbrought forth after locking themselves up in a room together for a day and a night. The Democrat, in trying to claim the credit for tha present prosperous condition of our county, published a lot of figures proving exactly what we claimed; that is, that under Republican management the affairs of our county had been care- true light. Well, if we had two pafully and judiciously handled, thus pers to work with, and divide our giving the lie to the bombastic cry matter accordingly it would not look of mis-management. And the Com- same. Run the two articles of the monwealth very naturally "seconds Democrat and Commonwealth together the motion;" endorses Democracy and they'd occupy more space than body and breeches. But this is not we have had at any one time. And iff of '42," and afterwards the vote surprising, as it never had anything how nicely they do agree.

but a Democratic editor, any way. The Democrat has not the decency to apologize for the gross insult offered the Greenback party by its recent assault on the associate judges, but intimates that we are welcome to publish all such. Well, we have lots more in store which are likely to make very entertaining fusion reading matter for these bosses as the campaign progresses.

Both sheets deny, point blank, any violation of their rules and system of mominations. Let us see: In the Dem-

9. No candidates shall be eligable to a nomination for any office unless notice of his candidacy has been published in at least three issues of the Democratic papers of the county, immediately before the holding of the primaries

16. The County Committee shall have power to alter or amend these rules as occasion may require by giving notice in two issues of the Democrat papers in the county immediately before the meeting of the Committee at which said amendments are to be made.

And from the Greenback rules we quote as follows: 1st. The candidates for the several offices shall have their names announced in one or more of the county papers at least two weeks previous to the primary meetings, stating the office, and subject to the action of the party at the said primary meeting.

8th, The Return Judges may at any time change the mode and manner of selecting candidates as they may be instructed by the people at their primary meetings, due notice being given by the County Committee.

Now we leave it to any honest person to decide who is making the false representations? Do either of the above quotations need any plainer interpretation? Have we not read in both of those sheets that "no aunouncements will be published," and do not their rules say candidates must be announced? Do not both sets of rules prescribe, as plainly as words can, the manner in which they shall be changed? Has the proper manner been resorted to in order to make nominations as the bossess have planned? And yet, we are accused of mis-representation when we state that they have departed from their rules in order to carry out a system of bossism that could not well be accomplised in any other way but by a direct and flagrant violation of the rules. We hurl these facts into the teeth of these sheets and ask them to crawl out of their unenviable predicament if they can. It is customary to publish the party rules a week or two before the primaries take place. Will these sheets do it this year as they have formerly; dare they be honest enough to do it? We want every body to wait and see. The Democrats of this county at one time used the delegate system. Why did principles? system? Simply because they could not get a fair expression of the party by the former, as they admitted themdelegate system now? Why simply to carry out their scheme, or "business transaction," as is patent to every | cient.

honest voter. The Commoawealth is just now regaling its readers with Democratic communications, but will not allow a true Greenbacker to have a hearing through its columns. Last week it prints, and thereby indorses, a letter from a "simon pure Democrat," which contains the startling announcement that "the difference between the two parties? If the ringsters have

The Democrat pipes out, "The Demand it makes us terrible uneasy to own thinking and voting." That's a fact, young fellow; you hit the bulls eye that time, and they'll not allow monwealth gets down and simply says, themselves to be doned by the little being a comparative stranger in your band of political tricksters, here in county, that I do not understand its stance of what the two great heads Tionests, who have been a constant politics. I am willing and anxious to ties for years. You bet they'll do their own thinking, and it will be the worse for the ringsters who have, in their minds, censummated the little "business transaction" when they come to do their voting. The fusion organs complain because we occupy so much space in showing up their schemes in their so large; but it would amount to the compare them with the cries by which

The Commonwealth tries the Smothering Process.

Below we print a letter from a straight-out, true Greenbacker. The writer first sent it to the Commonwealth and asked to be heard, but as the bosses who are manipulating that concern now, have thrown principles to the dogs, and can find room only for Democratic effusions, they attempt to smother this honest, open letter, to which the writer has the manliness to attach his signature. Time was when the Commonwealth invited the broadest discussion of politics through its columns, but it has "entered into a business transaction" now, and not even the conscientious members of its own party can have a hearing. What has the editor to say for his cowardly attempt to stifle the voice of his party? Read the letter and see how squarely the writer hits the nail on the head, and bow he echoes the sentiment of scores of honest, consistent Grebackers who don't want to see their party commit political suicide. Here it is :-

Balltown, Pa., Meh. 31, 1884. EDITOR COMMONWEALTH :-

Dear Sir :- In your issue of 27th, you say that a coalition between the Democrat and Greenback parties had been arranged upon a fair division of officers. This arrangement appears to bave been made by the county committee without a dissenting voice. You give us their excuse for the partnership "That there is now in existence in the county a ring manipulated by republicans by which the politics of the county are controlled, and that it is to break up this ring that they advocate a co-operation of the two parties." The arrangement as stated is for the Democrats to choose a person for Assembly and three other county officers. The Greenbackers are to have Prothonotary, Sheriff and three other minor officers. Mr. Editor, why did we Greenbackers leave the Democratic and Republican parties? Because both, parties advocated measnres we could not conscientiously support. If we wish to carry out or ic Assemblyman) we are offered an all in favor of our adopting it. antidote in the shape of a Prothonotaselves. Why have the self-appointed ry and a Sheriff. In what way can bosses of both parties adopted the a Prothonotary and Sheriff carry out our principles in their official capacity. Your antidote is entirely insuffi-

I for one cannot believe that the whole County Committee sanctioned any such an arrangement. If there was such a ring as you refer to, and the parties that voted unanimously for the combination had been honest in their desire to break up said ring, they would have first tried to get the democratic party to vote the greenback ticket to break it up, failing in which they should have appounced that the Greenback party would make no nominations at all, and ask all opposed to! ring rule to join them in supporting the Democratic county ticket and thereby carry out ore of our principles, "opposition to rings." A straight Democratic ticket, to break combination of the Greenback with either party for spoils, Never !

In this I believe a majority of the Greenback voters will join with me, whether they came from Republican or Democratic sources. It is possible, drawback to the success of their par learn. I would ask you to please publish this and ask a free expression from other members of our party. Believing, if this arrangement is carried out, it will be the ruination of the greenback party.

Respectfully, E. S. HOYT.

THE Republican party is the party of Protection, and the Free-traders and the Free-trade newspapers recognize the fact by preferring to drop the SMEARBAUGH subject during the presidential campaign is order to get a platform, as the New York Times says, "upon which just 4,500,000 Republicans can stand comfortably and in harmony." > THE Democratic State Convention at Allentown last week was one of the most perfect illustrations of a deliberative body that has ever come off in this country, except that the deliberation came off before the convention met. Not in one single instance was the slated action announced from six days to three weeks in advance deviated from. Even to the tariff plank in the platform, was it accepted in toto. It is worked with the peculiar deliberation that marks the distinguished ability of its author in the art of being all things to all men There is little doubt but that should the Democratic party win on such a platform, Carlisle, Watterson and Morrison could reach their views, of "revenue reform," without laying themselves open to the charge of violating its spirit. The point upon which the real divergence among the people will arise, will be as to what constitutes the tariff that will do what is required. The people will be apt to gather the idea of the Democrats on that point from the speeches of the great revenue reform lights of the party, and the direction of its press, and will have none of it. On the whole it was the traditional Democratic convention; its work cut out ahead; its utterances were insincere and time serving; its deliberation, the registering of the decrees of its bosses, and fated to its traditional defeat.
