—Oil market closed yesterday 76 1/2. Opening this morning at 76 1/2.

—A stone culvert is being built over Council Run on Vine St.

—The young folks of town danced at Partridge Hall last Friday evening.

—Fourth of July will be the next grand holiday. Will Tionesta celebrate?

—Mrs. W. E. Lathy, of Newton, Kansas, arrived in town yesterday afternoon.

—Republican Primary Election next Saturday afternoon. Turn out, Republicans.

—Mrs. Will Klinefister is paying friends and relatives at Evansburg, Crawford county, a visit.

—John T. Carson is moving his store goods into the room occupied by his brother Angus as a jewelry store.

—That dread disease, diphtheria, is reported to be quite prevalent in the vicinity of Newmauville, Clarion county.

—Charlie Davis, of the Warren Mail, came down and decorated with his Tionesta chums, remaining over Sunday.

—Mr. Kelly received a telegram announcing the death, this morning, of Selden T. May, of Norristown. Particulars next week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eli Holeman departed for Vineland, N. J., yesterday, expecting to remain a couple of weeks with friends and relatives, that being Mrs. H.'s former home.

—Beware of the young man who is taking subscriptions for a fashion journal, which, after being paid for fails to come. He has been in Mercer, and he may come to Forest.

—Harry Mabie has accepted a position as clerk at the National Hotel, Oil City. Harry is looking fine, and will always be pleased to meet his many friends from this section.

—Mr. Eagles' new building, to be occupied by Messrs. Hoyt & Demick as a confectionery store, bakery, &c., is nearing completion. It will present a handsome appearance when finished.

—The playing of the Hickory Cornet band on Memorial Day was an agreeable surprise to our citizens, who didn't suppose the boys had become so proficient in the short time they had been practicing.

—Dr. Coburn lost a silk handkerchief somewhere between this place and C. A. Hill's farm up the river, last Monday. Will the finder please return it to him and be suitably rewarded for his trouble?

—Memorial ceremonies were more elaborate and general on Friday last than on any previous year, according to reports. The beautiful custom is growing more popular each year, and it is pleasant to know it is so.

—Republicans, let nothing interfere with your attendance at the Primaries next Saturday. A full and free ballot is what we want. Come out and choose your candidates for the fall. Lots of good material to select from.

—Quite a large gathering of Tionesta's young people assisted Miss Hattie Sanner in celebrating her 17th birthday on Monday evening last. Many handsome presents were left as mementos of the occasion, and all who attended had a pleasant time.

—Treasurer Smearbaugh will commence the sale of lands for arrearages of taxes next Monday, according to act of assembly, etc. Those desiring to purchase a good piece of land may be able to find something to their liking in the list.

—Ed. Witheral, than whom there is no better, piloted two of Mr. Bailey's immense barges down past here last week for Pittsburgh. The building of these barges must be a source of considerable revenue to our neighboring town of Hickory.

—Armstrong county Republicans held their primaries last week and placed the following ticket in the field: Congress, G. S. Crosby; State Senate, Mr. Meredith; Assembly, Messrs. Dougherty and Glenn; Commissioners, Messrs. Alward and Bailly; Prothonotary A. H. Stitt; Treasurer, Mr. Fiscus.

—The Tionesta Oil Co's well on Council Run, this place, seems to hang fire for some reason or other. The rig is up and ready for the machinery, but why it don't "go on" we are not able to say. A rig is also about completed on Hunter's run, half a mile from the mouth. Both these ventures are owned principally by Tionesta parties.

—Several of the young ladies and gentlemen who went to President yesterday, wandered into an old graveyard there and discovered a headstone with this legend: "Wm. W. Lemon, Co. D. 83 Reg't P. V., died June 15, 1865." The ladies made a wreath and decorated the grave, and the gentlemen fired three volleys with their revolvers over it.—Derrick.

—Severe frosts visited this section of country Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week, destroying nearly if not quite, all the fruit, badly damaging the hay crop, and no doubt, where it was far enough along, the wheat and rye sustained some damage. Garden truck was badly shook up, scarcely anything but lettuce and little onions surviving the attack.

—Chas. Raieig sold two new wagons last week. He still has a number left, all sizes, which he offers at the usual low price. Excellence of material, superior workmanship and very easy running, are the qualities Charlie guarantees to his customers. He also has the agency for a superior mowing machine, and when the price, $65, is considered it would seem that farmers could scarcely afford to cut their grass by hand.

—The Oil City Blizzard past its second year last week. For a two-year-old it is one of the sturdiest little giants that circulates in these parts; always full of vim, spice and fight, it is an ever welcome guest to its many readers, who never fail to find it bristling all over with the freshest and best news. May the Blizzard always blow cool in the summer and warm in the winter.

—That veteran caterer W. H. Roch of Oil City, has again got back to his old love, the hotel business, and can now be found always ready and pleased to receive his old friends and former customers, at the Central House, located a few steps from the union depot. Mr. Roch's place has just been refitted and is brand new from top to bottom, and every thing's as neat as a pin. Give him a call when in Oil City.

—People sometimes lose their noses by disease or in fights, and some have lost them in war. For noseless women the most appropriate noses are made of wax, and the best ones cost $175, though a fine one can be got for $75. A nose of papier mache may be bought for $5. Noses made of this material are enameled and are deceptive, and for a poor man they answer all the purposes that are required.—Ex.

—There is one vacancy on the State beneficiary list of the Pennsylvania Institution for Feeble Minded Children that may be filled at once by any suitable applicant from Forest county. The conditions of admission are as follows: 1st—The candidate should be a feeble-minded child of improvable grade. 2d—Low conditions of Idiocy are not received on the beneficiary fund. 3d—Epilepsy and paralysis prevent admission. 4th—Proper proof must be received, that the child is indigent and entitled to beneficiary relief. For descriptive blanks and other information, apply to, Isaac N. Kerlin, M. D., Elwyn, Del. Co., Pa.

—Acker's dyspepsia tablets never fail. Sold by G. W. Boyard.

—Nathan Zahniser met with an accident at his father's saw mill at Tubbs Run yesterday afternoon, which may yet prove serious if not fatal. The off-bearer on the mill was pulling a piece of slab about four feet long away from the circular saw, when it was caught by the saw, thrown to the ceiling of the mill, then came down on top of young Zahniser's head. Dr. Morrow was summoned and believes the skull to be fractured, and considers the wound a dangerous one. At last accounts the unfortunate man was resting easily. He is about 22 years of age and a son of Capt. Zahniser, who lives near Nielltown.

—It is with deep regret, we chronicle the death of Mary Jane Patton, wife of Alex E. Patton Esq., which occurred in Curweville, May 27, 1884. Mr. Patton has the sympathy of many friends here in his sad bereavement. Her disease was Bronchitis; and although all was done that loving care could prompt, yet she rapidly sank under the fatal grasp of her malady, —the end no doubt hastened by her grief over the loss of her little daughter Kate, who died only a few short months ago. In the midst of her final sufferings, she said: "I want to go home to God." She leaves a husband and a bright little boy to mourn her loss; while the circle in which she moved has lost one of its brightest attractions, and her church one of its most beloved and useful members.

—We were favored last week with numerous visits from friends living in different parts of our county and of course their presence in our sanctuary was very gratifying to us and their calls were duly appreciated. Our friend and fellow sportsman Mr. R. M. Slagle of East Hickory, was among the number who remembered the printer and made us a welcome visit. Robert, we understand, has been stocking the thriving steam saw mill of John W. Polen, on E. Hickory creek, half a mile above Stowtown, for the past year, in connection with a partner by the name of Hill. These gentlemen thoroughly understand their business and by hard work and close figuring they have been very successful. Mr. Slagle is not only a stirring business man but a keen sportsman, a capital shot with either shot gun or rifle, and was unto the deer that allows Bob to get a glimpse of its hide, for he never misses bringing one down if he draws the trigger.

CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention is now in session at Chicago, the preliminary work was begun and gone through with yesterday, but no ballots will be taken until to-day, and it is doubtful whether a ballot will be reached before to-morrow, as the candidates must be placed in nomination, and more or less speech making indulged in. The two great candidates before the convention are Blaine and Arthur, while the less prominent ones are, Edmonds, Logan and Sherman, likewise Licola, Postmaster General Gresham, Senator Ben Harrison, the latter three being looked upon as probable dark horses. At present writing Lincoln and Gresham seem to have the inside track in the dark horse race. Blaine's friends claim anywhere from 336 to 350 votes for him on first ballot, while the Arthur men claim only a trifle less than that number for their candidate on first ballot. There are 820 votes in convention and 411 are necessary to a choice, so that no candidate can be expected to make the nomination until several ballots have been taken and a break occurs. There are no animosities like there were four or eight years ago, and whoever the candidate is he will receive the hearty support of all sides. Blaine's chances are considered better now than four years ago, as many who opposed him bitterly then are either luke warm or very friendly toward him now. At all events next week we can name the next President of the United States.

LATEST—On the assembling of the convention yesterday at noon Hon. John R. Lynch, of Mississippi, was honored with temporary chairmanship. Mr. Lynch is a colored man. The committee on permanent organization elected J. B. Henderson of Missouri for permanent chairman. At the hour of going to press nothing had occurred which would indicate the strength of any one candidate. A ballot will probably be reached to-day.

Memorial day 1884 will long be remembered in Tionesta and the citizens of Forest county. All stores and places of business except hotels closed from 10 to 1 o'clock. The turnout of the citizens of the surrounding country was good and all seemed to enter into the spirit of the occasion. The Post and I. O. F. met at the Hall according to programme, and marched from the Hall at 11 sharp down Elm street under the escort of the Post Martial Band, thence back up the street to the Presbyterian Church in front of which the children fell in and marched following the Hickory Cornet Band, in advance of the Post. The marching by the veterans was excellent. The committee on flowers for the day did their whole duty, and presented the comrades with beautiful flowers worked into wreaths, crosses and other appropriate symbols, as the Post marched through their ranks at the south gate of Riverside Cemetery. Arriving at the cemetery the order of exercises announced in the programme was carried out to the letter in excellent style, interspersed, here and there, by beautiful odes and anthems by the choir, and in their places appropriate dirges by the bands. All performed their parts well. After the ceremony of decoration the martial band sounded "assembly call," when the Roll of the honored dead was called, who lie in the cemetery at Tionesta, consisting of the following names: Capt. Geo. Stow, James Thompson, Phillip Walters, Peter O. Conner, Leut. O. W. Staden, Maj. Mulkins and D. McClintock. The choir then rendered a beautiful and appropriate ode, deserving especial attention, entitled, "The Roll-Call Above."

The Commander then introduced the Rev. W. L. Riley, orator of the day, who delivered one of the most eloquent, impressive and appropriate addresses that was ever made in the county. He was listened to with unabated attention from the first to the last, and was in full sympathy with his subject; it abounded with touching pathos, beautiful metaphors, affecting incident, carrying us back in our memories to our departed comrades who sleep in the bosom of the earth. This address will long be remembered as a memorable feature of the day. After which the Post, Odd Fellows, and people then marched back to the music of the two bands, down Elm and Helen streets to William street, in front of the grave of Leut. John Range, which was duly decorated by Chaplain Rhodes, assisted by a detail of six comrades in the presence of all the assembly. Leut. Range was a soldier of Washington's Army in the Revolutionary war, and original settler of Tionesta; many of his descendants were in the assembly—the Hunters, Siggins, Balls, Shrivvers, Ranges, &c. After which all marched to Hasletts corners, where resolutions were passed, the Post tendering a vote of thanks to W. L. Riley, orator of the day, the Hickory Cornet Band, the Post band, the choir and singers, the Odd Fellows, the children and the people, who all contributed to the successful observance of the day. The Hickory Cornet Band did especially well for a new band taking their first trip from home, playing more like old musicians than late beginners. Of the Post there were 51 in line during the day—and the Odd Fellows, in their new and bright regalia, made an impressive and beautiful appearance. S. D. I.
