LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening, at 7:30.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 12:30 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Frank Reck, of Jenks was in town yesterday, looking and feeling fine.

—Get your Seed Buckwheat at H. W. Lebeur's Nebraska Mill.

—Judge Cook and Sam W. Calvin Esq., of Cooksburg, stopped in town Monday night.

—Mrs. Sue Sharp has returned from her rather extended visit to Philadelphia friends.

—The boss slate slid through solid yesterday. The Delegate system is a daisy—for them that's in the ring.

—Miss Emma Neely left this morning for a visit with friends at Balltown, Forest county.—Franklin News.

—Mrs. Col. Thomas, who attended the funeral of her brother, Mr. Selden T. May, at Norristown, Pa., has returned home.

—Buckwheat! Buckwheat!! One hundred bushels choice seed buckwheat for sale at H. W. Lebeur's, Nebraska, Pa.

—Mrs. R. Irwin went this afternoon to Tionesta, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Irwin for a few days.—Franklin News.

—John C. Hoovler had his left ankle badly sprained one day recently, by having a barrel of flour roll over it while driving home.

—Master Harold Sharp is becoming quite an expert at bicycle riding, and glides along as gracefully as an old hand at the business.

—The Union Temperance League has engaged Will J. McConnell to speak in the Court House, Friday evening, 27th inst. Admission free.

—The boys are arranging for a game of base ball here next Saturday with a Pleasantville nine. We'd advise our boys to look out that they don't get left.

—"You that have built up and maintained the Democratic party in Forest county must stand back and let new-comers have a chance," say the slate makers.

—Efforts are making for a grand blow-out here on the Fourth of July. Subscription papers are in circulation and are receiving a good many contributions. Let it be a "rouser" or nothing.

—Mr. Samuel Clark has all arrangements made for the erection of a fine dwelling house on his lot immediately north of the old Universalist church. We believe a Youngville, Warren county, contractor has the job.

—Arthur and James Kelly are home from their school at Norristown, Pa., and will remain during the vacation, which extends to September. Arthur is one of the solid young men of our town, tipping the beam at about 180 pounds.

—The lumbermen along the Allegheny had quite a fine June flood last week, and considerable lumber was run up the river. Tionesta Creek didn't get hardly high enough, and although several rafts started none got out to the mouth.

—The first grand excursion of the season under the management of the B. N. Y. & P. R'y. will take place June 26th, but will not take in this section; it will run from Kinzua to Niagara Falls. We may look for one that will reach us before long.

—Judging from the manner in which the jumping-jack of the Democrat flopped and floundered around, and the contortions into which he worked himself last week, the Republican vote on the 7th must have proved a very severe "gut winder" to him.

—As nearly as can be ascertained the fusionists polled about 150 to 200 votes last Saturday. The Republicans polled 883, and it therefore leaves the fusionists a majority of over 700 to overcome. No use talking, bosses, the boys are not going to swallow your dose.

—The question of whether the directors shall build a five or an eight thousand dollar school house for Tionesta was decided by a very emphatic majority in favor of the $8,000 building last Saturday, the vote being 54 to 16. The matter of opening bids was deferred until next Monday evening.

—Mr. Dingman has just returned from Kentucky, where he went as a delegate to the S. S. Convention. While there he visited the great Mammoth Cave, and some wretch has been uncharitable enough to suggest that he will come out of a much smaller hole than that this fall after the election.

—The marriage feast of the Democratic and Greenback bosses was celebrated in the most approved style at the court house yesterday. The ceremonies were strictly private. The "trapper" of the Commonwealth and the "tool" of the Democrat figured conspicuously as "best men." And there's a row in the ranch already.

—Mr. John W. Mabin has received the agency for William Raiston Balch's history of the Republican Presidential nominees, Blaine and Logan, and will call on the citizens for their subscriptions forthwith. The work is gotten up in fine style throughout, and will make a handsome and valuable addition to any library.

—Baldwin's Railway Guide for June is perhaps the most complete number that has yet been issued, and will prove a welcome one to its many readers. A handsome railroad map is one of the principal features, and altogether this one copy of the Guide is worth almost the price of a year's subscription. Price ten cents per copy.

—"The Turkey and fine wines were reserved for the boys from Venango, Clarion, Warren and McKean counties," says the Democrat of last week, and we just now comprehend its meaning: The Democratic legislative "turkey" was reserved for a Clarion county gentleman, to the exclusion of old and honored citizens of Forest county. Isn't that it?

—Charles Swanson, while cutting timber on Jamieson run last Tuesday morning, had the bad luck to let his axe come in contact with the toes of his left foot, making an ugly wound, and necessitating the amputation of the last toe but one, which painful operation was performed by Dr. Morrow. Charles will be laid up for two or three weeks.

—Adj. Irwin is in receipt of the headstones ordered some time ago for some of the deceased soldiers buried in this county. They are as follows: J. L. Haddleson J. S. Range, James Thompson, Philip Walters all of Co. G. 83d P. V., and O. W. Staden, Serg't. Maj. 116 N. Y. Inf. These stones will be placed in position forthwith. They are handsomely carved and substantial.

—Sam. W. Bonner, at one time a popular young citizen of Tionesta, sends us a handsome plat of the new and rapidly growing town of Cerrillos, New Mexico, form which we learn that he is a part owner of the new lay-out. Sam is evidently bound to reach the top of the heap before he quits that country, and the sooner he "catches on" to the full extent of his ambition the happier his many friends here will be. Stick to it, "Bemus," our best wishes are with you.

—Miss Belle Lewis, teacher of Stewarts Run School, makes the following report for the month ending June 10: Enrolled, males 11, females 7; percent of attendance, males 91, females 87; those not absent one day during the month were: Bert Thompson, George Dawson, Ralph and Harry Zahniser, Nettie Thomson, Ethie Dane, Jessie Zahniser; those not absent more than one day were: Ronald Thomson and Charlie Zahniser.

—We chronicle this week, with a good deal of pleasure, the marriage of our young friend James R. Clark to Miss Bessie, daughter of John Thomson of Stewarts Run. Mr. Clark is one of Tionesta's model young men, and we are pleased to know that he has captured a prize in every way worthy of himself. We join their many friends in extending to the happy young pair the most cordial congratulations, and wish them a pleasant and prosperous journey down life's rugged pathway.

—Peterson's Magazine for July is even better than usual, and is especially remarkable for an illustrated article on "Longfellow and Westminster Abbey." The principle steel-engraving of the number, "I Care For Nobody," is a very charming one, illustrating a capital story by Frank Lee Benedict. Altogether, there is no lady's book published that can compare with "Peterson" in literary merit. The colored fashion-plates, the colored patterns, and the half-hundred other illustrations for new dresses, embroidery, etc., etc., are likewise unequalled. The price of this popular magazine is but Two Dollars a year. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

—G. W. Brown, of Youngville, Pa., Deputy Supreme President E. A. U. Assisted by J. B. Watson, of Clarion Union, No. 411, organized Marienville Union last Thursday evening with 48 applicants for charter and with the following named officers: Chancellor, J. B. Watson; Advocate, A. J. McCray; President, Dr. S. S. Towler; Vice-President, Lizzie Watson; Auxilliary, Mrs. A. H. Palmer; Secretary, Miss G. M. McClellan; Treasurer, D. E. White; Accountant, T. J. Reyner; Chaplain, A. K. Shippe; Warden, Henry Kimes; Sentinel, Mrs. D. D. White; Watchman, A. Whisner; Conductor, O. C. Christy; Ass't. Con. Kate Harner; Trustee, M. Mandeville; Ex. Physician, Dr. S. S. Towler; Rep. to grand union, Dr. S. S. Towler. Time of meeting, every Wednesday evening.

—The Agnew well on lot 3195, Balltown, is reported a minor affair, but we have it on good authority that it is a gusher of the first order. It is south of the Gartlan wells.

—It is said the Schooley lands, in the Balltown region, comprising about 2000 acres will shortly be put upon the market. It is the intention to give the territory a thorough test by cutting it up into 10 acre lots and leasing to all who wish to invest. This will open up a new field no doubt.

—The machinery for putting down the well on Council Run, in this place, has been placed on the ground and as soon as possible will be put in position. Drilling will commence the last of this week or the first of next. Grove, Hart & Co. are the contractors.

THE TICKET.

It is with pleasure we call the attention of readers to the Republican County Ticket at the head of our editorial column, and we know that the voters who took part in the election that placed that ticket in the field will take pleasure in briefly reviewing with us its merits at this time.

Of Hon. A. Cook, our nominee for Congress, we take pride in saying that he has been an upright, honest, and enterprising citizen of our county since its organization. That he is an energetic and successful lumberman, with good business and financial abilities, and has a large and extended acquaintanceship in our congressional district and particularly with the host of lumbermen of the Allegheny and Clarion rivers, as well as those of the Tionesta, Red Bank and Mahoning creeks. That he has immense tracts of timber lands, saw mills and farms situated in Forest, Clarion and Jefferson counties, and gives employment the year round to many of their citizens. That he is and has ever been an active member of the Republican party, and has willingly and gladly contributed both means, voice and labor to its success. That he is of a kind, generous and charitable disposition, and in fact is possessed of all those good qualities, which compels admiration and makes friends and biads them. That from the time he entered business he has made but few enemies, and his course so far has been such that his word is considered as good as his note, and his name is a synonym of honor and good faith. Such is the record of our candidate, and we boldly and unhesitatingly say, that if he should receive the Congressional nomination in our district, with the Democratic and Greenback support he will undoubtedly receive in Forest, Clarion and Jefferson counties, his election is a foregone conclusion, and no man will ever have occasion to excuse his course in the halls of Congress, for we affirm it will be in keeping with his past honorable and successful business career. We are of opinion that Forest county's candidate is in all honesty and fair dealing entitled to the nomination, and in case he receives same, will receive a handsome majority in the district.

For Assembly the Republicans have nominated that Republican war-horse, Mr. Peter Berry; that outspoken champion of Republicanism whose integrity and honor can be relied on at all times, and if elected whose voice and influence will always be found on the people's side in the halls of our State legislature. Mr. Berry has done as much if not more than any other to develop the rich resources of our county, giving all of his time and most of his means toward the procuring of that product which has made our county one of the greatest oil fields of the State. He is full of energy, pluck and perseverance, and is just the kind of timber that makes good legislators, and we have every confidence that his commanding presence will adorn the next House of Representatives.

For Associate Judge we have that hard-working, plain old citizen, Lewis Arner. Many of our citizens have known him for upward of forty years, during all of which time they have never known him to be idle a moment when there was work to do. Lumbering has been his employment during these years, and he has won considerable fame as a successful riverman and jobber, and a man of sound judgment on all questions pertaining to affairs of every day life. Mr. Arner is deserving of the support of the laboring man for he is one right in their ranks.

For Prothonotary, Recorder, &c., we have Curtis M. Shawkey. It is hardly worth while to say another word on this subject, Mr. Shawkey's peculiar fitness for this position being so well known to every voter in the county. Those who have ever had business at the Prothonotary's office recognize the fact that a better man could not be found, and it would require considerable trouble to find one even as good. Those who doubt this have only to go up and ransack the office and take a look at the records kept there. It is also a recognized fact that people who go there to do business are generally assisted in their wants and made to feel welcome, which is a wonderful help to those unaccustomed to the intricacies of county records. In Mr. Shawkey's election the county will have an excellent official.

For Sheriff the Republicans have a good candidate in the person of Leonard Agnew. Nearly ever since Forest has been a county Mr. Agnew has been one of her active and energetic citizens. He is therefore well and favorably known to the best and most prominent citizens we have. Leonard was one of the boys who responded to call in the dark days of the war, and fought bravely for his country in those times that try men's nerves and souls. He is now one of the Grand Army boys, a member of Stowe Post, and along with other comrades wears the badge of honor. Mr. Agnew has never before asked the people for their support for political preferment, and since his fitness for the office to which the people have nominated him is unquestioned, he has a right to expect and will receive their earnest and cordial support. He is an agreeable gentleman wherever you find him, and will make a very efficient and agreeable officer.

For County Commissioners we have Messrs. J. R. Chadwick and George W. Osgood. Here, where Mr. Chadwick is best known, he has the esteem and confidence of all as was shown by the handsome vote he received at his home. He is a man of mature years and solid judgment, and has made his living by the sweat of his brow. A gentleman in every way, and a man of cool common sense, he will be a good man to watch over the interests of our county. Mr. Osgood was born and raised in Kingsley township, this county, and having known him for years we can say with his neighbors that he is a man of unflinching integrity and honor, and whose abilities amply fit him for the office. He possesses a cool head, good judgment and firmness of mind. Mr. Osgood is in every way worthy the support of his fellow citizens who desire to see merit and honesty succeed.

For County Auditors Messrs. James A. Scott and Quintain Jamieson are the nominees. Mr. Scott is one of the present board of Auditor and in that capacity has shown himself to be a good man for the place. For honesty and integrity he needs no recommendation from us; his own neighbors will cordially vouch for that. Mr. Jamieson is a man well qualified for the position for which his friends have nominated him; good education, level-headed, honest and intelligent, and popular with his neighbors; what more could be asked.

Henry O. Davis is the nominee for Jury Commissioner. Mr. Davis is one of our best citizens, and those who know his good qualities will tell you that he is a first class man for the position. He is a man who says very little but it is always to the point and sound; never biased or impartial.

This completes the list, and in going over it we have endeavored to be fair and frank; we have said nothing but that can be backed up, and are ready to stand by our claims. The ticket is an excellent one and will compare very favorably with anything our opponents can put up. Let every voter defend it against all slanders and be ready to pull off his coat and help elect it.
