Q, JAMIESON, of Tionesta Twp. JAMES A. SCOTT, of Jenks. Jury Commissioner, HENRY O. DAVIS, of Tionesta.

THE guilt of Cleveland is now admitted by all the leading Democratic and Independent journals. It is left for the little bourbon organs of the country to deny it point blank.

THE explicit statement of Theodore Roosevelt, that he will heartily support Blaine and Logan and his utmost for the Republican success this fall, leaves George William Curtis the honor of being the only delegate out of 820 participating in the Chicago convention who will not help to elect the nominees .- Wellsboro Advocate.

Ir is becoming a question why Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance is not forthcoming. There was little said about it for a time, as a general appreciation of the difficulty of the task of making a sufficiently wide straddle to take in both sides of the platform without dislocating his pants was considered a sufficient reason. But now, some wicked fellows are suggesting that the real reason is, the necessity of waiting until the question of his withdrawal is settled; while others say that Mr. Tilden advises him to hold it back as long as possible to keep Ben. Butler quiet. Either of the reasons are sufficient, but we incline to the first, from the fact that as Mr. Cleveland fills his pantaloons pretty full, if they are put to unusal strain, in the words of the German tailor, "Dem vould shplit."

THAT consistent "journal of civilization," Harper's Weekly, heads a enlogistic editorial on Cleveland, "A Candidate Beyond Suspicion." The caption is entirely correct. The peodead certainty .- Com. Gazette.

ANYWAY they can fix it, the Democrats can get no comfort out of the brand." What a descent for a paper New York Sun. The Galveston Daily News proposes that the Democratic National Committee shall appoint a contemporary with conscious and flacommission to investigate Mr. Dana's grievance against Cleveland, to which the Sun responds: "It is not necessary. Our grievance is of the simplest and plainest nature. There is cratic managers at Saratoga are connothing about it to require investiga- sidering a proposition of John Kelsuch promotion." Dana is certainly but they cannot do without it, and inand that ought to settle it.

BUTLER, as a Democrat, went to the Democratic National Convention for the purpose of preventing the nomination of monopolist Cleveland and securing a recognition of protection as a Democratic dectrine. He though Cleveland reformers are very failed in both, and quite naturally be now proposes to do what he can to de-

ABBAHAM LINCOLN, according to the cartoons of the Harper's, was a drunken buffoon, and James G. Blaine, according to the same authority, is everything that is corrupt and venal. But Lancoln did not lose any friends because the Harper's lied about him, and neither will Blaine. By the time this campaign has closed the Harper's will discover that the sufferer in this fight does not live in Maine. The average American ad- The Republicans are jublilant and mires a manly foe, but a sneak, a shuffler, an avaricious pettifogger who only becomes an enemy when he cannot add to his gains by pretending admiration and friendship is beneath and Mr. White enters it under most contempt. J. W. Harper, jr., should remember that to be a successful liar a man must be possessed of a long memory-a thing that does not seem to be included in the inventory of his personal property, and he should also remember that John Randolph said: "Better walk twenty miles than write one letter."

THE story that Cleveland may withdraw finds probability in the plea of confession and avoidance put in by the journals who recognize the futility of longer contending against the immoral record of their candidate.

MANY of Gover Clevel's political friends, and even his friends on such papers as the religious New York Independent, seek to excuse the "common weakness of humanity" with which he is charged by the democratic and independent press. This does not speak so well for Governor Cleveland nothing undone to make his election as it does ill for those models of purity which could not support Blaine. Really, if Governor Cleveland is guilty of the"common weakness of humanity" as acknowledged by such able journals as the New York Evening Post, the New York Herald and others among his supporters, it would only have been fair to have given his partner in weakness, Maria Halpin, second place on the ticket. Of course, a woman can't hold such an office, so Cleveland's supporters can crawl out on this score .- Oil City Blizzard.

BUILER is not for Cleveland, that is plain. And now, again, we bear the jingle of the speons in the Democratic newspapers.

THE New York Times is earning the contempt of all decent men by the character of its assaults on Mr. Blaine. Not satisfied with the effect produced by its participation in the inventions of the Democrats, it strives to outdo them by entirely original performances of its own. As the letters, known as the "Mulligan letters" upon which the slanders depend, fail to establish them, the Times charges that those containing the proofs have been suppressed by Mr. Blaine. This outrageous assertion the New York Sun investigated and reported that it was not true. The Times reiterated its falsehood, and then the Sun protesting against such manifest indeple have gone entirely beyond suspi- cency, says that a paper may be alcion with respect to Mr. Cleveland's lowed to commit error through misinmoral character and have arrived at a formation, but when it persists in it after knowing the truth, it is deliberate dishonesty, and "deliberate dishonesty is an offense of a different of the standing heretofore maintained by the Times! Justly charged by a grant dishonesty.

And still the rumor flies and daily gathers consistency that the Demotion. We have published it repeated- ly's, to give him and Tammany the ly and will publish it again whenever control of the city patronage in reit is asked for. We hold that Grover turn for Tammany's support of the Cleveland is not fitted to be President, National ticket. It is a pretty good and that he has done nothing to merit price to pay for the support proposed, good authority on such a question, deed it is doubtful if they can do with it. The reason they hung off is, that it is quite likely they may control the city, and lose the State; so that the wily Tammany boss, by the trade, would secure all the spoils going without their getting any consideration. It is a very doubtful bargain, and willing to bargain, as War Democrat Hendricks advised, they would like

The Fusion Conference.

Speaking of the fusion conference that renominated Hon. John D. Patton for Congress in this district, the editor of the Kittanning Free Press, who was right on the field after the battle was over, says:

The nomination is considered by some Greenbackers and Democrats as strong, others that it was the best that could be done under the circumstances, consider the nomination a week one, and firmly believe that Hon, A. C. White, the Republican nominee, will have a walk over at the election. The campaign will now be fairly opened, favorable suspices, and we have not the least doubt but that he will be elected triumphantly.

Speaking in another place of Mr. White the Press further says:

Hon, A. C. White, candidate of the Republican party in this Congressional district, was in town last Monday. In company with D. B. Heiner, chairman of the county executive committee, he was introduced to quite a number of our citizens and made a very favorable impression. Many citizens remembered him when he was quite a small boy, being in town here attending to affairs for his father. Mr. White's quiet, unassuming and gentlemanly appearance made him many friends, and it is conceded beyond a doubt that no fusion that may be brought against him will avail, as the Republicans are determined this year to have a Republican congressman. Mr. White left Tuesday morning for Freeport. Leechburg and other points along the Kiskminitis. He is making a very active canvass and will leave certain. In this we heartily join with him and predict an overwhelming majority, not only in Armstrong county but also throughout the district. He has been through Forest and Clarion counties, and reports everything favorable. The political pot is beginning to boil, and Republicans everywhere are becoming enthusiastic, and the standard of Republicanism will once more be raised in this Congressional district.
