—Get registered right now.

—Mr. R. J. Huddleson and bride arrived in town on Sunday.

—Mr. R. S. McBeth, of Cooksburg, paid our town a visit Monday.

—Oil market closed yesterday 78 1/2. Opening this morning at 79c.

—Don't forget to examine the registry list and see if your name is there.

—John Muenzenberger is building a barn on the rear of his premises, north ward.

—Mr. J. B. Pearsall, one of Barnett's solid citizens, shook hands with Tionesta friends yesterday.

—Misses Laura and Essie Calvin, of Brookville, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. T. F. Ritchey.

—The new school house foundation is being rapidly pushed forward, and will doubtless be completed this week.

—Some of Tionesta's citizens are becoming interested in the Spiritualist meetings at Cassadaga Lake, N. Y.

—Misses Sadie and Belle Shoup, of Allegheny City, are visiting their Aunt, Mrs. Sloan, and other friends in this place.

—Mr. J. B. Barnes, a former Tionesta resident, is now enjoying the salubrious breezes of Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., California.

—Miss Emma Sloan has gone to Marienville, this county, to take charge of a large music class. She expects to be absent about ten weeks.

—Mrs. D. W. Clark, accompanied by her son, Sam., returned from her visit to Macksburg, Ohio, Saturday. D. W. came home Monday for a short stay.

—Geo. Holeman has broken ground for new dwelling house on the corner of a Vine St. and the Dutch Hill, a very pleasant location. The building is to be 24x32.

—Mrs. Brecht, wife of Albert Brecht, died at her home at Bryans Station, this county, on Saturday evening last, Aug. 16, of typhoid fever. She was about 23 years of age.

—The reunion of the 83d, 112th and 146th Regiments, P. V., will take place at Titusville on September 16th, next. Many of the survivors residing in this county will be there at roll call.

—United Presbyterian services will be held in the Universalist church next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and 5 p. m., by Rev. J. A. Scroggs. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

—September 5th is the last day for registering in order to secure a vote. Let no Republican allow the time to slip around without assuring himself that his name is on the list. Attend to it now.

—Mrs. S. D. Irwin, of Tionesta, arrived in this city to-day, and will spend some days with her sister-in-law, Miss H. G. Irwin. Miss Lou Sutton started to-day on a visit to friends in Tionesta.—Franklin News.

—One day last week Samuel Bush, of Oldtown, shot a crane which measured 5 feet 8 inches across the wings, and stood 32 inches "in its stocking feet." This is hard to beat in the crane line, and just about takes the rag off the Bush.

—The cantata of The Flower Queen was, by special request, reproduced on Saturday evening, with quite a number of new and attractive features introduced. The handsome sum of $40.00 was netted out of the performances for the new organ fund.

—Mrs. Ed. Heibel was called to Corry last Saturday by the severe illness of her sister, Miss Lucy Kretsch, who had the misfortune to tread on a steel garden rake, running one of the tines into her foot, inflicting a severe wound. Miss Kretsch has many friends among the young folks of this place, who will hope for her speedy recovery.

—We have a communication from Moundsville, W. Va., signed "Observer," which we will take pleasure in publishing if the writer will give us his name.

—Mrs. Thomas Snodgrass, of Sparfantsburg, Pa., and her two little daughters, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. T. J. Van Giesen and friends.

—The dam at the mouth of the creek, which was torn out by the ice last winter, is to be rebuilt for the convenience of those who have lumber to handle in low water. Messrs. Collins, Robinson & Bonner, and Lawrence are the parties most interested.

—Mrs. Laura Nichol, of Allegheny City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan. She has had a severe attack of quinsy, but is now convalescing. No one could be long sick under the skillful treatment of Dr. M. B. Cook, and the kind, careful nursing of Mrs. S. C. Sloan.

—Chas Raisig disposed of two more of those A No. 1 wagons last week, one of them going to a Titusville party, which shows how Charlie's work and reputation is spreading. He has now but two left, a light and a heavy one, and those contemplating a purchase should not put the matter off much longer.

—Twenty-three years ago to-day witnessed the departure of the original sixty-six members of the old Tionesta Rangers for the war. They were transported by flat-boat from this place to Irvineton; thence by rail to Erie, where the famous Eighty-third Regiment, of which they formed a part, was organized.

—Miss Deitrich, aged about 16 years, and residing with the family of Rudolph Struken, in Tylersburg, Pa., died from the effects of a sunstroke received on Friday afternoon last. She had been picking berries about a mile from her home, and was returning when she was overcome by the heat when within a short distance of home. Stopping at a neighbor's house she complained of feeling ill, and growing rapidly worse, died the next morning. She was to have been married on the 10th of September next.

—The editor of the FOREST REPUBLICAN admits that he fished for trout on the first day of August. Perhaps the game laws don't apply to Forest county, as we have heard frequent complaints concerning the practice of a prominent Forest county man of exploding dynamite in the Clarion river for the purpose of killing fish.—Clarion Jacksonian. Come, now, Bro. Chip, give us the benefit of a fresh almanac. Get an '84 calendar and see if you ain't "off your eggs." As to the "dynamiter," why don't you hunt him down? Seems to us you had some fish wardens appointed over there not many years ago. Bill Reck, of Strattonville, is one if his commission hasn't expired.

—The September number of Ballou's Magazine is good, the illustrations are excellent, and the story of "On Land and Sea" is worth reading. In addition, there are many nice stories in the Magazine, choice poems, household affairs, amusing anecdotes, curious matters, puzzle pages, a ladies' department, and all for the small sum of $1.50 per year. It is a real household magazine, and a good one. Thomas & Talbot, publishers, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass.

—Peterson's Magazine for September opens with a perfectly idyllic steel-engraving, "In Arcadia; 'Guess Who It Is!'" The double-sized fashion-plate is also from steel, colored by hand. Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper is "Peterson's" fashion correspondent in Paris: the only one, we believe, who keeps a correspondent there, hence the fashions are always the latest and most stylish. The stories in this number are unusually good, even for "Peterson." How such a magazine can be supplied for only two dollars a year, and much less to clubs, is a miracle; we can only explain it by its enormous circulation. Specimens are sent gratis to get up clubs with. Address Chas. J. Peterson, No. 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

For Sale, A good Pole Road Logging Car, manufactured by Butterworth & Lowe, Grand Rapids, Mich., used but about one year; will sell cheap. Call on or address T. J. Bowman, East Hickory Pa. 4t. —Peaches, Pears, Grapes, Sweet Potatoes, Cabbage, &c., on Saturday. Wm. Smearbaugh & Co. 1t.

The Flower Queen—Cantata.

The Cantata of "The Flower Queen," on Friday evening, Aug. 15, was an event worthy of note, and furnished all true lovers of music, both vocal and instrumental, with a treat. This beautiful production is a work of Root, the eminent American Composer, and one of his best fancies, the scenes and music being fairy-like throughout. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey, under whose superintendence the cantata was performed, seemed as well as all the performers to enter into the spirit of the piece. The costumes of the flowers were beautifully appropriate, while the tableaux gave it a brilliant appearance, the little actors looking like so many fairies.

The Piano Duet by Misses Maude Davis and Laura Calvin was an appropriate introduction, artistically performed. "We are the Flowers," by the whole company was a perfect gush of melody.

The Recluse, weary of the world and its cares, singing amidst the bowers "Here would I Rest," was an attractive feature, and reminds us of the scene in Auber's Fra Diavola "On Yonder Rock Reclining." The Violet and the Lily by Effie Walters and Maude Van Giesen, and reply by Recluse, T. F. Ritchey, were interesting features. The parts of Crocus, Lizzie Randall; Dahlia, Effie Clark; Heliotrope, Edith Knox; Magnonette, Lizzie Siggins; Japonica, Mrs. Cogan; Sunflower, Ida Paup; Rose, Flora Walters; Tulip, Mrs. Flora Kline; Aster, were well rendered; while the Nightgale and Response, by Miss Essie Calvin, was a difficult but attractive feature. The Piano Solos of Misses Laura Calvin and Maude Davis were excellent and loudly encored. Hollyhock by Miss Emma Sloan, Dandelion by Mrs. Steadman, and Touch-me-not by Artie Robinson in Part Second, were interesting parts of the piece, and showed the performers understood their subject.

The performance of "Lohengrin" on the violin, by Miss Nellie Kepler, won the admiration of all lovers of "the King of instruments," and showed Miss Nellie was master of the situation, and the fiddlers in the audience, as well as others, kept up such a racket after she closed, she played a second piece which was as well rendered as the first. The Finale being "the same old crew," reinforced by Mr. and Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Hart and others, was an excellent rendition of that portion of the cantata, and made everybody feel and believe, "there was music in the air." The cantata closed with a tableau of "Flowers Asleep," emblematic of night and home, which closed this grand success of home talent under the able management of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey. The pieces and the parts were admirably arranged. STELLA.

Cruel Treatment of Insane.

The Board of Public Charities, office 1224 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa., sends out the following circular letter: Philadelphia, Aug. 16th, 1884. My Dear Doctor: Within the past year, two instances of cruel treatment of insane patients in charge of private parties, have come to the knowledge of the Committee on Lunacy. In one case an old man was found naked, in an out-house in a very secluded part of the State, where he had been confined for more than thirty years, chained by the leg. In the other case neither the public nor the committee had any knowledge of the inhumanity practiced upon an old man who had likewise been chained for more than a quarter of a century; and it was not until his death that the particulars were brought out and made public. In view of these facts, the object of the committee is to find out if any such cases are known, or believed exist, and if so, to send them to the State Hospitals for the Insane where they can receive humane and proper treatment; and that if you have any reason to believe any such insane are concealed and badly treated, we will on private intimation from you, investigate such cases, and take the necessary steps for their transfer. Any communication will be, if desired, considered confidential. Yours very truly, THOMAS G. MORTON, M. D.

A Play on Words.

At the National hotel supper table last evening a bold, bad Tionesta man sat down alongside a newspaper man and soon got into conversation with a commercial traveler who sat opposite.

"I have seven children at home and never saw one of them," finally remarked the Tionesta man.

The commercial traveler had heard of a great many strange things during his varied career, but this evidently stamped him. Being pretty much of a gentleman, he only said "Indeed?" in an inquiring manner, but a look of surprise crossed his features, and he gazed at the Tionesta man after the manner of the man who, treed by a gentleman cow, said nothing, but kept thinking to himself, "I'm waiting for you to go on."

After enjoying the situation for a moment the Tionesta man continued: "Yes, I've got seven children, but I've never seen one of them. I'm going home to see it now. It was born since I left home."

The commercial traveler left the table with tears in his eyes, but the newspaper man, being made of sterner stuff, merely groaned and kept on creating a vacuum in the larder.—Oil City Blizzard.

Who was the Tionesta man?
