REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

Remember the Republican Mass Meeting to take place in the Court House next Tuesday evening, Court Week. Let all who wish to hear sound argument from accomplished orators be on hand.

To those acquainted with these gentlemen it is needless to say they will keep the meeting thoroughly aroused with enthusiasm, and a cordial invitation is extended to all with the assurance that they will hear excellent speeches.

—Pay your State and County tax. —Oil market closed yesterday 77 1/2. Opening this morning at 77 1/2.

—Mr. Elmer Fleming, of Fagundes, Pa., was circulating among Tionesta friends last Friday.

—Mr. Wm. Hebenthal and family have returned from Dakota, intending to make this their future abode.

—Three keys and a button hook await the owner at this office, found at the swimming rock below the mouth of the creek.

—Miss Alwilda Adams returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Evansburg, Crawford county.

—Mr. G. W. Zents, of Hunter's Station, lost his youngest child, aged about one year, by cholera infantum, last Thursday night.

—Court convenes next week. The trial list being rather large will doubtless occupy the attention of the court the greater portion of the week.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Cobb, of Frewsburg, N. Y., were entertained at the residence of Mr. T. B. Cobb a few days of last week, returning home Thursday.

—Miss Mary Young has rented the rooms in Daniel Walters' house lately vacated by Angus Carson, where she intends boarding her two younger sisters who will attend the winter term of our borough school.

—Don't forget the dance at the Lawrence House to-night. The best of music will be in attendance, and as to the refreshments no pains or expense will be spared in that line.

—The members of the Presbyterian Church have decided to purchase a larger organ, for the use of Church and Sabbath School, than the one they now have.

—The borough dads sold, at public auction, last Thursday evening, the Mabie house for $125, to W. A. Eagles; barn on same lot for $18, to Eli Holeman; the butcher building for $35, to D. S. Knox.

—Quite a delegation of Capt. Stow Post, 274, departed for Franklin yesterday to be present at the Veterans' Reunion which takes place there today.

—Last Thursday forenoon as Judge Hill and Mr. Jesse Perry were passing what is known as the "drowned rock," two miles above this place, in the Allegheny river, they were startled by hearing a lady scream, and looking in the direction, they saw a man making an effort to rescue a woman from drowning.

—The woman had fallen out of the boat into 12 or 15 feet of water, and the man had jumped in to save her, but as is generally the case with a drowning person, the woman clung to the man until he himself was almost exhausted.

—Great slaughter in prices of Flour and Feed at Robinson & Bonner's. Flour as low as $1.00 per sack of 50 pounds, and guaranteed to make good sweet bread.
