Duty of the Hour.

But three weeks more remain of the campaign, and it therefore behooves all good and true Republicans to be up and doing. Our enemies are on had. See to it that they are watched trader. on all sides, and let no inroads be made in our ranks. The canvass thus far has been quietly progressing. The time has now come for every man to buckle up to the work. By standing shoulder to shoulder in the past we have won signal victories; by standing shoulder to shoulder we will do so again. There is no need to impress upon Republicans the importance of winning this election; every one of you knows that full well. The way to win is for every man to do his share, to be unceasing from this on till election day is over. Be watchful, be vigilant, earnest, and above all, energetic. Talk to your good neighbor; show him that Republican defeat means a death-blow to our cherished industries. Our county ticket must be elected to a man. Don't lose sight of this for one moment from this on. A few self-appointed bosses, actuated solely by self-aggrandizement, have hatched up a so called fusion by which they hope to defeat us. No voter who respects and cherishes the principles of his party is bound to support any such a dicker, for it is nothing more nor less than a dicker, and there is not the slightest political principle involved in the trade. Our enemies have attempted to double-team us; let the voters rise in their might and put the seal of condemnation on such bartering away of principles. Work and be vigilant from Democratic majority. It will not now on. THE cordiality manifested among the various wings of the Drmocracy is beautifully shown by the compliments passing between them. The Cincinnati Inquirer, Bourbon Democrat, addressing the New York Times, Mugwump Democrat, remarks: "Our disinterested advise to the Times would he to get back into the Republican party, if it can. True, it had no influence there, bu as a Democratic newspaper it will not only have no influence, but its sensitive nerves are sure to be shocked by many an unkind reference." WE understand that the friends of the fusion candidate for Congress persistently represent their man to be exof this county where the gentlemen are unknown, but in every county in the district, the frequency with which this misrepresentation is made leading to the belief that it is designed, and that the managers are striving to secure Republican support through the good name of ex-Sheriff Reitz, of Belleview. If the gentlman asking the suffrages of the freemen of this Congressional district is "the peer of any friven to the refuge of "Farmer Reitz." 'Reitz, the Administrator, or other satch words indicative of a barrenness

THAT SAME OLD COON!

The Derrick, which never overestimates a Republican majority, gives figures this morning showing that the Republicans have carried the State of Ohio by over sixteen thousand majority, which is a Republican gain of 28,529 over last year, and about 35,-000 of a gain over 1882. The same returns also indicate that the Republicans have made large gains in the Congressional delegation. The indithe alert and ready to take advan- cutions are good for the election of tage wherever and whenever it can be Romeis over Hurd, the noted free

> In the case of Obio as in Maine the Democrats claimed that if the Republicans did not carry the State by 10,000 it would indicate defeat, and all the time they were expecting to carry it themselves. Did the Republicans carry it by 3,000 or 5,000 it would have been a grand victory, considering that at the last two State elections it had given large Democratic majorities, and had the entire political machinery in their hands and used it for all there was in it. So that, considering the very many disadvantages of the Republicans in Ohio this year, they have won one of the grandest victories ever achieved. It is far greater than the October victory of 1880, when the lamented Garfield was the candidate. The achievement of such a handsome victory will fill the Republicans with renewed vigor, as it should. Hurrah the campaign has indicated more for Blaine and Logan !

MR. J. F. JOY, with a good reputation, telegraphs from Landon that "Blaine never made me any offer to appoint a committee to suit me in any manner or form or for any consideration of any kind whatever." Beecher, with a emirched reputation, says that Mr. Joy informed him otherwise at a dinner party some seven years ago. The character of the witnesses being known the reader can choose which he will beleive.

THE Democrats objected to Grant because he was a soldier and not a statesman and now they object to Mr. Blaine because he is a statesman and not a soldier. As Mr. Cleveland is neither the one nor the other, they take to him, we suppose, not because of any mental ability, but because he wears a No. 18 collar.

LESS than six months ago 152 Democratic Congressmen voted for a reduction of 20 per cent. in the wages of workers in glass factories and iron mills. Is it strange that business is the danger of the success of its sworn enemy is imminent?

Poor old Horatio Seymour has been awakened from his peaceful slumbers and compelled to write a letter urging the election of Cleveland. The Democratic party would from the corpse.

DEMOCRATS think that Tilden is losing his grip, because when writing that long expected letter he forget to mention the name of the Buffalo candidate.

BEECHER talks about people being 'dim-eyed in perceiving distinctions.' That is just the defeet the country charged Beecher with some years ago when he failed to perceived the distinction between his own wife and the wife of his friend, Theodore Tilton.

THE attitude the real Independents hold in this campaign was well illustrated last week in Buffalo, when the Independent Republican Club of that city ratified the nomination of Blaine and Logan. The demonstration recalled that other one in 1882, when the same club indorsed the candidacy of Grover Cleveland for Governor of New York State. The same man, Sherman S. Rogers, presided, and the same orator, General Stewart L. Woodford, spoke on both occasions, but the meeting of this year was larg er and more enthusiastic, and more successful in every way. No event of clearly the set of the political tide School House, than this Buffalo demonstration. It brings over in a body 2,500 former wit: Those residing east of the above Independents. To measure the miserable turpitude of those constantly engaged in assailing Mr. Blaine as corrupt in the positions he has filled as a public man, there is only one fact to be considered. No one has yet charged him with a corrupt official act. While he was Speaker, with the Record of the House accessible to them, not one of the foul reach much over 7,000, which means detractors has found a vote or a ruling that they can cite to the world as a ruling he ought not to have made, or a vote he ought not to have given. questions, there were many of his votes distasteful to the Democrats, but those the people do not agree with the Democrats, and the latter are only too anxious to keep them out of sight. He can be found in the Chicago conven- for the policy, but for some indefinite tending to engage in. The charge of ex-Bolivian Minister Adams, that Chili had sent $200,000 to this coun-'enemies he had made," and no heed the papers that did so, show what inspired that attact, and what was done with the money, and disposes of that charge. Now, reflect that these same papers are the leaders of the assaults upon him; that these assaults consist of the wrenching of all the business letters of his they can find into meanings that they would not bear if read without reference to his political life; and that this is the whole of anti-Republican campaign material used, and it is easy to see how lost to every sense of honor or patriotism these vile detractors are. And all that is needed in reply to them has been said.

HON. ALEXANDER C. WHITE, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS IN THIS DISTRICT.

We have the pleasure of presenting our readers this week with a portrait of our admirable candidate for Congress in the Twent-Fifth District, Hon. Alexander C. White. The very appearance of the gentleman indicates brains and ability, and the fact that Mr. White, by his own industry, integrity and pluck, has risen from a poor boy to one of the leading men in northwestern Pennsylvania is sufficient to recommend him to the people of this district, and command their respect and admiration. The people want a man to represent them in Congress who will rank among the first of the Nation's law-makers, paralyzed during a campaign while and will therefore elect Alexander C. White on the 4th day of next Novem-
