

Republican Ticket.

NATIONAL. FOR PRESIDENT, HON. JAMES G. BLAINE, of Maine. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEN. JOHN A. LOGAN, of Illinois. STATE. CONGRESS-AT-LARGE, GEN'L E. S. OSBORNE, of Luzerne County. COUNTY. CONGRESS, ALEXANDER C. WHITE, of Jefferson County. Assembly, PETER BERRY, of Howe. Associate Judge, LEWIS ARNER, of Kingsley. Prothonotary &c., CURTIS M. SHAWKEY, of Tionesta. Sheriff, LEONARD AGNEW, of Howe. County Commissioners, J. R. CHADWICK, of Tionesta. GEO. W. OSGOOD, of Kingsley. County Auditors, Q. JAMIESON, of Tionesta Twp. JAMES A. SCOTT, of Jenks. Jury Commissioner, HENRY O. DAVIS, of Tionesta.

Address by the Chairman.

To the Republicans of Forest County:

Once more we are called upon to decide who shall be our standard bearers for the next four years, and we trust that every Republican in Forest County, and all others of whatever political persuasion that are in favor of protecting American industries and fostering and protecting American labor, will not fail to be at the polls on the 4th day of November next and cast their ballots for James G. Blaine and John A. Logan, who stand squarely upon a platform for Protection, and do not seek to mislead or deceive any one. There can be no doubt about Pennsylvania's position upon that question. Maine and Ohio have spoken in unmistakable tones, and Pennsylvania will follow in November with increased majorities. It is the duty of every good citizen to be at the polls and thus contribute his influence to the best possible good of his country, and a duty he should not avoid under any circumstances. We feel confident that Forest county will do her duty.

It is important also that our Congress should be in harmony with the President in order that just and proper legislation may be had, and proper tariff laws enacted. A horizontal reduction of the tariff, as proposed by the present Congress last winter, would seriously cripple the lumber interest of Forest county. Every vote cast for Alexander C. White for Congress will be one in favor of Protection. We hope every voter will remember this fact and vote accordingly.

For our local ticket we present to you men that have been selected by the popular vote of the County, and not by a few who make politics a business, believing that all questions that are of vital importance to the county should be left to the honest, popular vote of the people, and not to the few who seek to subvert the popular will, and whose schemes, if carried out, would have a tendency to destroy a Republican form of Government. Party managers who are afraid to trust the members of their party, and refuse to give them a voice in all important questions, should be looked upon with some degree of suspicion.

Let every voter do his duty conscientiously on election day, and place the seal of condemnation upon all business transactions that are not square business to all parties concerned. We leave the matter with you to decide on next Tuesday, feeling confident that your verdict will be a confirmation of these principles.

C. A. RANDALL, Chairman.

VOTE for Blaine and Logan, the two great statesmen and champions of the tariff, the very life and soul of American industry.

This time is short from now till election day. Let our friends be on the alert and cease not in well-doing. But a few more days remain.

GET out the vote.

VOTE for Alexander C. White, and secure a Congressman who will be in sympathy with the administration, and whose vote will always be cast for protection to American labor.

THE scenes attending the journey of Mr. Blaine through the west are manifestations of the hold he has upon the people and also indicate the large majority he will receive in the States where, like in Ohio, Democrats had the folly to claim that Cleveland would win.

VOTE for Peter Berry for Assembly and secure a Representative who knows and appreciates the interests of his county, and will work for its advancement.

BOONE, who assulted Cleveland in Albany the other day, was told that the physicians were about to examine him as to his mental condition, when he said:

"Why, no. Are they going to try that old trick on me? I would like to see them do it. Why, I can write a better letter than Gov. Cleveland can. Is he insane?"

After reading Cleveland's letter to Mrs. Beecher, we think Boone could improve on it.

VOTE for Lewis Arner for Associate Judge and secure on the Bench a man of good judgment and unbiased mind.

THE result of the election in West Virginia shows that the State is very liable to go for Blaine in November. The Democratic majority is cut down from 11,000 in 1880 to less than 4,000 in 1884. A large class of voters who supported the Democratic State ticket will vote for Blaine and Logan. The Republicans made heavy gains in the Legislature. The State Senate is a tie and the Democratic majority in the House is only five.

VOTE for Curtis M. Shawkey for Prothonotary, and put a man in that office who has the ability to and will keep the records of the county straight and clean.

As we will not have another opportunity to address our friends before election day, we wish to warn them against all kinds of roorbacks and campaign stories that may be circulated to turn votes, when it is to late to refute them.

VOTE for Leonard Agnew for Sheriff, and thereby secure a faithful and efficient officer, and at the same time honor an old soldier who gave good service in defense of his country's honor, and whose qualifications for the office are undisputed.

INDIANA Democrats accuse Joseph McDonald, who is running their campaign, of treachery to Hendricks. This would seem to imply that Joseph is promulgating around in a political coat of assorted colors.

VOTE for J. R. Chadwick and Geo. W. Osgood for County Commissioners, and secure men who will take pride in serving the people well and faithfully.

THE net Republican majority in Ohio on the Congressional vote was 19,370.

VOTE for Quintain Jamieson and James A. Scott for County Auditors, both well adapted for the position, and who will make good officers.

CARL SCHURZ is getting about as much chaffing as any man in the United States at the present time. He started out at the opening of the campaign with a great flourish of trumpets, and the Democratic organs were sure that thousands of German Republicans in the west, especially in Ohio, would be swept over to the opposition through his eloquence. Instead of that, wherever he spoke the Republican gains were largest. It has been suggested that the Republicans double his salary and send him to the doubtful southern States.

MR. BEECHER, in his efforts to abuse the Republican party the other night in Brooklyn, did not stop at the most outrageous falsehoods. For example, what are we to think of this? "It (the tariff) is a scheme of taxation that rolls $400,000,000 a year into the reservoirs at Washington." Is Mr. Beecher so ignorant about what he is talking of as not to know that the total duty collected by the tariff last year was $190,282,863, and that the annual revenue from tariff has rarely or ever been half the sum he mentioned? His Free-trade enthusiasm is no excuse for lying.—Phila. Press.

Democratic Doctrine.

The veteran editor of the New York Sun, whom most democrats have always sworn by, is evidently not "mashed" on Cleveland and his independent dude contingent. In a leading editorial he says: We are against Grover Cleveland because he is not fit or worthy to be president; because he has neither the intellectual nor the personal qualifications; because he was imposed upon the democracy by a discontented faction of republican bolters; because he was nominated through the unjustifiable and tyrannical enforcement of the odious unit rule, respecting which the great and good Horatio Seymour has said that on one occasion, when its enforcement was essential to the accomplishment of his purpose, he yet refrained from enforcing it, for the reason that he would not record the vote of any man contrary to his will; and, finally, because Cleveland's election would be most injurious to the democratic party.

When the democratic convention nominated Cleveland it decided that Blaine should be elected. Where Cleveland is weak and confessedly incapable, Blaine is strong. That is in the domain of politics. In that direction Mr. Blaine's career has been long and laborious. He is no novice, no untried hand, but an experienced politician of unquestioned ability and of demonstrated powers. What is also of incalculable advantage to a candidate, he is imbued and animated with the policy of his party and is the avowed champion of its principles. No one need ask whether he is a protectionist or a free trader. He is for a tariff that shall be protective, and for the last month he has been traveling through the west giving special emphasis to his adherence to that principle.

THE IRREFUTABLE FIGURES.—From 1835 to 1851—a quarter of a century—the country had a revenue tariff, excepting out four years for the tariff of 1842. During that period we purchased merchandise abroad in excess of all our exports of merchandise to the enormous aggregate of $513,570,733. From 1861 to 1883—twenty-two years—the country had a tariff laid for protection, though the present system was not in full operation until 1863. During that period of twenty or twenty-two years, we sold abroad merchandise in excess of what we purchased to the amount of $233,416,686. The question that we put to the free-traders is this: Which of these statements of facts denotes the greatest measure of prosperity? "I ADMIT it at Buffalo, but you can't prove it on me at Albany."—Cleveland to Mrs. Beecher.

MR. BEECHER'S character for veracity is not being strengthened by the very natural discussions among the gentlemen involved in the story of the latter as to remarks made by Mr. Joy some years ago at a dinner party, derogatory to Mr. Blaine. Mr. Joy put in a flat denial of the truth of Beecher's story; which Beecher replied to by saying that either he or Joy had lied, and that the latter would hardly persist in his statement in the face of the testimony of the other gentlemen who were present. Since then some trouble has been taken to obtain the testimony of the persons so appealed to. Five of them have been interviewed and they all say that the interpretation of the conversation by Beecher is erroneous. It is greatly to be feared that Mr. Beecher's assertion that he or Beecher lied, is about the only truth he told in the matter, and that the public will fix upon Beecher as the liar.

THE people of New York will move to make Mr. Blair's election unanimous.

GET out the vote.
