

JAMES T. BRENNAN.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS CLERK.
Real Estate Agent & Conveyancer.
TIONESTA, Forest County, Pa.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for North and South directions, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the F. M. Church next Sunday evening by Rev. J. D. Rhodes.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 12:30 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—He who bets and gets his pay May bet again some other day; But he who bet and lost his cash Considers he's done something rash.

—Oil market closed yesterday 70 1/2, Opening this morning at 70c.

—Thanksgiving one week from tomorrow. How about that fat turkey?

—W. R. Reck, of Strattanville, Pa., paid Tionesta friends a visit last Thursday.

—Prof. Hillard has moved into his neat new house between Irwin's and Muenzenberger's.

—Joe Landers expects to open his new rink on Thanksgiving evening with a grand ball.

—J. H. Bowman Esq., of Columbus, Ohio, stopped in town Monday night on legal business.

—Dr. Morrow reports a good-sized girl arrival at F. B. Winans' at Ross Run, Monday morning.

—Mr. C. D. Baker, with a party of friends, went to Salmon creek last week to slay the panting deer.

—Mr. W. H. Weary, of South Oil City, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Klinefister, over last Sabbath.

—Dr. Coburn tells us that Commissioner Ledebur was made happy over the arrival of a 9 pound boy at his house last evening.

—An entertainment is booked for to morrow evening at Lawrence House Hall. Admission 15 cents; children 10c. Take it in.

—Messrs. John Cobb, T. B. Cobb and J. T. Dale, departed for West Virginia on Thursday last, where they expect to invest in some valuable timber lands.

—Charlie, three year-old son of Mr. Heibel, is lying very low with lung fever, we are sorry to report. His physician has very little hopes of his recovery at this writing.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Partridge, of Jamestown, N. Y., parents of our late lamented citizen, A. H. Partridge, paid Tionesta friends a pleasant visit during the past week.

—W. J. Roberts is erecting in front of his premises a very neat and substantial iron fence. It is set in stone and will doubtless last as long as Mr. Roberts expects to stay on the globe.

—Mrs. Partridge would respectfully announce that she is prepared to give lessons in Kensington and Arasene work. All articles for Fancy work kept at the lowest prices. Stamping made a Specialty.

—The new school house, which looms up grandly and is already a source of pride to our citizens, will be completed before ten days; that is, so far as the contractors' work goes. It will hardly be occupied until after the holidays.

—Several cart loads of hunters have passed through here during the past week bound for the big woods. Should each man bring home a deer there won't be enough left for breeders next season. May they all not have good success.

—Frank M. Reck passed down the road yesterday on his way to West Virginia, whither he goes with a view of engaging in the lumber business. What Frank don't know about this industry wouldn't make a very extensive volume, and we can therefore predict success for him.

—The Warren Ledger has changed hands. For twenty-one years Mr. B. F. Morris has enlivened its columns and given his readers a good paper; he now steps out on account of failing health. Mr. W. W. Howard, a young and vigorous writer has taken charge, and the paper is not expected to suffer under his management. Expecting politics we wish him success.

—Dr. J. E. Blaine has located permanently in Denver, Colorado. Whether he has taken his family on yet we are not advised, but that is his intention. We have no misgivings as to the Doctor's success in his practice; a physician of his skill is bound to come to the front rapidly in any community. Our best wishes, Doctor.

—Mr. W. W. Grove has moved into the newly refitted house next to the Universalist church; Postmaster Arner now occupies Mr. Grove's late residence, and Will Klinefister has moved into Mr. Arner's former house. The latter gentlemen recently purchased the properties they now occupy. Mr. Grove will finish his new house in the spring; the foundation walls are already completed.

—At a meeting of the Presiding Elders of the Erie Conference, held in Meadville on Tuesday, a great deal of business was transacted, including the apportionment of the benevolent funds of the church to the different charges, the appointment of standing committees, the arrangement of matters connected with the Conference work, and the general business of the church. The Presiding Elders present were: Rev's. Schofield of the Erie district, Latschaw of Clarion, Bray of Franklin, Borland of Jamestown, and Merchant of Meadville.—Franklin News, 14th.

—Bernard Bush, the first German settler of Dutch Hill, died at the residence of Mr. Ernest Behrens, Green township, on Thursday night, 13th inst., his disease seeming to be dropsy. He was born in Germany in 1805, and had he lived two months longer would have been 80 years old. He purchased a farm about three miles from Tionesta, situated on the Balltown road, upon which he lived until about 10 years ago, when he sold the same and purchased one on Ross Run, where he resided until a few months ago. Mr. Bush was always known as a very industrious citizen, and bore the respect of all his neighbors. He leaves a wife, aged 86 years. His funeral took place on Sabbath last.

—Peterson's Magazine for December comes to us ahead of all others, a perfect marvel of beauty. There are more than a hundred pages of reading-matter; two superb steel-plates; a colored pattern, costlier even than a chromo; a colored fashion, double size, printed from steel; and more than half a hundred wood-cuts of fashions, work-table patterns, etc., etc. The stories are exceptionally good; though "Peterson" always has the very best. The price is but Two Dollars a year to single subscribers. To clubs, it is cheaper still. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

—L. M. Thornhill, a member of Waverly Lodge, 75, A. O. U. W., Monongahela City, Pa. died in Tidouste of consumption, last Sunday night. Since 1872 Mr. T., had been a member of the Order, and for the last five years an invalid, during which time his assessments and dues have been kept up by his lodge. On being notified of his death his lodge sent Bros. M. W. Wolf and Shreckongost to attend the funeral. At Tidouste they were met by the brothers of Tidouste lodge, 204. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Tidouste lodge turning out and conducting the funeral services. Now, here is a home example of the benefits of this class of insurance for working men. The widow of Mr. Thornhill finds herself provided with two thousand dollars, and as she is poor, the money comes doubly acceptable. During the entire nine years of her husband's membership it has probably cost not to exceed one hundred and eighty dollars in assessments and lodge dues. We speak confidently when we say that no man of family has a right to reject or neglect to avail himself of this class of insurance. Why don't you join the order, my fellow workmen? At the request of Waverly lodge, Drs. Kemble and Diefendorf made a post mortem examination, finding as above announced. Mrs. Thornhill is a daughter of J. N. Brown.—Tidouste News.

—Ballou's Monthly Magazine for December is indeed a capital number for all the reading public. First there are many illustrations. Then comes the conclusion of that popular yarn called, "On Land and Sea"; or, California in the Years 1843, '44 and '45," by William H. Thomas. "On Land and Sea" is finished in a satisfactory manner, the boys remaining on shore at San Diego with pretended cases of small-pox, ready for now adventures at the proper time. There is no magazine in the country that gives so much reading matter of a varied order as Ballou's; and the cheapness is surprising, as it is only $1.50 per year. Address, Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass.

Blow-Out of the Unterrified.

The Democrats had what we presume they call a blow-out last night, and, oh dear! such a roarin' time as they did have. Four barrels of nasty, stinking crude oil,—some that had evidently stood for ages—perhaps since Buchanan's time,—were set off, and such awful illumination as they did make! A half dozen white beans would have made a better show. The crowd consisted of about two dozen boys ranging in age from eight to fifteen years, some of whom had been furnished with enough bug-juice to make them quite noisy. There were perhaps five Democrats in the crowd, who stood around with hands in their pockets shivering like one awakening from a 24-year's sleep. It was suggested by some one that a lantern be hung around each bonfire (?) to keep teams from running over them. This would undoubtedly have been done had there been much travel. The canon was fired four or five times and sounded about as loud as the bursting of a paper bag. It is said on good authority, although denied by equally as good, that a procession was had, and that it consisted of a stuffed coon pelt, a starved rooster, and some other dried-up thing which nobody could name. The procession was no small affair for it took several hours to pass a certain place—the "place" was where the bug-juice was kept, and some didn't get past till near morning. The company must have been too much for the rooster's stomach, for he finally tore himself away and hid. Altogether, for a demonstration that has been 24 years in preparation, it was certainly the most sickening affair that has ever taken place here, and the "great unwashed" no doubt feel heartily ashamed of their effort.

Kingsley Township.

Now that politics do not occupy the attention of our people to any great extent any more, everything else is progressing finely.

W. B. Heath still runs his meat wagon to the oil country. Go in, Wm., may you prosper.

Harry Lovel must be getting lots of mail these days, for we notice him at Starr P. O. almost every evening in the week, although the mail only comes to our office twice a week.

Mrs. Maggie McCray, of Scotch Hill, was the guest of Mrs. Geo. Osgood last week.

Abe Weller has left Starr and gone to driving team for Jno. Osgood. Well, Abe, where shall we send your mail to Kellettsville, no doubt.
