Rev. J. M. Imbrie, United Presbyterian, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening.

Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small. Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

Oil market closed yesterday 72 1/2. Opening this morning at 72 1/2.

Miss Maggie Sutton, of Pleasantville, is visiting her friend Mrs. Hayden, this week.

W. A. Eagles has disposed of the balance of his standing timber on the Helings tract to Samuel Clark, who is now taking it out.

Good news for "gummers." An eminent physician has made the somewhat doubtful discovery that gum chewing is a cure for dyspepsia.

A Mr. Oelschlagel, brother of Mrs. W. F. Blum of this place, died at his residence near Clarion, on Sunday last. We are without particulars.

Mrs. Jacob Stitzinger, of Tionesta township, had the misfortune to fall and severely injure her right arm while returning from church last Sabbath.

Chas. Raisig has disposed of all his sleighs except one—a square box, finished in elegant style, for only $30. That is certainly a bargain. Go and see it.

A coal shed belonging to Daniel Kiuch, near Lickingville, and containing several tons of coal, burned down last Wednesday. Loss about $50 dollars.

Delilah Huddleson, one of the pupils of the intermediate room, was badly hurt by falling and striking the back of her head against one of the seats, one day last week.

Representative Berry will please accept our thanks for the Annual Report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, handsomely gotten up and containing a fund of useful information.

Hon. J. B. Agnew returned from the State encampment, G. A. R., at Harrisburg on Monday, having had a grand reunion with the old battle-scarred veterans of the late unpleasantness.

Mr. Lacy still makes the best cigar sold in town and is, we are pleased to say, working up a nice trade. Our merchants should encourage his efforts by patronizing him. Ask for Lacy's cigar.

Don't forget the grand ball at the skating rink next Friday evening. The best of music will be in attendance, the rink will be decorated, floor waxed, and nothing will be left undone that would tend to the enjoyment of all who take it in.

Although the boys have a splendid coasting place on the street between the Central House and Hopkins & Co.'s store, with every opportunity in the world for a first class accident, nothing has as yet occurred to furnish us an item, and we hope there won't.

Our older class of citizens will be pained to learn of the death of Edgar D. Stow's wife, which occurred at her home in Philadelphia, on Thursday, 12th inst. Mr. Stow's many old friends in this section will sincerely sympathize with him in his great loss.

Tionesta has a new military company, the organization of which will shortly be completed. Henry Shoemaker, for several years a member of the Oil City Grays, has been selected as Captain, and will drill the boys once or twice a week at the skating rink. The other officers have not yet been decided upon. They number upwards of forty members already, and will make an effort to get organized in time to attend the inauguration of President Cleveland.

—Mr. J. T. Brennan and Rev. J. T. Michael will hold religious services in the United Brethren Church at Jerusalem Corners, one mile from Pleasantville, on next Saturday evening and Sabbath morning and evening. Love Feast and Communion Services on Sabbath morning. A cordial invitation to all.

—The eighth annual report of the State Board of Agriculture is now ready for distribution and will be sent from the office of the Board in Harrisburg on receipt of 25 cents, the actual postage on 650 pages. Members of the Legislature will furnish it to their constituents free of cost, and those from Forest county, should send a postal card to Representative Berry.

—The residents of neighboring boroughs will doubtless be interested in learning that a bill has been introduced in the state senate giving chief burgesses additional power in default of fines. This bill provides that when persons have been convicted before a burgess and a fine imposed, upon a refusal to pay the fine the burgess can commit to jail for sixty days and the borough shall be responsible for the costs of commitment.—Oil City Register.

—Court commences next Monday and will likely last a greater part of the week, judging from the size of the trial list. Prothonotary Shawkey has issued a Court Calendar embracing the names of the Court and County officers, Resident Attorneys, Rules of Court, Trial and Jury lists, together with names and addresses of all the Constables and Justices of the Peace in the county with the date of expiration of their commissions. The work was done at the REPUBLICAN office, and is therefore a neat and respectable job.

—Mr. Geo. I. Slater, the gentleman who sawed lumber for Robinson & Bonner on Little Tionesta during last summer, died rather mysteriously at his home near Neilltown, on Tuesday night of last week. The family had all gone away during the evening leaving Mr. Slater at home. Returning they found him absent, but thinking he had gone out to spend the evening with some of the neighbors, they retired for the night expecting him in at any time. The next morning the members of the family were surprised at his continued absence, and upon searching were horrified to find him dead at the barn. He was a rather corpulent man, and it is supposed expired in an apoplectic fit.

—Miss Ella Leech, teacher of Mercillott School, Jenks twp., makes the following report: Whole number in attendance during month, males 8, females 7; per cent. of attendance, males 90, females 85; names of those who have been present every day during month, Daniel Eldridge, Peter Walton,* Edgar Dodge,* Frank Dodge,* Jacob Mercillott,* Mary Mercillott, Sadie Keshers. Those marked with a star have not been tardy.

—Lizzie Guenther, teacher of Ross Run school, makes the following report for month ending Feb. 23, 1885: No. enrolled during month 14; average attendance 12; per cent. of attendance, males 100, females 85; names of those present every day during month: John Dotterer, Harry Dotterer, Samuel Felton, Emma Dotterer, Lizzie Dotterer, Ada Zende, Elsie Felton, Willie Harrington. Those absent but one day: Minnie Ikenburg, Zeta Setley.

—Peterson's Magazine for March opens with a beautiful steel-plate of two girls caught in a snow storm, and entitled "The Sisters," illustrating a powerful story by Frank Lee Benedict. In addition, there is the usual double-size fashion-plate, printed from steel, and colored by hand: "Peterson" being the only magazine to give these expensive and refined fashion plates. Besides this, there is a colored pattern for a Tidy on Java Canvas; a capital humorous illustration, "The Besieged Garrison"; and some fifty wood-cuts of fashions, embroideries, work-table designs, and other things useful to ladies. Every lady, as we have often said, ought to take this magazine. The price is but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Address Charles J. Peterson, 308 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

—We are selling Overcoats at cost to close our winter stock and make room for spring goods.

—Ballou's Monthly Magazine for March is issued and is fully up to its usual excellent standard. There is a capital illustrated article on Africa, showing the celebrated Victoria Falls—the most wonderful in the world. Then comes Mr. W. H. Holmes' story, "Laysan and the Sailor's Wandering." The other matter in Ballou's is good, and includes stories, poems, amusing matter, etc. Only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents single copy. Address, Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass.

—The election for town officers in this borough passed off very quietly yesterday. On Saturday evening the citizens met at the Court House and placed a ticket in the field, which seemed to give pretty general satisfaction. A feeble attempt was made to defeat some of the nominees, but the ticket was elected, with the exception of Judge Dale for Assistant Assessor, who was defeated by Mr. Muesenberger, independent candidate. The ticket as elected is as follows:

Burgess—Eli Holeman Council—North ward—W. I. Klinefister 2 yrs., J. R. Clark 3 yrs. South ward—Chas. Bonner 3 yrs.

High Constable—Pritner Agnew Constable—Pritner Agnew School Directors—E. L. Davis, D. S. Knox, Auditors—J. F. Proper, R. L. Haslet. Overseer of the Poor—Albert Hayden Assessor—John Reck Assistant Assessors—S. D. Irwin, John Muesenberger Judge of Elections—G. W. Sawyer Inspector of Elections—R. B. Crawford, R. L. Haslet.

Tionesta township elected the following officers: Constable and Assessor, Philip Emert; Assistant Assessors, C. W. Clark, R. M. Carson; Auditor, D. G. Hunter; Judge of Elections, Philip Emert; Inspectors, Geo. Armstrong, C. G. Huff; Clerk, J. G. Carson; School Directors, Wm. Young, C. W. Clark, Wm. Lawrence; Road Commissioner, G. W. Zents; Justices of the Peace, R. M. Carson, J. C. Hoovler; Overseer of the Poor, J. R. Stroup; Path Masters—No. 1 Michael Fitzgerald, 3 C. W. Clark, 7 Wm. Young, 8 Michael Mong, 9 Andy Menly, 10 Fred. Stitzinger, 11 John Wolf.

Who are the "toughs?" Quite a number of the Balltown voters attended the caucus at Gusher. Among them were Wm. Hawks, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Griffin, Mr. G. being the only popular one, or so it would seem, as he received the nomination for school director. We congratulate him; he is the right man in the right place.

Messrs. Mason, Smith and McCarty gave a musical entertainment at the Porky Pump Station on Saturday afternoon last, which seems to have been quite a select affair, as only particular friends from Garfield and Porky were present. I believe foreigners were admitted. Be assured, gentlemen, Balltown forgives a slight but never forgets.

Our congenial friends, Mr. and Mrs. Macon bid farewell to their many friends last week. They go on an extended visit to relatives and friends in the lower oil field, and in all probability will not return, as Mr. M. thinks seriously of going into business elsewhere. All who have become acquainted with them will regret very much their going.

Wouldn't it be well for young ladies, who travel by stage, to guard their remarks, unless they know which way the wind blows? Mr. Darron was around last week calling on his numerous customers. He makes himself very agreeable and his trade is increasing.

Our boys and girls are having a gay time coasting: Yes, and our big boys, too: Obarley, Earny, John, Ed., Tom, etc. Mrs. Leak and husband, of Clarendon, Mrs. Anderson's sister, are here spending a few days.

We are happy to chronicle two marriages this week, Mr. Geo. McBride and Miss Lyda Bereh, and Mr. James McBride and Miss Thomas. The ceremony was to be solemnized in Warren Church, Tuesday, Feb. 10. All young men please note this: the McBride Brothers built their cages and furnished them before securing the birds. We congratulate you on your judgment and choice, pro. and con. The skating rink was well attended Saturday night. Balltown was out in full force, and a sleighing party from Tionesta was present. We are glad to see our neighbors. Come again. Business must be on the decline with the grocery and medicine man at Garfield, or else style and custom are different in that locality. The Strongman, Frenchman and Medicine man are seen Saturday afternoon perched high up on so many empty dry goods boxes, in a two horse sled, calling at several prominent places. First, the Frenchman stops at the Middletown, to give his French lesson. But the Strongman and Medicine man have patience and they wait and wait. Next the Strongman's time comes and he stops for a Birch, and lo! The medicine man—continued in next week's issue.

Query—Did any body see any body from Balltown in Garfield with or without her best fellow, any time this winter? Xyz.
