The Press comes to the new year with the largest circulation, the best equipment and the fullest requirements of the complete newspaper which it has ever enjoyed. The past year has been one of great growth. These increased facilities and resources give it the means of being even a better newspaper than ever before.

The political change lends added interest and obligation to the future. The Press faces new duties with undaunted spirit. It is Republican in principle, untrammelled in expression, with faith in the intelligent masses and fealty to purer politics. It is especially devoted to the national policy of Protection as the bulwark of American interests and industries.

Above all, it will maintain its pre-eminence as a complete General and Family News; aper.

The Weekly Press excels in all the elements of a first-class General and Family weekly newspaper. It is especially adapted to the wants of all who desire a concise and comprehensive presentation of the news of the day with interesting
