The Pleasantville correspondent was not entirely correct in regard to the death of Mr. Slater: His wife is not dead, but is an invalid, and was visiting with friends in Mercer county ; he was not running a stave mill, but was sawing ties and other lumber. His son will continue the business for the present.

Mrs. Smith, a lady nearly eighty years of age is threatened with typhoid fever.

Neilltown, we think, has more old people than any town in the county : it has eighteen persons over 65 years of age, the oldest being 92 years.

The Burchfield boys are both away at present.
