—W. L. Corbett, B. J. Reid and James Boggs are announced in Clarion county for President Judge of the district composed of Clarion and Jefferson counties.
—Representative Berry stopped in town a few hours Monday enroute for his post at Harrisburg. He had been called to Buffalo, N. Y., to attend the funeral of a niece.

—The weather this morning looks just a trifle "equally," and if the rain should continue many hours there will likely be some pretty badly swollen streams hereabouts.
—Mr. John Muenzenberger received the sad intelligence from Germany on Monday that his father had died on the 14th of March. He had attained the ripe old age of 80 years.

—A storm passed over this section last Sunday afternoon accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning. We believe this means more cold weather, according to an old theory.
—"Golden Days" for April has come to hand freighted as usual with pleasant reading for the young people, to whom it is always a welcome guest. James Elverson, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa.

—Hon. John S. McCallmont, of Franklin, has been appointed Commissioner of Customs by President Cleveland. The position was formerly held by Henry C. Johnston of Meadville. The salary is $4,000 a year and the office is located at Washington.

—The "Tionesta Express," driven by W. A. Eagles made its first appearance yesterday morning on our streets. It is a handsome, new dray wagon turned out by Chas. Raisig, and will always be found on the streets during business hours ready to accommodate those having goods to haul.

—On April 1st, Governor Pattison nominated Rev. E. E. Higbee superintendent of public instruction for another term. His reappointment is a great surprise to the democrats who had expected a partisan appointment. Among the applicants were Professor Roth, of Meadville, Bobb, of Lock Haven, Hone, of Allentown, Heiges, of Shippensburg and Schaffer, of Kutztown.

—On Monday morning the teacher of Smoky Hill school was astounded on reaching the school house to find that the school house had been broken into by some unknown villain, the stove-pipe pulled down and thrown on the floor, and the stove overturned. The party or parties had had a fire in the stove, and had upset the stove with fire in it. A hole about 4 feet square was burned in the floor and fire was yet burning in one of the joists.

—Garden Seeds, and Prime Western Clover and Timothy Seed at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co's. 2t.

—At the annual meeting of the M. E. Sabbath School board, held at the church on Monday of last week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, J. H. Dingman; Asst. Supt's. Harvey M. Foreman and P. M. Clark; Secretary, J. H. Fones, assistant, Eli Holeman; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Dewees; Librarian, C. M. Shawkey, assistant, Cora Knox; Organist, Maud Van Giesen. A full corps of teachers was also elected, a constitution adopted, and regular meetings fixed for the first Monday in each month.

—On Monday in digging up an old drain leading from the cellar of N. S. Foreman's house the workmen found that the ground was frozen to the depth of three and one-half feet. And yet there are quite a number of parties in town waiting for the frost to leave the ground so they can dig cellars and lay foundations for new houses.

—Miss Anna Harrison, of whom we spoke in our last issue as lying seriously ill with typhoid fever at Russell's mills, died on Thursday of last week, and was brought to this place Saturday for interment. She was known and esteemed by many of our citizens as a young lady of modest and pleasant disposition. Her age was about 19 years.

—The funeral of the late A. J. Landers took place here on Thursday last, his remains being laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery. Besides the members of Forest Lodge, A. O. U. W., to which he belonged, a very large concourse of citizens and friends followed the remains to their last resting place. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. F. M. Small in the M. E. Church.

—Last Thursday afternoon as Byron Landers, of Neiltown, was returning home from his brother's funeral, his team took fright at a passing train near the depot, ran quite a distance and upset the back in which were seated his wife, two children and Joe Landers. Mr. Landers was bruised somewhat as was also Joe; Mrs. Landers was so severely injured that she could not proceed farther that day, but remained in town until this week one day. The two children, strange to say, escaped injury.

—The ice in the river at this place commenced to move on Thursday afternoon last about four o'clock, and within two hours the river was comparatively clear. At about half past nine in the night, however, a heavy gorge came down which filled the river more than bank full, and backed the water some distance over the flats, and causing many of the front street families to vacate their houses. Fortunately no serious damage was done, and the water began to recede rapidly about eleven o'clock. The river is now comparatively clear of ice from its source, and the dangers from a bad break-up are past for this spring, let us be thankful.

—Trains on the river division of the E. N. Y. & P. R. have been more or less delayed for the past week. The cause has been the tearing up of the track on West Hickory flats about four miles above Tionesta. During the flood on Thursday night the water overflowed the banks at that place and the ice crowded the railroad track off its bed for a distance of about a mile and a half, tearing down a long trestle on which stood five cars of coal. It is said the road bed was covered with ice to a depth of two to ten feet. A large force of men has been at work and all trains are on time again. Passengers were transferred in wagons up to the gorge.

April Meeting of Stow Post.

April 1, 1885, Post opened in due form J. B. Agnew, Commander, in the chair. D. S. Knox appointed Officer of the Day pro tem. There was a good attendance; among those present out side of Borough were comrades John Anderson and Oliver Bierly. J. V. C. Black stated he had visited Com. W. R. Small and that he was improving in health, and had been visited by some of our members in the vicinity. The death of Com. Wm. B. Albaugh, at Cobham on 30th ult. was announced, and a committee of three was appointed to draft resolutions of respect, consisting of P. C., Knox, Q. M., Johnston and P. C., Bovard.

A Committee of three consisting of P. C., Knox, S. V., Morrow, and Adj. Irwin was appointed to draft a program for the observance of Memorial Day to report at next meeting. Circulars were read and a petition signed favoring a bill in the legislature for the establishment of a Soldier's Home in Pa., which was signed by all present; same to be forwarded to Rep. Berry, at Harrisburg. As heretofore the Post desires the cordial co-operation of the citizens of Forest County regarding Memorial Day, so as to make it successful as in former years and that the day may be properly observed by all. S. D. IRWIN, Adj.

Reflections.

Finding how short-lived is everything terrestrial, should we on that account be sad and desponding? On the contrary we should learn to make the most of the passing hours; try to adapt ourselves to existing circumstances. Yesterday the sun shone, everything seemed bright; to-night all is dark; the storm wages fiercely without; we hear the dreary rain beating piteously against the windows. Sitting alone we have drifted into a chaos of conflicting thoughts, shall we despair? Rather let us think, "even time it shall be light." Fully realizing that nine-tenths of the worry of life is borrowed, let us gather new courage; do your part no difference how small you may think it; to some despairing one it may seem great. Be cheerful, industrious, prudent, then; throw anxiety to the winds. We read, "sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof," so also is the good of the day usually sufficient if he will only make it so. Then remember, it is not enough to enjoy yourself. Selfish enjoyment may prove incomplete; give your over-laden companions a lift with their onerous loads; try the "lift cure" for neighboring ills. Life is made up of little things; the commonplace affairs of every day life that scatter either sunshine or shadow around your path. Hope, Help, Love. These are good words to speak and hear spoken; good at morning, noon, or night; at the beginning of the year, throughout the year, and at its closing. Then let life be long or short, "let us live while we live," not for ourselves alone, but for ourselves and others, so that when we "go hence" that the path we leave for others to tread may be garnished with sunshine instead shadow.

DIED.

WHITLEY.—In Conneautville, March 25, 1885, of consumption, after a lingering illness, Miss Carrie Cowles Whitley, daughter of the late Dr. Wilburn Whitley, aged 31 years, 11 months and 28 days. Funeral on the following Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The subject of the above notice was born in Tionesta, where she was well and favorably remembered by our older class of citizens. Moving with her parents to Conneautville when yet a child, she grew into womanhood and became one of the shining lights of the best society of the community. She was blessed with a sweet nature which endeared her to those around her, and in the church and Sabbath school, while in health, she was a devoted worker. Eight years ago she contracted a severe cold from which she never recovered. Her memory will long be cherished by her old friends here.
