WORK AT HARRISBURG.

Special to REPUBLICAN.

HARRISBURG, May 11, '85.

A surprise was tendered the members of the House and Senate Friday morning by the return by the Governor without his approval House Bill No. 10. It caused great excitement in the House and all over the city. The bill authorizes and requires the County Commissioners of each county in the State to appoint a sufficient number of suitable persons in each township and ward of their County, at the expense of the County, to look after, bury, and provide a headstone for the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine who served in the army or navy of the United States during the late rebellion, or any preceding war, and shall hereafter die in their county, leaving insufficient means to defray the necessary funeral expenses.

THE money in the United States treasury has been counted, with the result of finding a shortage of only two cents. This suggests the remark as it will then be passed over the veto, as it is sincerely to be hoped that the members of a Republican House and Senate will not dishonor the party by going with a Democratic Governor in his attempt to slap in the face soldiers of the late and preceding wars in this country. As a matter of policy Gov. Pattison could not possibly have done anything more ill advised; from the higher plane of right and duty his action becomes the more dutiful and partisan the more carefully his alleged reasons for it are scrutinized.

The following appropriation bills passed finally: $110,000 for Penna Training School; $66,000 for Dixmont Hospital; $133,000 for House of Refuge, Phila.; $5,000 for Erie Home for Friendless Children.

HENRI WATTERSON at last dared he had roads from Louisville to Washington and called the other day to see the President. It is said he was very pleasantly entertained and we incline to believe it from the fact that up to date there has been no sulphurous thunder heard from Kentucky since his visit. That does not after all indicate that the dry nursing of the administration policy is to be placed in the hands of Watterson's Star-eyed Goddess and Singery's Hoolstein Heifer.

THE Philadelphia Times says "The President is agreeable to everybody." If ex-Senator Doolittle should see this announcement he would probably come from behind the haystack where he has been hiding for some months, and venture to wink facetiously at the President in hope of an invitation to come forward and give him the benefit of his (the ex-Senator's) experience as to the proper way in which to run the Government. The last time he tried it on, as will be remembered, the President was not in a very good humor, and the repulse he administered has kept Mr. Doolittle in hiding ever since.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 9 '85.

The contest over the Illinois Senatorship will be renewed at Springfield in less than a week. Meantime the struggle is transferred to Washington. Morrison is laying his wires to get the legislature well in hand on the renewal of its efforts to fill Senator Logan's seat. Two groups of Illinois statesmen were assembled at Willard's to-day. Mr. Morrison was the center of one group, and was earnestly presenting his case. The other was made up of men who think the great tariff reducer should get out of the way and give some one else a chance. Among the latter was Thomas Mulhern, the democratic member of the legislature, who will not vote for Morrison. Mr. Mulhern said that if Morrison withdrew Black or Oberly would stand a good chance of election. Oberly, he thought, would be a very strong man. Inasmuch as Mulhern's vote is the one that stands in Morrison's way, this seems to settle the question as far as Morrison is concerned. The anti-Morrison men, several of whom came in to-day, are understood to be here to checkmate him, and a very pretty little game of political chess is going on in the lobby at Willards. The feeling is that matters can't stay long as they now are and that the legislature will either elect promptly or adjourn without electing.

The count of the money in the Treasury is now in progress, and your correspondent was conducted through the great silver vault the other day while the work was going on. The vault is as big as a house, and will hold about fifty million silver dollars. Squatted down in the aisle of the vault, with a light and a pair of scales between them, were the committee, with their heads together like traditional misers counting their money. One man stood in a cell, on one side of them, passing out the bags of silver (a thousand dollars in a bag), which were weighed and numbered and then passed to the next man, who stowed it away in the next cell. There are about ten million silver dollars thus counted—or, rather, weighed—and it will take about ten days to get through with it.

THE money in the United States treasury has been counted, with the result of finding a shortage of only two cents. This suggests the remark as it will then be passed over the veto, as it is sincerely to be hoped that the members of a Republican House and Senate will not dishonor the party by going with a Democratic Governor in his attempt to slap in the face soldiers of the late and preceding wars in this country.

MEMORIAL DAY, 1885.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 9.

HQRS, DEPT OF PA., GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, Philadelphia, May 6th, 1885.

COMRADES OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC: Another year in life's campaign brings us again to Memorial Day with its sad memories and tender associations, and as the Nation bends over the graves of its heroes and pays to noble dust the tribute of its love, let us remember that we are not only to cast our floral offerings on the graves of former comrades-in-arms, but standing in their presence to re-dedicate ourselves to the unfinished work they have left us to do.

We shall stand on this Memorial Day at the graves of comrades who marched with us one year ago. At these graves we are reminded that our ranks here are rapidly thinning, and with each vacant place come new and weightier responsibilities.

Their work is done, their mission ended. To us, their comrades, is given the duty of keeping fresh and green their memories, of perpetuating and transmitting intact to posterity the country perfected by their sacrifices and sufferings. Resting from their labors, the story of their lives jeweled by deeds of valor and patriotism, shall inspire in the hearts of all the people a love for country and flag, that shall keep the land forever united, beautiful and free.

Let memorial services be held in such places of worship at which Posts may be able to attend, and in the Sanctuary let us thank God, that it was our privilege to live in a time, when hosts of brave men died for humanity's sake, and when the greatest and grandest army in the history of the world proclaimed liberty throughout the land and to all the inhabitants thereof.

By Command of AUSTIN CURTIN, Department Commander.

THOS. J. STEWART, Assistant Adjutant General.

2. A cordial invitation is extended to soldiers in this vicinity, who will march with the Post, whether they are members or not. The Sunday schools, and the different Orders, and the public generally, are invited to be present and participate with us in the ceremonies of the day.
