

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—ELI HOLMANN.
Constable—North ward, H. M. Foreman, J. R. Clark, W. L. Kinlespie, South ward, J. H. Pones, W. A. Eagles, Chas. Bonner.
Justices of the Peace—J. T. Brennan, D. S. Knox, Constable—Pittner Agnew.
School Directors—G. W. Robinson, A. B. Kelly, J. H. Dingman, D. S. Knox, J. W. Morrow, H. S. Brookway.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—ALEXANDER C. WHITE.
Member of Senate—J. G. HALL.
Assembly—PETER HENRY.
President Judge—W. D. BROOKS.
Associate Judges—C. A. HILL, LEWIS ABERN.
Treasurer—W. M. SNEARBAUGH.
Prothonotary, Register & Recorder, &c.—CURTIS M. SHAWKEY.
Sheriff—LEONARD AGNEW.
Commissioners—OLIVER BYERLY, WM. SHILBY, J. R. CHADWICK.
County Superintendent—J. E. HILLARD.
District Attorney—T. J. VANGIENEN.
Jury Commissioners—H. O. DAVIS, DAVID WALTERS.
County Surveyor—H. C. WHITTEKIN.
Clerk—Dr. J. W. MORROW.
County Auditor—J. A. SCOTT, THOS. CORAN, GEO. ZUNDL.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE No. 369. I. O. O. F.
MEETS every Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lodge Room in Partridge's Hall.
J. P. HULING, N. G.
W. SAWYER, Sec'y.

FOREST LODGE, No. 184, A. O. U. W.
Meets every Friday Evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa.
W. C. COBURN, M. W.
J. E. WENK, Recorder.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274, G. A. R.
Meets on the first Wednesday in each month, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa.
D. S. KNOX, Commander.

AGNEW & CLARK, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Elm St. Tionesta, Penna.

T. J. VANGIENEN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, and District Attorney of Forest County, Office in Court House, Tionesta, Pa.

L. DAVIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa.
Collections made in this and adjoining counties.

MILES W. TATE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Elm Street, Tionesta, Pa.

J. E. RITCHIEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Forest County Pa.

AWENGE HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa.
L. T. C. Jackson, Proprietor. This house is centrally located. Everything nice and well furnished. Superior accommodations and strict attention given to guests. Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds served in their season. Sample room for Commercial Agents.

CENTRAL HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa.
O. C. Brownell, Proprietor. This is a new house, and has just been fitted up for the accommodation of the public. A portion of the patronage of the public is solicited.

EAST HICKORY HOTEL, TIONESTA, PA.
J. W. BALL, Proprietor. This house is centrally located, and has a first-class barn in connection with it. The traveling public will find it a pleasant stopping place. First-class fare in connection with the Hotel.

CENTRAL HOUSE, OIL CITY, PA.
W. H. ROTH, Proprietor.
The largest, Best Located and Furnished House in the City. Near Union Depot.

J. W. MORROW, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,
Late of Armstrong county, having located in Tionesta is prepared to attend all professional calls promptly and at all hours. Office in Snearbaugh & Co.'s new building, on stairs. Office hours 7 to 8 A. M., and 11 to 12 M., 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Sundays, 9 to 10 A. M.; 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Residence in Clark House, near Post Office. may-18-85.

W. C. COBURN, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,
Has had over fifteen years experience in the practice of his profession, having graduated legally and honorably May 16, 1869. Office and Residence in Judge Rock's house, opposite the M. E. Church, Tionesta, Pa. Aug. 26-1880

DENTISTRY. DR. J. W. MORROW.
Having purchased the materials &c., of Dr. Steadman, would respectfully announce that he will carry on the Dental business in Tionesta, and having had over six years successful experience, considers himself fully competent to give entire satisfaction. I shall always give my medical practice the preference. mar-22-82.

H. B. MAY, A. B. KELLY
MAY, PARK & CO., BANKERS!

Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts. Tionesta. Bank of Discount and Deposit.
Interest allowed on Time Deposits.
Collections made on all the Principal points of the U. S.
Collections solicited. 18-1y.

LORENZO FULTON, Manufacturer of and Dealer in

HARNESS, COLLARS, BRIDLES, And all kinds of HORSE FURNISHING GOODS.

MAY 13 TIONESTA, PA.

SUBSCRIBE for the REPUBLICAN, only $1.50 per annum.

JAMES T. BRENNAN.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS CLERK.
Real Estate Agent & Conveyancer.
TIONESTA, Forest County, Pa.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small.
—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Preaching in the F. M. Church next Sunday morning at 10:30, by Rev. J. D. Rhodes.

—Miss Ada Payne, of Tylersburg, visited the Misses Jackson during the week.

—Dr. Hottel, Balltown's skillful and pleasant physician, paid Tionesta a visit last Friday.

—The Maple Creek Lumber Company will soon have their mill at Redcliffe in running order.

—The bass fishing season opened on May 1st.—Titusville Citizen. No it didn't, nor won't until June 1st.

—R. M. Herman has just got in a fresh lot of oranges, pine apples, bananas, lettuce and onions. Go and see and buy.

—A new porch and sidewalk has been laid "ferment" the Lawrence House, which adds much to the comfort and appearance of the place.

—W. C. Wilson, the famous old Buckeye Blacksmith, took advantage of a short leave of absence to visit his children at Bradford last week.

—Charlie Elder of Clarington, while in Pittsburgh recently attending to his lumber business had the misfortune to have his pocket picked.

—As per notice published elsewhere in this issue the grand jurors drawn for May term, of court are notified that their attendance will not be required.

—William Clyde, living near Raughts, Elk Co., but well known to many of the readers of the REPUBLICAN, lost his house and lot and all in it not long since by fire.

—E. C. Mays, at one time sheriff of Forest Co., has moved with his family back to Clarington from which place he moved away to try his fortunes elsewhere seven or eight years ago.

—Michael Calliman, an inmate of the North Warren Insane Hospital, for several years at the expense of Harmony township, this county, died at that institution on Monday of this week.

—Surveyors Smith of Titusville, Wheelock of Warren, and Whittekin of Tionesta, with a full corps of assistants decamped for the headwaters of Coon creek yesterday, where they have a big job of surveying on hand.

—Mr. I. G. Butterfield, of Emlenton, paid his brother, G. G., a visit, remaining over last Sabbath. He is the same happy "Is" that he always was, and it seemed to do his many old friends here good to meet him once more.

—We hear it stated on pretty reliable authority that Messrs. Kellett & Co. will build an extensive tannery on the site of their extract works, recently burned down. We hope this may be true, as the project would not only be a paying investment but would be a grand boost to the prosperity of our county.

—A. L. Gordon Esq., one of Brookville's most prominent lawyer's died at the St. Cloud Hotel, Philadelphia, on the 3d inst., whither he had gone to receive medical treatment, his trouble being an abscess. He was a brother of Judge Isaac Gordon, of the Supreme Court of this State, and was well known to many of our readers.

—The following item from the pen of our friend Rob. Hoskins, of the Bathgate (D. T.) Sentinel, and who was married last fall, may or may not mean something, but anyhow it looks as though some people still hold to the maxim that, in time of peace its well enough to prepare for war: "Why do not some of our enterprising merchants lay in a stock of baby carriages. From all appearances there will be quite a demand for them—the nice side-walks are so conducive to wheeling the infantile products of Dakota."

—The Millstone Co. at Millstone, Elk Co. are putting a new boiler and engine into their mill. The engine weighs seven tons. It is being hauled from Arthur's, Clarion Co. through Forest and has terrorized every bridge over which it has been hauled.

—The new oil field at Cogley Run, Clarion county is rather difficult of access for those of the upper country. Mr. Brownell of the Central House wishes us to state that the route is made easy from this place, and he will guarantee to transport all passengers that get off at this station to the scene of the new field safely, quickly and comfortably. He keeps the best of rigs.

—A correspondent informs us that A. R. Slaughterhoop, a worthy citizen of Barnett, will erect a dwelling for himself in the village of Clarington the coming summer. The same correspondent also tells us that the road opened between Clarington and Buttonwood Eddy, along the creek bank and bill, when cleaned of the Spring slides, will be open permanently for travel. It was used during the winter sleighing.

—Clark Kepler, a son of G. M. Kepler, a young man who is determined to see what the boundless west has in store for him, will leave on Monday morning for Seattle, Washington territory, near which place he expects to locate. He has an abundance of pluck and will doubtless succeed in his new venture.—Blizard.

We hope Clark will make a good-sized wad and come back some day and spend it with his friends.

—Court convenes next Monday, and although the grand jury has been notified not to attend, there will doubtless be sufficient business to make the attendance quite large. We will be more delighted than ever to "see" our patrons on that occasion, as the masons who are putting up the foundation for our new house have served notice that they will expect a settlement about that time. And, well, we'll be pleased to see you all, at any rate.

—Last Saturday, May 9th, these parts were visited by a real strong, healthy snow storm; one that would have done credit to a November day. Sunday and Monday were also equally, with more or less snow falling. In town the "beautiful" melted as fast as it fell, but out on the hills we understand the ground was quite decently covered with her. This may not be news to our near-about readers, but it will serve as a record whereby future liars may be guided.

—Monday Mr. W. R. Dano, who has been stopping in town since January, took his departure again for the western country, expecting to make Colorado his future abode; that is, if the attractions in a business and social way are sufficiently great to hold him. We hope for him that success which should come to a scrupulously honest and upright man; one whose word is his bond in all things. Mr. Dano's wife and daughter will remain here until he has selected a location.

—During the recent rafting season George Milliron, of Kellettville, this county, went to Pittsburgh on one of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co.'s rafts. While there he became violently insane, laboring under the hallucination that he was owner of all the lumber on the wharfs. The Pittsburgh authorities telegraphed the overseers of the poor of Kingsley township, but they refused to take any action until legal process was properly instituted. Two of his brothers from Jefferson county have since taken him to his native home. He was inflicted with a similar attack on a former occasion. He has a wife and several children.

—For about three weeks back Messrs. Wheeler & Dusenbury's, at East Hickory, have been missing change from their store till. Being at a loss to know what became of it they instituted a watch and succeeded in catching one of the perpetrators in the act on Sunday night. This led to the arrest of three young boys, George Arnold, Pent. Keiffer and Charles Harger, who were brought to this place on Monday by Constable Connelly, and after a hearing before Esquire Brennan, they were bound over in the sum of $100 each. Arnold and Keiffer were bailed for their appearance, but Harger, being unable to secure bail was confined in the bastille. None of these boys are over 16 years of age, and it was with a great deal of reluctance that they were thus dealt with. It will, however, serve as a great lesson to them, which, if heeded, may yet make good citizens of them. It is a severe blow to the parents and friends of the boys, who are among the best citizens of the community.

—The borough schools closed yesterday afternoon for the term, at which time all the pupils indulged in public exercises in the assembly room of the building. The readings, recitations, dialogues, &c., were all nicely rendered and the little ones seemed in a happy mood. The past term of school has been a very successful one if we are to take the average progress of the scholars as a guide, and so far as we can learn each teacher rendered perfect satisfaction.

—The widow of Alfred Riker, whose death occurred some five weeks ago, received Thursday of last week, just four weeks after his death, from Penn. Lodge No. 10, A. O. U. W., of this place the sum of $2,000 being the amount of insurance he held. Mr. Riker was a poor man and had a family of seven children, one an infant, and had he not wisely provided for them they would have been left in want, as it is, the money secured to them will, with judicious management, provide for them until they are able to care for themselves. He had been a member of the above lodge for about six years, and paid in less than $150.—Parker Phoenix. Mr. Riker was a nephew of our townsman, S. S. Canfield.

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building. He has come here for the purpose of filling orders, and will stay about two months. At his rooms he has for inspection some portraits painted by him, and among them one of Judge McCrary and other well known people of our city. Doubtless there are but few who have not noticed the handsome portrait in Thorn's windows, the work of Mr. Greaves, and generally supposed to be an ideal head, but it is to the contrary, from the original. So well known is Mr. Greaves as a leading and finished artist that to mention the high character of his work is hardly necessary. He is a pupil of Thomas LeClear, the famous New York artist, and his portraits have received the highest encomiums all over this country. In addition to his own work he has also a collection of the work of some of his pupils, which also shows his ability as a teacher."

—The Kansas City Times, the leading paper west of St. Louis, has the following handsome compliment for Warren's artist: "Lovers of art will be pleased to learn that Mr. William A. Greaves, one of the most celebrated portrait painters of the east is in the city, and located temporarily at rooms 57 and 58 Shielding building.