Nebraska Notes.

Mr. Gilfillan of Meadville, a former resident of this place, is sojourning with us for a few weeks, being engaged in putting up a new slabbridge; the old being taken away by the ice.

The first barge was launched and started for Pittsburgh, Friday last. It was piloted by Nelt. Cole. Two flat-boats loaded with lumber were also started for the same market.

Miss Marie Jackson spent the afternoon in this place, Wednesday, as the guest of Mrs. J. B. Haggerty.

Miss Gertie Thompson has returned home from a prolonged stay at Kellettville. The young folks welcome her back.

Jake Smith has vacated his home on the "Bluff" recently. Will now be found at Lacy's Mille.

Fagundus Items.

Harmony township loses one of its best citizens on account of our friend Peter C. Blocher having, with his family, moved onto his farm in Tionesta township, where he expects to make a permanent home. It is with regret that his neighbors in Fagundus and Berrytown part with him, for he is a kind, square, upright honest-dealing man, as any person will learn who has business with him. We wish him and his family success in their new

There is little or no gardening done here yet. Fagundus, May 18, 1885.

Kellettville Items.

Summer is at last approaching, and we can see all our worthy gentlemen gardening.

We are glad to inform our friends that Judge Arner is recovering from his stroke of apoplexy as fast as can be expected.

Mr. P. Zirley, a resident of this place, has moved to Thompson Station, near Tidioute, where he intends improving his time in taking out railroad ties.

Mr. C. M. Whiteman has fenced in his lot recently, and planted some potatoes; we wish him an abundant crop of the valuable "Murphy."

The boys of this vicinity have been fishing for suckers so long with hook and line that they now resort to the method of taking chloroform and a hatchet and dive down in the water. hold chloroform to their noses till they become delirious and then hit 'em on the head with the hatchet.

Mrs. Geo. Klump has returned from a visit at Tionesta.

Mrs. R. R. Andrews is now visiting friends in Smethport, Pa. Kellettville, May 18, 1885.
