The attention of the election boards is respectfully called to the Rules governing Primary Elections in this county, and which will be published in the FOREST REPUBLICAN in due time. We also call the attention of the different election boards to the following Act of Assembly, pamphlet laws of 1881, page 128, "that from and after the passage of this Act it is hereby made the duties of the Judges, Inspectors and Clerks, or other officers of the Primary Elections, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, severally to take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation in the presence of each other, in form as follows, namely:—"

"I do (affirm or solemnly swear) that I will as Judge, Inspector or Clerk (as the case may be) at the ensuing election impartially and faithfully perform my duties in accordance with the laws and constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the Republican party of the County of Forest, for the government of said primary elections, meeting or caucus, to the best of my judgment and ability."

We trust every Republican will turn out and see that a full vote is polled.
C. A. RANDALL,
Chairman of Republican Co. Com.

You may perhaps have noted that those who flirted with the Goddess of Free Trade have been sadly left—notably Henri Waterson and William Morrison. And your Uncle Randall is still on top.

SECRETARY MANNING is anxious to improve the appearance of the paper currency, and public sentiment will support him in it. The appearance of our paper currency should be, for instance, a good deal more frequent.

JOHN P. ST. JOHN asserts that in all the qualities of morality and good government the South is in advance of the North. It must be remembered, however, that the South has no demagogues like St. John to debase her politics and impede her progress.
—Phila. Press.

THE President is said to have made out a list of the names of senators and congressmen who have deceived him into appointing bad men to office. If this is true, it would be interesting to know whose name is first on the roll—the man who recommended Keiley, the man who endorsed Higgins, or the one who endorsed Pillsbury.

THE new postal card will be a delicate pink. We betray no secrets in stating that Postmaster-general Vilas thinks seriously of having the mail bags printed in old gold with a four-inch dado of bird's-egg blue and a large daisy in each corner. Reform and art are going hand in hand clear through the whole civil service.

THE Governor has vetoed the Legislative and Congressional apportionment bills. As the latter bill placed Forest county in a congressional district composed of the fearfully Democratic counties of Elk, Clarion, Clearfield, Centre and Clinton, the Republicans of this county will not be apt to cry over the veto, nor will they care to see it passed over the Governor's head, notwithstanding his flimsy excuse for refusing to sign it.

THIS is a literary Administration, Miss Cleveland having her book in press, while Secretary Endicott has got his novel along to the thirty-fourth chapter, in which Phineas Snagsby, the Cape Cod whaler, sails off in the night to avenge himself upon his wife, who refused to give him mince pie for breakfast. The literary treat of the Administration, however, will be Secretary Bayard's forthcoming novelette, entitled "What I Know About Diplomacy; a Tragedy in Three Months and One Chapter."

GOVERNOR HILL, of New York, is early being familiarized with the unpleasant odor his folly in partisan vetoes has cast about him. Some of the Democratic papers, conspicuously the World, still try to cover him from public obloquy, but others refuse to so stultify themselves. The Staats Zeitung, for instance, speaks very plainly, as follows: "Never has a party been brought by the party spirit of its leaders into a more miserable position. The Republicans may be sure of victory if they only know enough to appeal to the morality and intelligence, the best feelings of the people." Just so.

THE Democratic papers are becoming restless under the claims put forth by the Mugwumps of great strength and an ability to control the next election for governor in New York State. If this is the situation, and the New York Post enters into an elaborate argument to prove that it is so, the Buffalo Courier inquires why the Mugwumps don't nominate and elect their own ticket. Then, the latter paper says, they would not be compelled to denounce a platform and vote for the candidates running on it, or praise one man on a ticket and abuse all of his associate candidates, or be compelled to shift, as now, from one party to another. The Courier's position seems to be well taken. Suppose the Mugwumps follow its advice.

The sentence imposed by Judge Van Brunt, of New York, upon Juror Munsell of imprisonment for thirty days and a fine of $250 has been annulled by the General Term. Mr. Munsell, after two weeks' stay in jail, by virtue of the mandate of an arbitrary judge, is permitted to go at large again and his fine is remitted. Judge Van Brunt's brothers on the bench let him down as easily as possible. They can hardly find words too strong to express their condemnation of a juror who, being in doubt about a matter submitted in evidence, went and made an observation for himself, but they concluded that his offense was a misdemeanor to be punished upon by a jury and not a contempt of court to be punished summarily by a judge. Doubtless jurors should control themselves with the evidence which they receive in the court-room, but the wrath which Juror Munsell's innocent desire for outside enlightenment excited in the breast of Judge Van Brunt and the spirit and severity with which it was punished, furnish a timely argument in favor of that ancient, but not always honored, system of trial by jury as distinguished from trial by judge.

An Advisory Board Needed.

It seems, as though, the President stands sadly in need of an Advisory Board. He is being deceived on all hands, and can no longer trust even his own Cabinet. No President in the history of the country has made so many serious blunders in the matter of appointments in so short a time, and the necessity is forced upon him of carefully investigating every case in order to avoid mistakes. He is besieged by delegations of unprincipled political hacks who have no hesitation in recommending unfit men for office, and who too often succeed in gaining their ends.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun directs attention to this matter, and says the evil has become so serious that it has compelled the Administration to go slow in making appointments. "Were it to act on the unprincipled recommendations these men have made to it," says the correspondent, "without taking time to investigate, it would become involved in such scandal that it would be overwhelmed at the fall elections."

This is a sad commentary on the general character of the Democratic party. The most prodigious blunder Mr. Cleveland made was in the organization of his Cabinet. Had that been different he might have escaped much of the annoyance and mortification to which he has been subjected. As it is, the best thing he can do is to select an Advisory Board of discreet, experienced, high-minded and honorable men, who will keep an eye on the Cabinet recommendations, turn a cold shoulder to office-bucksters and dead-beats, and see that murderers, aiders and abettors of assassination, horse-thieves, forgers and common drunkards are not honored with office under this "reform" Administration.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST! HOW RESTORED!
Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical Cure of Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence, or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
