LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with 2 columns: NORTH, SOUTH. Train 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35.

—The meeting at Whig Hill still continues.

—Hickory Twp. will add another to her number of schools this year.

—The F. M. brethren are holding tent services at the mouth of Ross Run.

—The schools in Barnett with the exception of the one at Cooksburg are open for a two months Summer term.

—Jenks Twp. will build a house near the Gault Farm and consolidate the school at Reek's and Mercillott's.

—Howe Twp. has built a school-house and established a school at Watson's and will probably establish another at Dunham's Mill.

—Delegates from a part of the school-boards of the county met in the Superintendent's office yesterday.

—From all reports the Whig Hill oil well is good for six.

—See notice of the old school house and lot for sale in another column.

—Geo. Weant is building a fine barn on his farm on the Tylersburg road, Tionesta township.

—Assessor Reek has been around for a few days past prying into the affairs of our taxable inhabitants.

—Representative Berry is in town this week. He looks fine after his winter sojourn at the State Capital.

—Harley W. Fisher Esq., one of Oil City's rising young lawyers, was shaking hands with old friends on our streets yesterday.

—H. M. Dighton has moved his paint shop into Blum's wagon shop, where he is prepared to do all work coming in his line.

—Wonder if the present boom in matrimony is caused by the fact that on and after the first of October it will be necessary to take out a license?

—H. J. Hopkins, the wide-awake head of the firm bearing his name in this place is now in the eastern cities purchasing goods.

—The suit of Davis vs. Berry, testing the title of a piece of valuable Balltown oil land is occupying the attention of the court as we go to press.

—But one week from next Saturday and the Republican Primaries take place. Let us have a good turn out and success is ours in the fall.

—"Monk" Davis' incubator was due last Monday with one hundred eggs, or young chickens, rather, but they failed to "incubate," and now Monk's got an overstock of stale hen fruit.

—Any of our farmers looking for a rare bargain in a Mowing Machine should not fail to call on Chas. Raisig.

—One of the outest of A B C books is the "Household Primer." Each large letter has an amusing picture and a pretty verse.

—This is court week—special term—but one would hardly know it by the appearance of our streets.

—Dr. Jas. B. Siggins of Tidioute, and Miss Jennie Hall of Steubenville, Ohio, were married on the 10th inst., at the bride's home.

—The Democrats and Greenbackers hold their primaries next Saturday. We are not informed whether it is merely a coincidence or whether it "just happened so."

—We are pleased to note that Mr. F. M. Morgan is having a splendid run of custom at his green grocery in Oil City.

—Mr. T. D. Collins was somewhat indisposed for a few days, but is again able to attend to his extensive business which gives him little chance to rest.

—Lyman Cook and J. B. Haggerty are attending court this week.

—Another barge will be ready for market this week. Their length is 130 feet; we stand corrected.

Funeral of the Rev. O. B. Clark.

The Janestown Evening Journal gives the following particulars of the funeral of the late Chaplain Clark:

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon a very large number of friends and relatives of the late Chaplain O. B. Clark had gathered at the family residence on East Fifth street, to attend the funeral.

The pleasant weather induced many to walk to the cemetery to witness the Grand Army of the Republic ceremonies.

After the evergreen-trimmed grave had been surrounded by the mourners and the veterans, Commander Bradshaw opened the G. A. R. ceremony by reading from the ritual and calling upon Chaplain Hyde to offer prayer.
